THE TARIFF IN THE SENATE

The Income Tax Provision Will Probably Cause a Democratic Split, WASHINGTON, Feb. S.—Senator Voorhees

William Muldowney, who died at Schuyl. kill Haven on Monday, was buried to-day at the exmercry on the hill. Requiem mass was held by Father Muldowney in St. Canicus church at 10 a.m. The deceased was about 35 years of age and unmarried. The young man had been if it ur several years and had been in the Schuylkill Haven almahouse bospital, where he was to undergo special treatment, but three days, at the time of his derive. His purpuls and one sister survives ing that they had agreed upon a bill, admitted that a bill containing the suggestions of some of the members and gone to of work by the committee. This bill, it is understood, makes liberal concessions to the sugar and road interests, and it also makes a material change in the income tax feature of the house bill, providing for a tax only upon the Incomes of con

Among the rumors which are flying thick and fast about the senate is one to the effect that in case the income tax is not ommitted Senators Hill, Murphy and Gorman will vote with the Republicans to recommit when the hill is reported to the smate. On the other hand the bill with the income tax retained will probably command the vote of the three Populist scantors; which it would lose if this tax should be left out.

TOPERA, Kan., Feb. 8.—The counsel for the incornage companies in the famous Hillman case claim to have uncarthed the Hillman cose claim to have uncarring the real facts in the strange disappearance of John M. Hillman. They say Hillman died subsequently to the trial of the case in 1888. Hillman, they hold, did not die in the United States, and at the time of his death he was not known as John M. Bülman. Coursel claim that all the circumnan. Counsel claim that all the circum stances of the new story will sustain the line of defense hersiofore adopted, and that the body which was produced and identified by Mrs. Hillman and other friends was not that of Hillman, but of a Fort Madison cigarmaker, who wrote to his mother and sweetheart on the eve of his departure from Wichita that he was going with a man armed Hillman to a ranch near by. Since then the eigarmaker has never been seen. The cigarmaker, Mr Ware said, and every reason to live, and Hillman had a motive to disappear and rlaim to be dead.

Presentation of People of Renown To the People of Shenandoah and The Mahanoy Valleys.

To make a voyage around the world and meet the crowned heads of Europe as well as the most distinguished people in this country and abroad would cost lots of money, wouldn't iteven if you had the entree into their society? But suppose you could sit in your own home with your wife and children around you and come face to face with splendid photographs of these people of note, that would be quite a big step toward knowing them-as near, perhaps, as you will ever get. And when you begin to weary of studying the features of this class of society we will show you a good many places and things in far-away climes that many of your brethren bave paid thousands of dollars to see.
