A DIPLOMATIC SCANDAL

The Latest Sensation in French Official Circles.

A FAIR MISTRESS OF INTRIGUE.

Princess Marie d'Orieans Was to Buve Quizzed the Bussian Czar, but Was Prevented Count D'Annay Dismissed from the Diplomatic Service.

PARIS, March 1 .- A sensation has been caused in this city and elsewhere by the appearance of an article in The Figaro in which the czar of Russia, Princess Marie d'Oriesus, wife of Prince Waldemar, of Denmark; Count De Beauchamp, a capbeamark, Count De Beauchamp, a cap-tain in the French army and Freuch mili-tary attache at Copenhagen; General Borius, scoretary general and chief of the military household of President Carnot, and others play a conspicuous role.

Some idea of the gravity of the revals tions may be gathered from the fact that Premier Cassimir-Perier submitted to President Carnot, for his signature, a decree removing Count D'Aunsy, ex-minis-ter to Copenhagen, from the diplomatic service, owing to his connection with the The president signed the decree, though D'Aunay denies his guilt.

The revelations are associated with the Franco-Russian alliance, and appear to Pranco-Russian alliance, and appear to have been generally speaking, the result of intrigues carried on behind the backs of the Dupuy ministry.

This is not the first time that the name of Princess Marie d'Orleans has been connected with court intrigues. The princess is said to be a remarkably clever and attractive lade. She is a daudter of the tractive lady. She is a daughter of the Duke of Chartres, was born Jan. 13, 1865, and was married to Prince Waldemar, who is a captain in the Danish navy, at the Chateau d'Eu on Oct. 23, 1885. Some idea of the power of intrigue which the princess is said to possess may be gathered from the fact that ex-Minister Flourens does not scruple to describe her as the "conscious artificier" of Bismarck's downfall.

The party sprouting up around Prince Henry of Chartres is said to consider the Princess Marie d'Orleans as its Boda Dea (Good Goddess). The favor in which the princess stands with the czar is based both upon family relations and the pleasure he takes in her unconventional conversation and high spirits.

The crown of Norway has been dangled before the eyes of the princess by French diplomats, and Frenchmen-o'-war were at her beck and call.

Whenever the czar was at Fredensberg, the country residence so much enjoyed by the royal family of Denmark, his imperial majesty was much in company with his sister-in-law. Naturally it was supposed that the princess had great influence over the ezar, and, being a thorough French woman and spontaneous in her impulses, she suggested to the ezar that, during the sojourn of Admiral Avellan and the Russian officers in Paris last autumn, his majesty should receive two French war vessels at Copenhagen, where he was then on a visit to the royal family of Denmark. The princess communicated these facts to the French minister at Copenhagen, and the czar, in due course of time, in-spected the two French warships, which were sent to copenhagen.

The chief incident mentioned in connec tion with the revelations is the alleged at-tempt to obtain, through the Princess Marie d'Orleans, an idea of the czar's real feeling on the scope of the Franco-Russian

With this object in view Captain Beauwhich this object in view Capital Beau-champ is said to have approached the princess, telling her of the information which was required by the French gov-ernment, or rather by President Carnot.

The princess, according to the story, is said to have replied vaguely to the suggestions of Captain Beauchamp, who sub-sequently handed written questions to the favorite of the exar, asking her to try and btain answers to them. The questions were: What does Russia expect of France in return for the friendship she is manifesting towards her?'

Do you think the czar considers himself pledged towards France, at any rate so far as the defensive is concerned?"

Later Captain Beauchamp wrote her, saying that a reply was awaited at the

Then, it seems, it occurred to the prina that she could not allow the mat proceed further without placing herself in a false position toward the French government, and, consequently, she sent for the French minister at Copenhagen, Count d'Aunay, and informed him that she felt bound not to leave the government in the dark in regard to what was going on.

M. J. E. Pasteur, who was then secre-tary of the French legation at Copenhagen, immediately communicated the facts to the French government, and, is appears, in accordance with instructions received, called again on the princess and persuaded her to hand him the questions.

The Dupuy cabinet a few days later came to grief, and when the present min-istry was formed the French minister to Denmark, Count D'Annay, went to Paris and delivered the documents to Premier Cassimir-Perier, with the result already

In conclusion it may be mentioned that Captalu Beauchamp has been recalled from Copenhagen and given a year's leave Brolled from Head to Foot.

BRADDOCK, Pa., March 1.-Another ter rible explosion occurred at Furnace C, of the Edgar Thomson series. The furnace was shattered almost from pit to dome. Half a dozen men were working on the top of the furnace, and how all but one escaped is a mystery. George Kachinch was broiled from head to foot, all his clothing being burned from his body. The skin pulled off his body and stood out like wood on a sheep. Slight hopes are entertained for his recovery.

THE ELECTION IN BRAZIL

Everything Quiet, and the Opera Bouffe War Temperarily Forgotten.

RIO DE JANEIRO, March L. For the mo-ment interest in the warfare between the insurgents and the government forces has almost disappeared, and people are con-centrating their attention upon the presidential election, which is taking place day. The Republican candidates are Senhor Prudente Meraes, of Sao Paulo, for president, and Dr. Manuel Victorian Percira. of Bahia for vice president. A section of the Republican party has nominated Sen-hor Paes Carvalho, of Para, for vice president. The other candidates for the presi-dency are Senhors Ruy Barboso, Sliveria, Martine, Dr. Seabla and Lauro Sobre.

Members of congress will also be elected.

Everything is very quiet, and the election is proceeding smoothly.

The election of Senhor Mornes is nearly certain, as there is no organized opposition to him. Senhor Alfonso Fermas, of Minas-Gernes, was nominated, but he declined to run.

Martial law ended at midnight. The result of the election will be officially de-clared at the meeting of congress in May

A Dynamite Bomb in Lancaster. LANCASTER, Pa., March 1 .- A dastardly attempt was made between II and II o'clock last night to blow up the private residence of Dr. J. E. Baker, one of the most prominent physicians of this city. A dynamite bomb was the weapon used. A portion of the perch was torn away and portion of the perch was torn away and the iron fence surrounding it was bent and twisted. Houses in the vicinity were shaken, and Dr. Baker's family were thrown from their beds. Luther S. Hassfer, who was passing, was slightly wounded. It is evident that the mis-creant who attempted this deed was either unfamiliar with explosives or that he did not take time to properly place the petard. Had it been placed underneath the porch it would have demolished the building.

Cowhided by a Jenious Woman.

Whereling, W. Va., March I.—The town of Bridgeport, O., opposite this city, furnished a sensation. Mrs. Jennie Steele, wife of William Steele, a well known mill man, whipped Mrs. Lillian Lyle. The row was caused by Mrs. Steele's suspicions of her husband's intimacy with Mrs. Lyle. The infuriated woman delivered blow after blow with a cowhide upon her victim, and pounded her in the face with her fist. Both pounded her in the face with her fist. Both women are young and pretty, and all the parties are well known in Bridgeport.

The Iron Hall in Maryland.

Baltimore, March I.—About 1,000 members of the Order of Iron Hall in Maryland have proved their claims before Receiver C. J. Wiener and about 100 have signed a petition to Judge Dennis, asking that the order's fund in Maryland be sent that the order's fund in maryimu he sent to Indianapolis for distribution by J. F. Falley, general receiver. Mr. Wiener eays that his estimate of a 20 per cent. divi-dend is as much as could be obtained by the Maryland members if the money here is sent to Indianapolis.

Brought Over a Stowsway.

BALTIMORE, March 1.—Captain John Trennery, of the new steamship Temple-more, is considerably worried over the prospects of having to pay a fine of $1,000 in the United States court. George Han-nah was a stowaway over on the Temple-more, and was held to be taken back to the other side. Hannah skipped without leaving his address. Unless the captain can recapture the man be will be obliged to pay a fine of $1,000, according to law.

An Important Point of Law.

Lancastra, Pa., March L-At the re-ent election A. H. Bomberger was elected burgess of Litter, he being at the same time a school director. Yesterday the court was asked whether, under the act of court was asked whether, under the act of 1863, he can legally hold the office of bur-gess. The act says no man shall hold two borough offices at the same time, and the question now arises whether school direc-tor can be regarded as a borough office. The court reserved decision.

Lincoln's Wave of Reform.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 1.-In accordance with orders issued by Mayor Weir every gambling place and disreputable resort here has been closed. Already the gam-blers and fallen women are leaving town. The police will arrest every one found in a prohibited resort and enter names cor-rectly. Property owners renting places for prohibited purposes will be punished.

FORT DODGE, In., March L.—Fix prisoners confined in the county juil escaped during the night. Three of the number were under indictment for taking part in a riot at Dayton in which Marshal Larson, of that place, was killed. One of the prisoners, named Murphy, in for burglary, was re-captured. The officials have not yet captured the other five.

England's Greatest Contralto Dead.

The Case Against Corbett for the Jacksonville Fight.

CONVICTION DEEMED IMPOSSIBLE.

Should the Trial So Result, However Mitchell and the Leaders of the Duval Athtetle Club Will be Brought Up. Both Populists on Hand.

JACKSONVILLE, March 1. - Champton James J. Corbett is new on trial before Judge Phillips in the ariestnal court of this city for engaging in a prize light with Charles Mitchell on the with of last Jam-uary. If Corbett is found guitty them Mitchell will be tried, and after the En-glishman has been disposed of J. E. T. Bowden, late manager of the Duval Athlette club; Harry Mason, president of the club; Joe Vendig and Louis Silder will be tried on a charge of adding and abetting the fight. The court opened at 930 a. m., and long before that time there was a and long before that time there was a large crowd of people gathered about the court house. Corbett arrived at the court about wo clock, accompanied by his man-ager, William A. Brady. A majority of the people about the court house were either sports or those who like to follow in the wake of the sporting gentry. When Corbett vertical and major, through the
