FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

The National Association Welcomed to Washington.

ERNATOR CARRY'S PREDICTION.

He Believes That Woman Suffrage Will be the Rule to the Trans-Missouri Country in the Near Future - Miss Anthony Presented with a Flag.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The National American Woman's Suffrage association began its twenty-sixth annual convention in Metzerott Music hall. The convention was called to order by the venerable president, Miss Susan B. Authory, who asked the Rev. Anna Shaw to offer prayer, after which Miss Authony, in a brief speech, formally opened the proceedings.

The report of the executive committee, which was next read, recommended that the special effort of the association be con-centrated on the campaigns in Kansas and New York, the two states where there is to be a test yet: this year. In this con neetion the convention heard reports from the members of the delegation from Kan-sas and New York. Mrs. Lillis Devereux Blake spoke for New York and Mrs. Laurn M. Jones for Kansas, and both spoke enconragingly.

The naming of committees and the usual contine work of a convention occupied the constinter of the day's session.

In the evening a mass meeting was held, at which the principal speakers were Sen-ators Teller and Carey, and Representative Pence, of Colorado.

"Colorado," the "new star" in the flag of the woman suffragists, came in for the lion's share of the discussion at the meet-ing, and half a dozen speeches and papers had that topic for their basis. The first of these was by Carrie Lane Chapman, of New York, who, is a stirring speech, congratu-lated her hearers on what had been accom-plished in the cause of enfranchisement of women, and urged her co-workers to push forward again for victory that was already within sight.

Semator Teller said he had long ago reached the conclusion that an intelligent suffrage was the safeguard of the republic. It did not take him long to decide that any system which excluded half the intelligent people of the right of franchise was not calculated to be for the best interests of the whole people. The senator believed that the fine was coming when women from every state in the land would not only be allowed to vote but would exercise that right.

Mr. H. B. Blackwell, of Massachusetts, Mr. H. B. Blackweil, of Massachusetts, a prominent worker in the woman suffrage gause, made an address reviewing the work done in Colorado for the advancement of woman suffrage. In 1862, he said, the legislature cuncted a woman suffrage law to be voted upon in 1881. It was hearfly supported by the trades unions and Knights of Labor, by Populists and Republicans as parties, and by many individual Democrats. The law was ratified by $6,500 majority. Colorado now stood side by side with Wyoming, with women on perfect political equality with men.

In beginning his address Senator Carey paid a hearty tribute to Miss Susan B, Anthony, the president of the association. He continued in part as follows:

"She (Miss Anthony) has given the years of her youth and is now devoting the en-

of her youth and is now devoting the energies of her muture life to the accomplishment of a nolde purpose. Tonlight we chor, a leading member of distributions ber and her army of associates on the new victory, the most marked clates on the new victory, the most marked which Emperor William was a discussion regarding. congratulate per and cintes on the new victory, the most marked of all. We said to two stars on the flog of our common country, symbolical of the pour common country, symbolical of the treaty with Bassia the emperor said the algorithm of which Emperor During a discussion regarding the treaty with Bassia the emperor said the street of the treaty of the treaty is reported. our common country, symbolical of the political equality of woman with men. To Colorado is due the hencrable distinction that cannot be awarded, up to this time, to any other state in the Union, of granting to the women of that state, by a direct vote composed exclusively of male cleators, their full political rights. That this should have been done in Culcorado is the highest amountment that could be point to. should have been done in Colorado is the highest compliment that could be paid to Wyoning, the first territory and state to great to woman the full rights of suffrage. In Colorado it was not an instantaneous conversion, announced with brass bands and parades, but a decision arrived at after long and mature deliberation. It is my deliberate opinion that it will not be many years before woman suffrage will be the rule and not the exception in all of the trans-Missouri country. It is frequently asserted that the women of Wyoming do not vote for presidential electors. I wish to state that they not only vote for presi-dential electors, but for all federal, state, county, municipal and school officers, and the same will now be true of Colorado

Mra. Jean Brooks Greenlast, of Rochester, N. Y., president of the New York State society, read a paper having for its subject "The coming state," She hailed the rising stap—referring to New York state—because she realized, she said, that woman suffrage there would lift the mass of womanhead from a lower to a higher plane. She refolced because it would give to the mother a more exalted place, the wife a more self respecting position, and throw about the sisters and daughters an arm of defense against the world which they do

The president of the society, Miss An-The president of the society, Miss Anthony, introduced to the assemblage Mr. Ross with the remark that he was the first official of the district who had ever taken a seat on the platform to welcome the association to Washington. Mr. Ross made a cordial speech of welcome to the delegates, and assired them of his hearty symmetric transfer.

pathy in support of their cause.

The president's address was then delivered by Miss Anthony. It was a brief, interesting and critical review of the cause of woman suffrage with frequent cause of woman suffrage with frequent caustic allusions to the action of the courts in their decisions affecting the laws passed by the states for the enfranchise-ment of women. Miss Authory was en-thusiastically received by the audience and her remarks were closely listened to. Concluding her speech, she presented to

Miss Anthony, who was 74 years old yes-terday, a handsome woman suffrage flag, a gift from the women of Wyoming, with an expression of the wish that its lesson would tends the men of New York at their coming election to crown Miss Anthony with the sovereignty of American citizen-

Rev. Anna Shaw, of Pennayivania, was the next speaker, after which papers were read by Miss Laura S. Johns, of Colorado, and Miss Jean Breoks Greenlenf, of New York. The meeting closed with a speech from Representative Pence, of Colorado.

Only the elemency to which the jury so carnestly recommended him stands between the ex-car of Gravessud and a term of Incarceration in prison. In view of this the prisoner may receive something less than the full limit of the law. An appeal to the general term and to the court of appeals stands in the way of execution of the sentence whatever it may be. But the lawyers who have heard the trial feel confident that these amoents mean merely defident that those appeals mean merely de-lay and not reversal. Justice Bartlett has exercised the greatest care in excluding any evidence on which the appellate might order a new trial, and no one familiar with crimten Hitigative has any doubt that the verdict will stand.

Through all the scene there sat upon the bench, beside the presiding pastice, Will-iam J. Gayana, Judge of the supreme court, whom McKane threatened to defeat when he was making its candidacy. It was in the efforts to defeat him that the sta-pendous frauds were committed.
