Too High Pressure.

Too High Pressure.

In these days of keen competition in every line, when the business man is compelled to bend his intellect and every energy to the success of his business; the clerk, heok-keeper, prefessional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which if mot resulting in immediate death, leaves them with shattered brains and bodies. They are running at too high pressure The arrain is too great. Something most and does give way. This is equally true of women. Though their sphere is more limited, they have their daily burdens, freistand worries, and the results are the same as with their stronger companions.

This condition is growing worse every day. The rapidity of its increase is awful to contemplate. Our homes, hospitals, and insure asylums are full of these unfortunates. and are being crowded still further. There is but one solution of the matter. THE WIMAN SENSATION the Wiman for forgery and his imprison-ment for want of bail is a subject of gen-eral comment and wonderment. In the business districts down town it was dis-cussed to the exclusion of all other mat-

The shock of the announcement of his arrest was increased when it became known that, like a common felon, be had been locked in a cell in the "murderers row" in the Tombs prison.

Warden Fallon explained this unusual happening in this way:
"By placing Mr. Wiman there I did not intend to subject him to any indignity. The reason I placed Wiman in No. 3 was that he would have a cell to himself, and as he came in so late in the evening it was impossible to place him elsewhere.

Mr. Wiman promises to speak when his turn comes, and it is expected that he will then give another color to the story aircady told of his alleged forgeries. He contends that he has committed no crime, but only did what he had a right to do by reason of his business relations with the mer-cantile agency. Beyond this simple asser-tion Wiman declines to discuss the allegations made by Mr. Dun until he is per-fectly prepared to make public his state-ment of facts concerning the charges preferred against him.
Considerable surprise was expressed in the city today that Mr. Dun should have left for California just at the time Mr. Wiman's arrest was contemplated.

Ex-District Attorney DeLancy Nicoll, when seen this morning, declined to talk about the matter and said that he was not prepared to make any public statement of

Mr. Dun's charges.

General Tracy said last night that he had been busy all day looking over the indictments and examining the papers relating to the charges made against Mr. Wiman. Today he is endeavoring to have his client released on bail. The news of the arrest of Erastus Wiman was received with a shock on Staten Island, his bome. The story was at first generally discredited, and newsboys who attempted to sell papers giving an account of the arrest were put off the trains, and were not allowed to sell the papers on the
