J. P. WILLIAMS & SON

A Merry Time This Week.

About two weeks ago we advertised a lot of Fancy French SATINES, which were sold out in a very short time, and could therefore not supply the demand. Now another case of same quality French Satine has arrived with patterns and colors more beautiful than the first lot, which are sold at the same price.

Don't be deceived in quality of goods offered at lower price. Don't fail to try the P. N. Corset.

THE SLATE MAKING!

Preparations For the Re-organization of Council.

MC GUIRE ON THE ROOST.

He Can Have the Superintendency, But Seems to Prefer Remaining on the Police Force and Appears to be in a Position to Decide for Himself.

The local slate-making industry has revived and all hands are working full time. All energy is bent upon the manufacture of a slate that will be so well bound and riveted as to enable it to pass through the organization of the Borough Council next Monday night and escape without a fracture. Many believe this result will be accomplished, but, bless you, how amazing have been some of the results of the industry! Even oath-bound guarantees have failed.

Last year there was great competition in the business—there being seven Democratic, six Citizens and two Independent manufacturers in the field, but owing to the passage of the Wilson bill, or some other reason, five have retired. Still five others have taken their places and this year there are eight Democratic and seven Citizens engaged in the industry.

Some people say the Democratic manufacturers will pull together and have little trouble in slate making. Others think differently. Already two samples of slate are upon the market and the HERALD gives the public the benefit of them. Here is one: President, William McGuire; Secretary, John J. Cardin; Treasurer, T. F. Bradigan; Supervisor, Martin McGuire; Solicitor, M. M. Burke, Esq. As to the police force, four will be retained, the fifth (McGuire) becoming supervisor and a Polish citizen will be selected to take his place on the force.

This slate is made of confidential authorities, and will go through the most severe usage without sustaining even a crack.

But, it is said, McGuire does not like the idea of giving up the police force and going back to the Superintendency. He likes his uniform and shining shield, and some of his friends say that he is anxious to become chief of the police force before he retires from public life.

Be it as it may, this is one of the rivets in the slate which is regarded with suspicion by those who have examined the sample. Should this part weaken, other parts will fly away. And it is said that McGuire's best helper is one of the Democratic eight. Should he finally decide that life on the police is preferable to keeping the streets crossings and sewers clean and intact that he be allowed to retain his uniform and shield somebody will be asked to retire, and that somebody is said to be the man Casey. It is said that the latter is very much opposed by a First ward member of Council and the necessity of having a vacancy for the appointment of a Polish policeman, in case McGuire wants to stay where he is, will be urged in Casey's direction.

McGuire seems to have the call and upon his decision Casey's life upon the police force seems to hang, but as the few days must elapse before the organization there is no telling what will happen.

COMMUNICATED.

EDITOR HERALD—By the urgent request of his large number of friends Mr. William H. Haring, of Palo Alto, has consented to be a candidate for the nomination for the Legislature in the Fourth representative district on the Republican ticket. Two years ago he was pressed by his many friends to allow his name to be placed before the convention as a candidate, but declined in favor of other candidates. Now, as his many friends continue to press and urge him to become a candidate, he has finally consented and asks his friends for their united support in securing the nomination for him.

Mr. Haring was born in Palo Alto and educated in the public schools of his native town. At the age of 17 years he entered the service of the P. & E. R. Co. as a messenger boy, which position he held for about one and a half years, after which, through close application to his work, he became a telegraph operator, and later an assistant dispatcher and timekeeper, which position he held about six years. He was then promoted to train dispatcher and has faithfully served during the last twelve years and at present holds it. During the time that Mr. Haring has been employed in the service of the P. & E. R. Co. he has made a host of friends and they will do all in their power to promote the interests of Mr. Haring and assist him in this fight.

Mr. Haring is a young man of 38 years of age, sober, industrious and reliable, and is at the present time a prominent School Director in our Democratic borough and at the last election he was again so elected for the same office over his Democratic opponent with a big majority. This will be his third term of three years in office in said School Board, which, by itself, shows that the citizens here place implicit confidence in him.

MANY FRIENDS.

We fully believe that Mr. Haring will be a strong candidate on the ticket, and judging from the host of friends he has for the same reason of praise already showered upon him, and knowing him to be a staunch working-man's friend, his election will be a certainty.

GEORGE WREN INJURED.

The Mahanoy City Man Meets Mishap in Shenandoah.

George H. Wren, superintendent of the Grant Iron Works at Mahanoy City, met with a serious accident in Iowa yesterday afternoon and had a narrow escape from death.

He drove over from Mahanoy City in a sleigh and when approaching the office of the Kehley Run colliery his horse took fright and ran away. The ground in the vicinity of the office is very rocky and studded by deep ruts. The plunging of the horse and sleigh caused Mr. Wren to be thrown to the ground. He fell face forward and remained upon the ground in that position, while the horse dashed down down Emrick street and was stopped at the Lehigh Valley Railroad by the lowering of the safety gates.

Just before Mr. Wren was thrown out his horse dragged the sleigh across the P. & E. freight track and it just barely escaped being struck by a freight train.

Charles E. Smith and others witnessed the runaway and hastened to the relief of Mr. Wren, who lay on the ground. They found him lying face downward, unconscious and blood was streaming from an ugly wound above the right eye.

The injured man was removed to Dr. Smith's home on East Coal street and Mr. Straub and George W. Beddall, Mr. Wren's brother-in-law, were summoned. The doctor said there was a slight fracture of the frontal bone, immediately above the right eye, but he did not think the injury was a dangerous one. The gash where the fracture was made was a wide and long one. Several stitches were put in it.

Mr. Wren remained unconscious and was placed in a sleigh and taken home while a strict condition by Mr. Beddall and Mr. G. A. Wilde, Dr. Straub giving assurance that the journey could be made without risk to the victim. Mr. Wren was well wrapped up in blankets and fur robes and placed in a comfortable position in the bottom of a truck for the trip. He recovered conscious-ness after reaching Mahanoy City. Today he was reported in a very favorable condition.

The Mahanoy Plank Dramatic Association will release a new play to be produced some time in May.

The question is, What effect has our prominent men attending boxing matches on the part of our youth—should they oppose it as an evil, or approve of it as a necessity?

Charles E. Breckons, Esq., of Pottsville, was in town yesterday on legal business.

We are grieved to announce the death of Miss Maude McAtee, of Mahanoy, last evening, at the age of 35 years. The deceased was a promising young woman and her sudden demise was a shock to the community.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

FAIRMER—Yes, South Dakota furnishes an excellent field for diversified farming. Wheat, corn, barley and flax are produced in abundant quantities and find a ready market at good prices, while the cost of production is much less than in the Eastern States. Stock raising and wool growing have become successful industries in South Dakota where thousands of acres of the finest land in the United States can be secured at reasonable figures and upon long time for deferred payments. Further information will be cheerfully furnished free of expense by addressing John B. Post, District Passenger Agent, 466 William street, Williamsport, Pa. 2-27-94

St. David's Day.

The concert to be given in the Academy of Music at Pottsville tomorrow night under auspices of the Cambrian American League, in observance of St. David's Day, promises to be a very successful affair. About 1,500 invitations have been issued. Among those who will take part in the program are Miss Rachel Reese, Central; Miss Annie Wynn, Mahanoy City; Prof. Fred Gerhart and Hon. S. C. Kirk, Pottsville; Excelsior Glee Club, Minersville; and Y. M. C. A. Glee Club, Pottsville.

"The Irish Statesman."

Carroll Johnson, the star of "The Irish Statesman," which had its initial production at the Grand opera house last evening, had sufficient reason for gratification at the size and character of the audience present and enthusiastic reception given the play. "The Irish Statesman" is, as its title indicates, an Irish play, but it is so devoid of the old-fashioned "boys" and "smothers" that it can almost be styled purely American. "Boston Evening Record," at Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, March 2d.

EARLEY'S BODY HERE.

Brought All the Way From Arizona Territory.

A FOUL DEED IN THE WEST.

He Was Shot and Killed in a Saloon by a Bartender—Four Wounds Inflicted—An Army Officer Officially Reports the Details of the Crime.

At noon today the remains of Timothy J. Earley, aged 34 years, and son of Widow Bridget Earley, of West Centre street, arrived at the Philadelphia and Reading depot in town. Relatives and a large number of friends were at the depot to receive the corpse. The metallic case containing it was carried into the baggage room. There the body was transferred to a cloth covered casket and after it was placed in the hearse the funeral proceeded direct to Annapolis cemetery.

The body of the deceased was shipped from the United States Army barracks at Whipple, Arizona, last Thursday and arrived here in an excellent state of preservation. It was attired in the uniform of a private of the army.

Earley left Shenandoah about four years ago and eventually enlisted in the army, being detailed to the command at Whipple. He enlisted under the name of James F. Reilly. On the 13th inst. he was shot and killed at Prescott, Arizona, by a bartender named Frank Sufko, and according to the most authentic particulars at hand, the murder was a cold-blooded one.

By request of Edward J. Earley, the West Lloyd street saloonkeeper, who is a brother of the deceased, the following official report of the case is published:

"WHIPPLE BARRACKS, ARIZONA TERR., February 20, 1894.

"Mr. Edward Earley, Shenandoah, Pa.

"Sir—Your telegram to Colonel DeBussey, inquiring the particulars of the death of Private James F. Reilly, of my company, received New York, Ariz. in reply of his effects and final statements of property and clothing were mailed to the Adjutant General, United States Army, at Washington, D. C. on the 15th inst. Will you please let me know where Reilly served before joining my company, and his full name.

"Very Respectfully,
"JAMES A. BUCHANAN,
"Captain 11th Infantry, Com'd'g Co. G."

Snow Bells Cause Trouble.

A young man walking along Centre street turned about to see who struck him in the back with a snow ball, when another came sailing through the air and caught him squarely on the cheek. When the snow dropped off his face, blood began to flow profusely. The missile probably contained a piece of rock or glass that the thrower had fastened to it. The young man, who was too new in the country to tell his name, walked quietly off, probably realizing that any attempt to secure redress would only provoke ridicule.

James Quinn, a Pole, was arrested at the Reading station by Coal and Iron Policeman Peter Kieckner this afternoon for smoking and trespassing on the company's property. The youth paid Justice Tounsey $2 cents for his amusement.

Dead.

BOYCH—On the 20th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Maggie Agnes, daughter of the late Joseph Boych, aged 10 years and 10 months. The funeral will take place on Thursday, March 1st, at 9 a. m. High mass will be celebrated at the German Catholic church and interment will be made in the Annapolis cemetery. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 2-27-94

Special Notices.

Eighty degrees in the shade and I have an overcoat with me." Mr. Wooley will be remembered as a former business man of Shenandoah.

Transfer for Mr. Mullahey.

John M. Taylor, treasurer of the Millward-Cracker Company, of Philadelphia, was met on our streets yesterday. In conversation with a reporter he said that having learned that Mr. T. J. Mullahey intended going into the liquor business the Millward company concluded to make that gentleman a nice offer of increase of salary to retain his services. Mr. Taylor says that Mr. Mullahey is one of the most successful salemen the company has and it doesn't propose to allow him to leave its employ if there are means to prevent it.

Editorial Misapprehension.

James W. Maloy, publisher and editor of the Lansford Record, has been arrested on a charge of violating the election laws. The complaint is that Mr. Maloy was awarded a contract for printing some of the election ballots for Carbon county; that when the large ballots were printed they contained in the Democratic column the names of those nominated at the Maloy meeting and also those nominated at the Maloy meeting. This was a most flagrant violation of the law, as a mark in the circle at the head of the column would invalidate the entire ballot.
