SUBROUNDED IN EVANS' HOUSE.

The Men Ween Out by the Lively Chase Tucy Have Led in Evading the Officers of the Law-Evans Brutally Assaults a Visatita, Cal., Feb. 20.—Chris Evans, the train robber and outlaw who escaped from Freeno fall a month ago, is again in our tody. It was discovered Sunday night that he had come into Visida from the mountains with his partner, follward Mor-rell, who as-steed him to escape from Fresno jall, and that the two men were hidden in Evans' house here. Officers sur-rounded the house yesterday, and a few bours later practically all the inhabitants of the town were present. Evans recog-nized the fact that escape was impossible, and after a brief negotiation with Sheriff Kay, of this county, he and Morrell sur-rendered.

Men were stationed around the house at midnight so as to command it on all sides. The town-speople, many of whom were armed, came to the scene, drawn by curiosarmed, came to the scene, drawn by curiously, and when daylight broke a large portion of the population were on the ground of the expected buttle. The news which hought this excitement about was given by a man manual brighton, who is in the amploy of Marshal term. He was formerly a deputy mar-shal in Arizona. He and fard arrived here at 3 o'clock in the morning and immediately set to work to eapture the out-

It was clearly known from previous ex-perious that Evans will shoot and shoot to kill. It was conceded that an attempt to capture the men by assaulting the house would surely result in the death of several of the posse. Moreover, Chris-Evans clubbers were known to be in the Evans close you were known to be in the house, and the officers did not wish to stort a fight which might result in the death or injury of these innocent children. It was however, the intention to storm the house about mean if nothing occurred before that time. It was conceled that if the attempt should be made some lives would be lost, but the citizens were determined a non-zero and in the largest enemal. mined to put an end to the lawless career of these men.

ing the men to surrender peaceably, and telling them that they would certainly be either killed or captured—that their e-cape was impossible. The messenger was compelled to enter the house, and was held as a hostage. The messenger was a young man named Benson. Evans said to him when he entered:

"Ain't you taking great chances! Now you take these pistols and walk out ahead of us when we get ready to go."

Benson was badly frightened.
When Evans saw armed menuround the house, and noted that Brighton had not returned, he attacked Mrs. Brighton, who was in the house, knocking her down and kicking her, telling her to go to bed and stay there. He was only prevented from killing the woman through the interven-tion of Merrell, who communied him to desist. The woman was badly injured, and in spanns for hours, and was badly bruised where kicked.

Evans and Morrell at the time of their surrender had two. Winelesser rifles an pistohs and pistry of amountation. Not alial Gard says the new arrested at Evans is Ed Martin, known here as also Evans is Ed Martin, known here as the rell; that he formerly ran a mery go-round with Fristericks, who is accound of killing Sheriff Passeott, of Navada county. Morroll assisted in stealing arms from a school in this city, and Fredericks took them to Felsom prison for George Sontag. The bandits are wern out. The officers have kept them traveling, and they had to find some place to rest, and they took that that same place to real, and they took that chance force. The citizens are very indignant at Evans' treatment of Mrs. Brighton, and had the prisoners not light removed they would have been lynched. The prisoners were spritted away to Freeno shortly after mismight, the shortly refusing to give their destination.
