

CENTRALIA.

Frank Kelley, of Shenandoah, spent Sunday with town friends.

Mrs. David McElheny, of Wm. Peain, returned home Sunday after a short visit to town.

P. J. O'Neil and wife spent Sunday among their many friends in Shenandoah.

James Goldsworthy, of Park Place, spent Sunday with friends here.

Superintendent Edward Reese visited Park Place colleagues on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Hruskavits and mother were among the visitors to Mt. Carmel on Saturday.

Anthony Moran was in Brownsville on Saturday.

Wm. Kerrigan paid a flying visit to Shenandoah on Saturday.

A number of young folks from Shenandoah enjoyed a sleigh ride to town on Saturday and while here put up at H. J. Kelley's. There were about thirty in the party, and all seemed to be enjoying themselves.

The funeral of Mrs. A. R. Fortner took place on Saturday from her late home on Locust Avenue. Services were held at the home at one o'clock, after which interment was made in the L.O. O. F. cemetery. The funeral was largely attended, as the deceased was well known and respected. Besides her husband Mrs. Fortner leaves three children to mourn her death. The Herald's sympathy is extended to the family and friends of the deceased. At the funeral were noticed G. E. Davis, of Athens; John Jones and wife, of Lost Creek; A. B. Garney and mother, of Mahanoy City.

Miss Mary Judge and sister, Winnie, of Shenandoah, were among the Sunday visitors to town.

The Hill Opera Company appeared on Saturday evening in the beautiful and popular drama, "Under the Gaslight." All members of the troupe acquitted themselves in their usual perfect style and again received the praise of the large audience which greeted them. This is an excellent company and deserving of large patronage. It left here Monday morning for Port Carbon, where it will play for a week.

A sleighing party, consisting of twenty couple from Hyresville, enjoyed a trip to Halfmoon Saturday evening. They passed the night in dancing and other amusements and returned early yesterday morning. All report having had a good time.

Thomas Judge, of the Quaker City, returned here yesterday after a few weeks' visit to town friends.

QUAKERS.

A. A. Zoigler is visiting friends at Strinville.

Joseph Malick and family have removed to this place from Mt. Carmel.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Conley, left for Mahanoy City yesterday morning.

A number of our ladies and lassies spent Sunday morning in sleighing through the valley and came to Sunday school in the afternoon with brightened eyes and rosy cheeks.

FRACKVILLE.

An infant child of Postmaster Bateman is quite ill with pneumonia.

Miss Jennie Taylor visited friends in Potsville last week.

Miss Lizzie Hovek left for Philadelphia on Saturday to take a course in type writing and stenography.

PAPERS WANTED.

In order to complete five hour copies of the EVENING HERALD of September 10th, October 10th and 20th 1893, are wanted. Address, HERALD office, Shenandoah, Pa. If MAHANOY CITY.

MAHANOY CITY, Feb. 6.

"Yucca," the strong woman, lifted six of our citizens, whose combined weight was about 1,200 pounds, and a large horse and tip the beam at 1,400 pounds, at Kaiser's opera house last evening, and a variety company entertained the audience until the hostess announced between "Cal" McCarthy and "Jim" Gilpin, the latter of Norristown. The two featherweights rained blows upon each other thick and fast, executing some very neat ducks and cross-counters, and on the whole gave a clever exhibition.

It is quite startling to hear of the number of children through the Mahanoy Valley who have lately become infested with pugilistic notions. Every day in the past week or two, they could be seen or heard of trouncing each other with a set of gloves larger than their silly little noddies. Of course they can't do each other much physical harm, but it is a bad sign for a parent, and it is a pity that a reporter and wanted publicity given to the fact that a pair of his ems, 14 or 15 years of age, would attempt to put each other into a sudden slumber with three ounce gloves, which are a little worse than bare knuckles for a spurs of ten or fifteen dollars, and the fight would be refereed by a well known man about town who has worn grey hairs years enough to know better.

"Fen" Cooper, J. J. Quirk and R. T. Clay ton will go to Reading on the 15th to shoot the second of a series of four pigeon matches. The third and fourth matches will be shot at Tannock and Mahanoy City, the last match occurring in March.

James Mulhearn, of Shenandoah, made business calls in town this morning.

Rev. Father McEneaney is visiting in Philadelphia.

"Peck's Bad Boy" will be the next attraction at Kaiser's opera house, and is billed for Feb. 14th.

Misses Sallis and Prindles, of McKeesburg, are visiting Mrs. O. J. Mitchell, of Catawissa street.

Yesterday morning William Bessinger bought a sleigh from Martin Gebhart for $150 without seeing his purchase. It was brought to the door shortly after a relief of snow, six or seven feet deep, and which was probably the vehicle that brought the first settler to our now beautiful city. It was without bottom or sides, and the shafts were attached to the runners by bits of wire. As for paint, there was hardly any place to put it. Bessinger didn't grow particularly enthusiastic over his purchase, in fact he looked as though he would get even with Gebhart yet, but as he had a guest to convey up the mountain at once he concluded to make the most of his bargain, and put his hostler, "Jim" Biew, to work making what repairs were within the ability of that all-around mechanic. When all was in readiness, the horse was brought out. The animal seized at the vehicle with suspicion. He suffered himself to be attached to it, however, and the party started up Centre street. All went well until Sixth street was reached, when a runner broke down and started the horse, which dashed the sleigh across the street, and after demolishing the dashboard with several vigorous kicks, freed himself and came trotting home, leaving the passengers in possession of the wreck. The poor animal has evidently been boarding over his humiliating experience during the night and tried to drive his sorrow to his bed and out, for when the driver arrived this morning he found the horse had broken open a feed box, devoured a lot of oats and some spoiled dried apples which had been tossed aside in the stable and was so enormously swollen as to make his exit through the stable door impossible.

Bessinger has been dancing around the stable all morning and it is not safe to interview him.

HARRISON-STANFORD. Rumor That the Ex-President Will Wed the California Senator's Widow.

SHREVEPORT, La., Feb. 6.—The Daily Democrat says: "The Democrat has learned through a source which it believes to be reliable that ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Stanford, widow of the late John Stanford, the California millionaire and United States senator, will shortly be united in matrimony at Palo Alto. The ex-president is now preparing to leave Indianapolis for the Stanford university to deliver a series of lectures, and while there will be married to Mrs. Stanford, whose wealth is estimated at $2,500,000. Mrs. Stanford was a warm friend of the late Mr. Harrison, and during the late Republican administration the Harrisons and Stanfords formed a close and lasting friendship, and one which has terminated in the rumored engagement."

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 6.—From a member of ex-President Harrison's family it was learned today that there is no foundation for the rumor that he is to marry Mrs. Leburn Stanford.

Due to the Death. MT. STREIBER, Ky., Feb. 6.—At 12:50 o'clock about fifteen pistol shots were heard on Broadway and Court streets, and in a few moments it was ascertained that Captain J. L. Bonar, of this city, and H. V. Turner, of Morgan county, were the parties who brought on the fight, and that Captain Bonar was dead. Four persons have been arrested and jailed—Clay Turner, Bruce Turner, James Turner and Thomas Blair, all of Morgan county. Captain Bonar and Mr. Turner were deadly foes. Bonar charging him with having seized the relations between him and his wife. Bonar was literally shot to pieces.

Geneva's Charter Election. GENEVA, N. Y., Feb. 6.—The Geneva charter election was held yesterday. The Republicans gain one trustee, possibly two, and the city treasurer. The Democratic pluralities on the balance of the ticket are much reduced.

A DRUNKARD'S CRIME.

After Attempting to Murder His Wife He Ended His Own Life.

LATROBE, Pa., Feb. 6.—Geordy May is the proprietor of two large stores here, and has been doing a big business. He had been on a spree since last Thursday. He remained away from home until 10 o'clock Saturday night. Then he appeared at his residence, learned that his wife was in her room, and without giving her a chance to open the door broke it down. He then made an attack upon her, but a big dog she had in the room attacked the man, who was half insane with drink, and while he was fighting the dog off an officer was called, who took him away.

May did not return home until yesterday, when he entered the house, bringing a letter for his wife. The letter contained a check. May ate his dinner, and then demanded that the wife endorse the check so he could get it cashed. She told him he could not have the check until he was sober. May was furious at her refusal, and drawing a revolver fired at her at close range. The shot struck her just above the heart, but was deflected. As she fell again, the second bullet shattered her thumb and was deflected at almost the identical spot where the first shot had glanced off.

As his wife fell, May ran up stairs and, standing before a mirror, sent a bullet into his brain. Meanwhile Mrs. May had escaped to the next house, where her wounds were attended to. Neighbors found May still alive, but he died two hours later. Mrs. May's injuries are slight, but she is suffering severely from nervous shock.

Serious Charges Against Labor Leaders.

HENESS, N. Y., Feb. 6.—In the case of Basil Gomez, alias "Bastie" Madden, in jail here on the charge of having murdered his companion, Maurice Murphy, also of New York, while tramping to Albany, Coroner Cochran began the investigation yesterday. The testimony developed that there had been a struggle in the woods, and that Murphy's skull was fractured by a blow. Both men were members of the Stone Cutters' association in New York, and it is probable that all of its officers will be called upon, as there are rumors about that Murphy was to be put out of the way for the same part he had taken over the exposure of alleged crooked transactions that, it is alleged, were going on in the association.

Caused by a German's Cruelty.

BREILS, Feb. 6.—Lectors received here from German settlers in the Cameron colony condemn the statements that the outbreak in the Camerons was caused by the action of the German governor in flogging the wives of the native soldiers. The Dahomeyans then went to the government house at Berlin town, killed the judge, in mistake for the governor, seized the government buildings and drove out the German settlers, who fled to the suburbs for protection. The newspapers of Berlin express the greatest indignation against Governor Leist, and demand his punishment.

Big Suit Against the Cordage Company.

JERSEY CITY, Feb. 6.—On application of the National Cordage company Chancellor McGill has given an order summoning Mrs. Lydia Wall to give testimony a second time in her suit for $254,000 against the company. Mrs. Wall, who says she was a member of the firm of William Wall & Son, asserts that the business was transferred to the Cordage company without her knowledge. She further claims that she has received no part of the $254,000.

The Legislative Injunction Withdrawn.

ALBANY, Feb. 6.—The Republicans have withdrawn their position in the senatorial controversy by securing the revocation by Judge Clute of his injunction against Clerk Kenyon. The application was made by Judge Countryman on the ground that the clerk was the servant of the majority of the senate and not of the presiding officer, and Judge Clute promptly granted the application.

Prepared for Her Own Funeral.

SABASA, O., Jan. 6.—Mrs. Mary Huff man, a well known lady of this place, died on Sunday. On Friday she predicted that she would be dead in three days and began to make preparations for the funeral. She worked hard all day Saturday and retired in the evening apparently well as usual, and the next morning was found dead in bed, as she had predicted.

Laid in Wait for His Enemies.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Feb. 6.—Haradask, a Hungarian, laid in wait in a hallway for two brothers, Joseph and Frank Babowsky. As they were passing Haradask jumped out and stabbed both with a knife. Joseph Babowsky may not recover, and Frank is also badly injured. Haradask stabbed the two brothers because they beat him in a drunken quarrel.

Treatment of Eczema and Salt Rheum.

These two complaints are so tenacious that the readers of the EVENING HERALD should know of the success obtained by using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Where all other treatments have failed, it has made a complete cure.

Perhaps no more horrible case of Salt Rheum was ever reported than that of Wilbur L. Hale, quartermaster, Pratt Post, G. A. R., Rondout, N. Y. Several physicians utterly failed to render him any relief, finally one of the physicians suggested that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy be tried, and steady improvement followed its use, and a permanent cure resulted.

It is used with similar success in cases of scrofula, nervousness, kidney and liver complaints, and in all diseases brought about by bad blood and shattered nerves.

THE DEADLOCK STILL UNBROKEN.

Jersey Republicans select Candidates for Treasurer and Comptroller.

TRENTON, Feb. 6.—The house of assembly and both senatorial bodies were in session last night, but no business of consequence was accomplished. No new developments have appeared in the senate struggle. Governor Werts has not seen Attorney General Stockton since the latter's opinion was submitted on the quo warranto proceedings last week, and nothing has been done towards bringing the matter to a legal settlement.

The Republicans held a joint caucus right after the adjournment of both houses to select candidates for state comptroller and state treasurer. George B. Rowell, of Essex, had been the leading candidate for treasurer, and F. S. Hancock, of Mercer, for comptroller. A combination was formed last week by Samuel Dickinson, of Hudson, and David Baird, of Camden, to best these candidates. Last night a lively fight was made to stave off the caucus for a week by the Dickinson-Baird men. In this they failed, and Baird withdrew from the contest. A lively debate took place as to the advisability of adjourning the caucus, but this was voted down. Hancock received the caucus nomination by a vote of 14 to 14 for Dickinson. Swain was nominated without opposition.

Presentation of People of Renown To the People of Shenandoah and The Mahanoy Valleys.

To make a voyage around the world and meet the crowned heads of Europe as well as the most distinguished people in this country and abroad would cost lots of money, wouldn't it, even if you had the entire into their society? But suppose you could sit in your own home with your wife and children around you and come face to face with splendid photographs of these people of note, that would be quite a big step toward knowing them—as near, perhaps, as you will ever get.

And when you begin to weary of studying the features of this class of society we will show you a good many places and things in far-away climes that many of your brethren have paid thousands of dollars to see.

You can take Your Family with you without EXTRA COST, and without the discomforts of Travel to you all.

The advantages of pictorial representation as a means of informing and verifying can hardly be exaggerated. Wherever travel is practicable there the lens, with its quick flash of light and swiftly caught image of nature and man, has come in to supply the deficiency and to transmit to homes in distant lands the picture and visions of the reality.

Now if you will come with us on this

... Voyage ... Around the World

You will see many wonderful things, meet many celebrated personalities, and you will not lose any time from business.

The first week we are going to introduce to you:
