A PIRATE'S CONFESSION.

One of a Gang Who Carried Off a Whole Store.

RYE, N. Y., Feb. 13.—A hearing is in progress before Justice Baruch in the case of Dennis Ahern, one of the men captured when he went ashore from the black sloop Sarah, popularly known on the Long Island sound as the pirate sloop.

Ahern has made a full confession to Justice Baruch. He says there were nine men in the gang of robbers. They were banded together for the sole purpose of robbery, and J. Fitch, of Port Morris, was captain. The sloop Sarah sailed from Port Jefferson, L. I. He also told Justice Baruch the names of the other members of the gang, but the justice refused to divulge them at present.

Ahern said in detail that on the 7th of February last the general merchandise store of Louis Smith at Fort Salonga, a few miles from Northport, L. I., was entered by the whole gang, headed by Captain Fitch. They cleaned it out entirely. The goods carried away were worth about $2,000. They were all stowed aboard the sloop on which the robbers sailed away at daylight. When Mr. Smith reached his store he found nothing in it but the empty counters and some burglars' tools.

Ahern said the robbers cruised about for a few days and then decided to land at Milton's Point, where they took ashore the two bags of goods which led to his arrest.

Justice Baruch is now working on the case both as a justice and a detective. He says all the robberies that have occurred along the shore for the past year will now be cleared up.

Storm Wreck in Ohio.

BELLEVUE, O., Feb. 13.—Two freight trains collided on the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad in the storm two miles west of this place. Three men were killed. Both engineers and one fireman were the victims. The bodies of all the above were mangled and their limbs broken. The rest of the trainmen escaped without injury except severe bruises. The cause of the wreck will probably remain a mystery, as both engineers are dead. Freight No. 5 was running as second section of passenger train No. 6, which passed freight No. 40 at Bellevue. The presumption is that the engineer of No. 28 failed to see the signals and started out supposing the track to be clear. The men killed are Engineers Connel and Stowell, Fireman McMillan and Brakenman Johnson.

Dennis That He Is a Forger.

QUINCY, Ill., Feb. 13.—A. M. Vanauken, the railroad promoter, indicted here for the alleged forgery of the name of President M. E. Ingalls, of the Big Four railroad system, to a bond on which he was to receive $30,000 advanced by a syndicate of Quincy capitalists, was formally placed under arrest in Blossing hospital yesterday. Bonds were furnished by two members of the syndicate. Vanauken declares that he did not see the bond, did not sign it himself and did not know it was forged when he negotiated it.

Celebrating Lincoln's Birthday.

TRINTON, Feb. 13.—Neither branch of the legislature did any business last night, but adjourned to participate in the celebration of Lincoln's birthday, for which a committee of the house had made arrangements. An immense crowd gathered on the floor of the chamber and in the galleries. There were but two Democratic members on the floor, and not a Democratic senator when the Republican senators marched in and President Rogers took the chair.

A Thieving Gang Captured.

GRESHAM, Pa., Feb. 13.—Special Officer May, of the Pennsylvania railroad, arrested and sent to jail Peter Matron, John Oystercamp, Henry Matron, John Herman, Al Garland, Alex. Lutz, Frank Yerman and T. S. Kelley, eight of the gang of car robbers who have been robbing cars and the farmers in the vicinity for the past several months. They are all tough characters, and have been a terror to the community for a long time.

Tried to Rob a Church.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13.—A desperate attempt was made by thieves to blow open a safe in the Green Street Methodist church, on Green street above Tenth. Had they succeeded in their efforts they would have been poorly rewarded, as the safe contained little of value. For want of sufficient powder the door remained on its hinges, but the explosion set fire to the church and caused a damage of nearly $200. The thieves escaped.

Arson to High Murder.

HOBSTON, Tex., Feb. 13.—Yesterday a ride that which had stood near the East Texas road, in the suburbs, was discovered in ashes. The dead and charred remains of Mike Dolan, its owner, was found in the ruins. An examination showed that Dolan had been stabbed twice and shot once. To conceal the crime the lint had been burned. Jim Hill and Peter Powell, two negroes, have been arrested on suspicion.

Men of the Kearsarge Safe.

COLOS, Feb. 13.—The crew of the United States cruiser Kearsarge was rescued at noon on Saturday. Only one man was drowned. He was a second class fireman named Anderson Robbins. The vessel was abandoned on Roncador reef, with the Stars and Stripes still flying at her peak. The steamship City of Para, with the crew of the Kearsarge on board, will leave this port for New York tomorrow.

A Crew Rescued in Mid-Ocean.

LOBOS, Feb. 13.—The British brig W. G. Gordon, Captain Payzant from Halifax, Jan. 26, for St. Kitts, was abandoned in latitude 40-41, longitude 62-14. The vessel was sighted by the British steamer Cervic, Captain Nichol, from New York for Liverpool, and the crew, after considerable trouble and danger, were rescued by the Cervic's boats and the vessel was set on fire.

Chairman Wilson Better.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 13.—Congressman Wilson, chairman of the house ways and means committee, is feeling stronger than he did even before he left Washington, but his physicians have prescribed rest for a few days as the best possible tonic for him. He intends, however, to leave tomorrow for the City of Mexico in company with his family and Congressman Tarsney and wife.

Half the Town Destroyed.

FREMONT, O., Feb. 13.—Over half the business portion of Geneva, a village of 2,000 on the Lake Shore, eight miles west of Fremont, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The buildings were mostly wooden structures, and the fire spread rapidly, gutting all stores, butcher shops and offices to the value of many thousands.

The Doctor Won.

Daniel Neisewander, late proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, and Dr. Isaacson, a Polish physician who was a guest at the hotel during Mr. Neisewander's administration, had a law suit before Justice Denglorg this morning. Mr. Neisewander sued the doctor for $25 claimed to be due for board for the month of November last, and as a counter claim the doctor presented a bill for $50 based on professional services rendered. Mr. Neisewander's wife. The justice gave the doctor judgment for $25 and Mr. Neisewander says he will appeal, as the doctor only paid three visits to his wife and when the doctor was asked for his bill he told Mr. Neisewander in the presence of witnesses that there would be no charges.

Storm Points.

It blew and then it snowed. More snow and plenty of it. The sleigh bells are jingling. The shovel brigades were out in force this morning.

It is predicted that the thermometer will drop twenty degrees to-day. The wind was a howling success last night. The blizzard arrived on time.

School Room Robbed.

Thieves broke into Miss Fairchild's class room in the West Centre street school building last night and stole a quantity of books, slates, pencils and other supplies. The thieves escaped detection.

A Royal Introduction Bureau.

Presentation of People of Renown To the People of Shenandoah and The Mahanov Valleys.

To make a voyage around the world and meet the crowned heads of Europe as well as the most distinguished people in this country and abroad would cost lots of money, wouldn't it, even if you had the entree into their society? But suppose you could sit in your own home with your wife and children around you and come face to face with splendid photographs of these people of note, that would be quite a big step toward knowing them—as near, perhaps, as you will ever get.

You can take Your Family with you without EXTRA COST, and without the discomforts of Travel to you all.

The advantages of pictorial representation as a means of informing and verifying can hardly be exaggerated. Wherever travel is practicable there the lens, with its quick flash of light and swiftly caught image of nature and man, has come in to supply the deficiency and to transmit to homes in distant lands the picture and visions of the reality.

Voyage Around the World

You will see many wonderful things, meet many celebrated person ages, and you will not lose any time from business.

- 1st. The venerable Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, in their black robes of office. 2d. The lovely Mrs. Cleveland. 3d. The President of the United States, Mr. Cleveland. 4th.
