

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.
The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader. "For a long time I had a terrible pain in my heart, which bothered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sleep a room without sitting down and resting, but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all this is past and I feel like my former self. I was told that the New Heart Cure I had taken different social remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 150 lbs. I feel in my case like being truly happy. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever derived from physicians. Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1912.
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiate nor dangerous drugs.

THE OPERA BOUFFE WAR

The Recent "Bombardment" of Rio de Janeiro.

A VERY GREAT WASTE OF POWDER.

Each Firing, but Trifling Damage to Life or Property—Canon Balls Glanced from the Aquidaban's Turrets Like Penns.

New York, Feb. 8.—The special correspondent of the Associated Press in Rio Janeiro writes as follows under date of Jan. 12:
The comparative quiet which has prevailed here for ten days or more was rudely interrupted yesterday by a furious encounter between the Aquidaban and the forts, followed by an attack by the rebel fleet and the batteries in their possession upon the shore defenses of the city.

Later in the day another fight took place at Santa Ana and Pomas da Areia. All the fighting, however, only resulted in the killing of four men and the mortally wounding of a fifth. These were all citizens of Rio. What loss, if any, the rebels sustained is not known.
It has been rumored for two days that the Aquidaban had returned from the north, and that after a trip to Desterro she was waiting outside for a good chance to run in. Consequently the forts, both government and rebel, were on the qui vive, ready to help or hinder the movement as opportunity offered. In spite of this the entry of the Aquidaban was something of a surprise to all.
Instantly the firing began from Fort Santa Cruz, and a moment later Fort St. John joined in the fight. Little Fort Lage, further inside the bay, also sent her guns to increase the hail of missiles which rattled around the daring Aquidaban. At that range, however, not a shot reached its mark, and without doing a reply the big black ship pressed silently on into the narrow channel between the fortresses.

Further on Fort Santa Cruz was not three hundred yards away from the Aquidaban and the warships furiously, sending a plunging fire down upon the decks of the vessel. St. John, a mile away, sent her heaviest projectiles against the rebel ship's broadside, while Fort Lage swept her decks with a raking fire. A ship could hardly be subjected to a more severe test, and yet the Aquidaban pushed rapidly on apparently unharmed. Such shots as struck her glanced from her turrets or rebounded like penns from her armor. When just opposite Fort Santa Cruz, in the narrowest and most dangerous place, she seemed to awake. From her huge guns she spouted dangerously and her heavy projectiles rushed forth against her sides.
Fort Villegaignon, far up the harbor, now came into action, and by her rapid fire attempted to draw off attention from the Aquidaban. For half an hour the fight continued, until at last the Aquidaban dropped anchor alongside the Tremadour, out of range of all hostile batteries.

Then it was time to count results. Perhaps 200 shots had been fired at ranges from 200 yards to two miles. Yet, so far as can be learned, absolutely no damage was done.
The Aquidaban, though struck several times, was practically unharmed, while not a single shot, either from her batteries or from Fort Villegaignon, struck any one of the government forts.

Later the Guanabara, one of the rebel torpedo cruisers, opened fire on the shore batteries erected to protect the custom house. This was answered from the shore, but neither side seemed to do much damage. A little later at Cotras Island the cruiser Trajano joined the Guanabara, and with her the latter, with Admiral Inham's flag flying, they came into action. The latter, however, contented herself with firing three heavy projectiles, which landed over the shore defenses and landed themselves in the heart of the city.
The only fatalities reported were caused by the explosion in the city of a heavy shell, fired by the Guanabara, which killed four men: Pedro Malinotti, a policeman; Manuel de Jesus Gadarola, a shoemaker; Ametico Duarte, an apothecary; and Manuel Goncalves de Silva, a medical student.

ANOTHER RACE RIOT.

Two Hundred American Workmen Attack a Party of Foreign Laborers.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 8.—At Brighton, Pa., there is great animosity between the American and foreign laborers at the excavation being made for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company. The Americans claim that they have been discriminated against in the matter of employment in favor of the foreign element. The wages paid amount to ninety cents a day, and the demand for work at this rate is so great that there is a constant struggle for preference.
Yesterday 200 Americans and an equal number of foreigners engaged in a pitched battle. It appears that the Americans took possession of the Turf-Creek bridge, over which the foreigners must pass on their way to work, and when a contractor with his gang approached they were attacked with sticks and stones and any other weapon ready to hand. After several foreigners were badly beaten they retired. More serious trouble is feared.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Zella Nicholans, who has been notorious through her alleged dealings with George Gould, had a lively time with a consable at the Victoria hotel. Al Rubman, who is said to be her husband, was also mixed up in the row. The last time Zella and Mr. Rubman were

In Chicago they contracted a board bill with Maurice Eden at the Great North-west hotel, amounting to $67, for which Mr. Eden was compelled to take a note, as they had no money.
Learning that they were again in the city, stopping at the Victoria hotel as Mr. and Mrs. King, of Cleveland, he promptly took out an attachment, and a consable appeared at their apartments. Mr. Rubman said he would like to settle, but had only $27 in cash. The consable then threatened to carry off the lady's wardrobe, which lay exposed in the open trunk. Mrs. Rubman protested vigorously, and Mr. Rubman intimated to the consable that if the officer of the law did not make himself scarce.

The consable reported the matter to the hotel people, who invited the guests to leave. The Rubmans promptly sent their baggage down stairs, and the consable seized the biggest trunk.
