THE DEADLOCK BROKEN

Senatora Desert New Jersey's Democratic Senate.

THE CAPE MAY STATESMAN LEADS

Mr. Miller Says No Witt Invite the Bepublican Senators to the Chamber, and Will Unite with Them in Organizing. Perkins and Martin Will Join Ring.

TREETON, Feb. 27.—The first break from the Democratic senate came last night when Senator Miller, of Cape May, made a speech denouncing the deadlock and dea special denotation to have nothing more claring his intention to have nothing more to do with the senate. Sometra Miller said that he and others who had joined in the Democratic organization had but one mo-tive and one incentive, and that was not to protect race track legislation.

Mr. Miller said he was willing to assert that this Democratic senate was kept for the purpose of adding the race track people. The people of New Jersey and come to that conclusion, and so had he, most positively. He did not care to be a party to this organization any longer. If the Republicans would come into this chamber he would vote to seat their senators.

He was no lawyer; knew nothing about the law, and wanted to know nothing about it, and, without intending any dis-respect to the court, his own opinion was that the quo warranto proceedings were only a farce. He did not propose to go into the secate, nor make himself any mere conspicaces than was necessary, but before he would see the Republicans ad-journed sine die he would invite them into this chamber and assure them of his sup-cept.

Mr. Miller was severely denounced by Senator Hinchliffe, who told him that he deserved many of the things that had been said about him, and that his conscience said about int, and caused him to do what troubled him and caused him to do what he had done. He said some of the rest of them might feel the same way, but they did not want to parade their troubles be fore the public.

stor Perkins had also intended to Senator Ferkins had also internet withdraw from the Democratic senate, but was prevented by a motion to adjourn. He says that he will withdraw tonight. Senator Martin, who is ill, is said to be in sympathy with the movement. These settators will probably not go over the Republican senate, but they will vote to receive all the credentials. The break is causing much apprehension among the
