...A Merry Time

About two weeks ago we advertised a lot of Farey French SATINES, which were sold out in a very short time, and could therefore not supply the demand. Now another case of same quality French Satine has arrived with patterns and colors more beautiful than the first lot, which are sold at the same price, Don't be deceived in quality of goods offered at lower price. Don't fail to try the P. N. Corset.

the debris. This work was not rightly started until soon and it took until 11:30 at night to dig and timber an opening through the fall, which was thirty feet long.

The imprisoned men were waiting for the rescueing party in the gangway a few yards

There was great rejoicing as the first of the entombed men passed through the opening and cheers and exclamations of juy from all in the gangway as the rescue was completed

The Frackville men said that when they realized they were closed in visious of the Plymouth horror flashed through their minds and they were badly scared, but they were about to try and effect some means to scape through when they heard the rappings

The fall was caused by a break occasioned by the accumulation of water in a mine breach, which broke through to breast No. 80, carrying mud, rock and coal with it to the gangway in the first lift. Much water found its way through the continuation of breast No. 80, to the gangway in the second lift, filling it with water to a depth of 31 rock and filling it with water to a depth of 31 feet and earrying considerable debris with it.

Carroll Johnson, the famous Irish comediae, gave his first production of his new play. "The Irish Statesman," at the Grand opera house hist evening. In this new play Mr. Johnson does away with his knee-bracenes, and plays the part of an Irish gentleman in evaning dress. His work is very artistic and truthful, and his acting entirally new. His brogue is natural, rich and includious, and he represents a prosperous Frishman who has come to America.—Hoston News. At Forguson's theatre tomorrow evening.

was caused here yesterday by the discovery that seven men had been entombed in the Boston Run colliery by a cave in of the workings.

The mine officials kapt the matter very quiet and assured the people that there was no necessity for alarm, and if there was a fail of the inside workings it could not, owing to the character of the workings, be an extensive one, and if any men were entombed they would be speedily rescued alive and uning to part of the country of the character of the workings, be an extensive one, and if any men were entombed they would be speedily rescued alive and uning the country of the character of the workings, be an extensive one, and if any men were entombed they would be speedily rescued alive and uning the country of the country of the creation of sive one, and if any men were entombed they would be speedily rescued alive and uninjured.

Fortunately the assurances of the mine officials were fulfilled by the recovery of all the imprisoned men, alive and uninjured, but pretty badly seared by their experience. The men were William Irvin, Louis White, Charles Mohan, Edward Mengel and James Cramer, of Frackville, and John and James Cramer, of Frackville, and the Poles were in breast No. 95 of the first lift and the Poles were in breast No. 95 of the second lift.

The discovery of the fall is given in the words of Fire Ross Killen. He had been through the lifts early in the morning and reported them all right, and the miner went into their places.

At 9 o'chock yesterday morning Killien made another trip into the mine and found large fall of alush and rock in the cast gangway of the first lift. It had rushed down through breast No. 80.

Killien reported the discovery to Superintense and Richards, who sammoned other officials and several working and in ignorance of the fall was the robust No. 95, where the Meckes men were imprisoned. They were fifty yards up the breast, working, and in ignorance of the fall which had occurred below them until the rescaing party called them down. These two men were really not imprisoned.

The superintendent and his men then returned to the first lift, and to the fall a breast No. 50. Finding they could not get over or around it to breast No. 92, where the five men were imprisoned, the rescuing party and to the first lift and to the fall at breast No. 50. Special HERALD correspondence.

POTESVILLE, Feb. 28.-Next summer when all the farm work is done about town and the rubbish is burned up, some attention ought to be paid to the Henry Clay menument. The grounds about it need looking after and the monument, if the people of the chief city of the county are too poor to pay for having it painted, should at least receive a coat of whitewash. This should be done, even if the hat must be passed around to pay the expense.

Representatives of Gowen Post left for Representatives of Gowen Poet left for Philadelphia yesterday to attend the Department Eccampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. One of them said an effort would be made to get the Enranpment to made here next year, but others said they know ucthing of the project.

last election resolve to be at the polls for Republican victory bereafter.

Every day the sentiment against the Wilson free trade bill and like measures by the present Congress is becaming more bitter, and if the Republicans of this county use good judgment and make up thoir ticket of good material they will elect every nominee, from Congressman down to Poor Director.

There is some talk of holding a joint remains of the 48th and 66th regiments here this summer. It would be a good idea and the people would make it exceedingly pleasant for the arrivant of these two selebrated Schuylkill regiments.

Now that the town is all worked up over the approach of the base ball season and the Schuylkill Electric Railway Company is considering the advisability of taking stock in the base ball club, let the Bellway Conjany at the same time prepare to give its patrons to and from the base ball grands smilicient assummodations and protection. Both were miserable last season. Roughs and toughs were allowed full swip on the care and it was masse for respectable citizons to ride on them.
