WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The members of the Woman Suffrage convention in Washington think the prospect of their cause "unusually encouraging for even these encouraging times." And why should they not? The West is so good as committed to them, and is not the West the hope of the Nation? It matters little that the effete East and North furn them a cold shoulder, and even ies that the reactionary. North does, With the W-si won, victory is won, In the last vote on this subject in Congress, that on the Oklahoma: billi, by the Senators, the men who took the side of the women, were with two or three exceptions from the West and Northwest. The representatives in the Senate of the territorially great states voted for the entranchising of women. Inwa, Wyoming, Minnesota thregon, the Inkotas, Nebraska, Ramus, Colorado, Nevada, California having them; what need women to care for more? In the couring day se these goes will go the nation.

The worken are automatical by the prospent and only in the United States, but in Faighing. They have fought a long and hard battle over there, and victory is almost in their grasp. There is talk now of a compromise in conference over the Parish Conneils will, and of that is effected the women of fonguest will vote in parish affairs along with their brothers, imstands and fathers.

Embugge, In., is considerably stirred up by a controversy over non-le-in the Grandview Avecus Methodist church. In is claimed that the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, has a foundness for popular airs which led him on a recent or easien to introduce into one of his services that tuneful blood idiacy, "Turaers Boom-deay," whereupon several members of his flock second and left the circreb. Mr. Wilkins on denies that Lottle Collins' duty ever was sung in his church. He says that the ramor was discentifully to the lack of musical knowledge on the part of the secoders, who, he wids, could not tell "Pull For the Shore" from "Pop Goes the Wessel. "It wasn't Ta-ra-ra' at all," he explains, "but a pretty little wallz. What right has anyone to object to popular alm? If they are not wrong on the streets they are not anywhere. I'm tired about the faolishness about church music anyway. For instance fook at 'I Want to be an Angel and with the Augus Stand?
