Diamond Dyes Make Possible Many Stylish Sults-Their Use Greatly Ice eased by Mard Times-Bich Colors That Will Not Fade, Crock, or Wash Out.

"About the only thing the male of which Presentation of People of Renown has been increased by the hard times an To the People of Shenandoah and diamond dyes," said a Shenandoah druggist. Women like to be well dressed, and they find that by the use of these handy hour dyes they can make an old dress look like s new one, prevent the husband's clothes from getting shabby, and keep the children nicel; clothed.

While there are fifty different colors in diamond dyes, the blacks (special kinds for wool, cotton, silk and teathers) are the mor popular, as any color can be dyed a hand some black with but little work or expension The directions on the envelopes are so plat and explicit that the most inexperienced can do as well as the professional dyer.

In one of the ladies' papers, a story of relife was printed, telling how a winter ward robs was made from partly worn clothing by the aid of dismond dyes. "A tan colored flannel dress was taken apart and washed and then dyed a beautiful brown with seal brown diamond dye. As it is made very plain can be washed almost as easily as calico; for like other colors produced by dyes, it wil never fade." It also tells of a "suit that was dyed a lovely shade of dark green," and ther useful and handsome gowns, cloaks and hats that were colored over with diamond dyss. Try a ten cent package and ace how ensily a fest and beautiful color can be made over way kind of goods.
