BIG BLIZZARD WEST.

A Storm of Unequaled Severity in Several Western States.

NO PATALITIES YET REPORTED.

But It Is Believed That Many Will Perish from Exposure, While Wholesale Destruction of Cattle Is Inevitable-The Storm Covers a Wide Area-

Kassas Cirv. Mo., Feb. 12.—The great New York bilizzard is being equated in the west. It began snowing in this city about noon yesterday, and has continued ever since, the snow coming down so thick it looks like a fog. All street car lines in the city were compelled to saspend operations, yesterday afternoson, the plows being un-able to keepthe Iracks clear. It is almost an impossibility for pedestrians toget about. Dispatches from Kansas indicate that the storm is general. At Emporia the snow fall was reported at midnight two feet, while similar reports came from other reduct.

Signal Officer Conner states that the Signal Officer Conner states that the blizzard is the worst experienced in this vicinity since the establishment of the signal office in this city. Incoming trains from the west on all reads are reported from four to twelve hours late, and some of them have been "lost" altegather. Dispatches from Oklahoma and the lodian Territory Indicate that suffering among the settlers will be very serious. The loss of life, it is expected, will also be very great.

very great.

A dispatch from Hennessy, O. T., says.
A terrible norther, never before experienced in this part of the country, reached here at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. It has been showing and drifting since with no abatement, and has drifted in places six feet deep. Railroad traffic is entirely suspended. The blizand came up very suddenly, and no doubt the poorly sheltered sattlers in the Cheroke strip will suffer settlers in the Cherokee strip will suffer greatly from exposure. The wind is blow-

Similar reports come from Pittsburg, Olathe, Parsons, Abliene, Eldorado and other points la Kansas. The storm pre-valls all along the Kansas and Toxas rail-road from points in Missouri to Texas.
The blockade is general.

The Blizzard in Nebrusica.

OMANA, Feb. 12.—Since 3 o'clock yesfer-day morning a storm has raged generally in the upper Missouri country, covering the entire territory between the river and the mountains. The wind is from the northwest, blowing at almost a gale, ac-companied by fine snow, which is drifted budly and packed hard. In this city cars have ceased running, and the movement have ceased running, and the movement of railroad trains is greatly hampered. All outgoing trains have been abandoned. Reports received from points in the west-eny the snowfall is increasing and is drift-ing badly, so that a general blockade is immisent. The mercury is below zero, and undoubtedly will go lower. This will entail great suffering and probably exten-sive loss among cattle ranges. The wet-snow of Friday covered all forage out of sight, and this latter fall will make it im-possible for the eattle to obtain any food possible for the cattle to obtain any food

Traffic Suspended at St. Jos.

Sr. Joe, Mo., Feb. 12.—A heavy snow storm set in here at 11.0 clock jesterday, and it is now a foot deep on the level. The mercury at zero, with a strong wind from the northwest. Street car traffic is en-tirely suspended. Reports received at the general offices of the Burlington road are to the effect that the storm extends over a greater part of the system, increasing in violence as it proceeds southward.

Snow Blockude in Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 10.-Snow blocked the Union Pacific tracks between this city and Ogden all day Saturday am until 3 o clock yesterday afternoon. Wind piled snow in the cuts as fast as it could be dug out. A snow blockade to care in blain. The tracks are now clear.

Illinois Catches It, Too.

QUINCY, Ills., Feb. 12.—A severe officered to ruging in this vicinity. The thermome ter is sinking steadily, and the snow and sheet is almost blinding. A strong north west wind prevails, and street car and rail way service is impaired.
