THE DARK SIDE.

It is an easy task to advise people to be cheerful, to banish melancholy and gloom, to look at the better side of things, and to adopt as their motto the beautiful thought that "every cloud has a silver lining;" but when such counsel is given, how rarely is it accepted and applied.

It is noticeable that for the past six months the preponderance of suicides has been among those whom the hard times have driven to despair.

Whether this disposition to shuffle off life's mortal coil will abate with the advent of better times, time alone can tell.

Paris was once regarded as the grand centre of dramatic suicides, but her unenviable prominence has been transferred to America.

Washington, Feb. 27.—There is not the least hesitancy among the officials of the White House or state department over the safety of President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham, who left in the storm of Sunday on the lighthouse tender Violet for a few days' recreation down the Potomac.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—The snow storm here was the most severe of the winter, and was accompanied by winds averaging from twenty-nine to thirty-five miles an hour.

Ex-President Harrison remarked some time ago on the probability that President Cleveland would have difficulty in driving his wild horses.

It has not been a usual thing in recent years for English soldiers to meet defeat, but twice within the last few weeks British troops have been led into ambush and slaughtered.

ECHOES OF THE STORM.

The Metropolis Wrapped in a Mantle of Snow.

THE STORM IN OTHER SECTIONS.

Generally Pronounced the Severest Since the Memorable Blizzard of 1888—Thirty-five Below in New Hampshire—No Fatalities Reported.

New York, Feb. 27.—New York is again snowed, so effectively have the elements done their work. For twenty-four hours Father Knickerbocker experienced a storm much like the blizzard of '88.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Judge Grosscup rendered a decision in the United States district court which will make the interstate commerce law practically inoperative.

Hamilton, Ont., Feb. 27.—Mrs. Frederick Mandelbaum, known in New York as a notorious fortune teller, who did a flourishing business in that line for a number of years, died yesterday at her residence, aged 65.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—The snow storm here was the most severe of the winter, and was accompanied by winds averaging from twenty-nine to thirty-five miles an hour.

MR BLAND YIELDS.

Debate on His Coinage Measure Resumed. The Senators in Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The proceedings in the house yesterday were full of exciting incidents. Mr. Bland, being unable to secure a quorum, declined to allow the debate on the bill to proceed, at the same time claiming that he would return to the assault today.

Two sensational speeches followed, one by Mr. Pence (Colo.), who denounced the Republicans for submitting to the crank of ex-speaker Reed's whip, and warned him that if the election of president were thrown into the house in 1896 he would rue his filibustering course, and the other by Mr. Fithian (Ills.), who condemned in the severest terms the action of his Democratic colleagues who were taking part in the filibuster.

Toward the close of the session Mr. Pence's reflections on Messrs. Pickler and Ellis (Wis.) drew forth from them a statement which Mr. Pence characterized as "absolutely untrue." He was twice called to order, and the house, by a vote, refused to allow him to proceed. It is probable that Mr. Pence's speech will be the occasion of further comment.

The senate held but a short session yesterday, in order to give the Democrats an opportunity afterwards to continue the caucus begun in the morning.

Two Stepping Stones

to consumption are ailments we often deem trivial—a cold and a cough. Consumption thus acquired is rightly termed "Consumption from neglect."

Scott's Emulsion

not only stops a cold but it is remarkably successful where the cough has become deep seated.

Scott's Emulsion is the richest of fat-foods yet the easiest fat-food to take. It arrests waste and builds up healthy flesh.
