The events leading up to it were almost unparalleled in our an-onle. At $50 clock, after a preliminary whemish of an hour over the barley schedule, the bill was reported to the nonse and the clocking speeches were made. Such a vast concourse of people as as sembled to hear these last arguments had never before been seen within the precinct of the nation's legislative capital. Noth ing like it was ever known in the history of the oldest initabitant of the capital. For hours before the debate began the corridors leading to the galleries were a orging mass of humanity, which finally scame so great that men cried out in terestimated that over 20,000 attempted to gain admittance to the galleries of the pied long before the gavel dropped. As a great majority of the collieries. in this region hardly worked at all during the last two weeks of January, the announcement that the rate of wages for the miners during that period will be four per cent. above the basis sounds like a gruesome piece of humor.

Ir would not be a badidea if the railroad companies would give some of the hundred of the idle men employment for a day or two clearing their main lines and side tracks of the snow and ice. There are many in this town to whom such an act would be a blessing. Suspension of work at the collieries has been a hard squeeze.
