Until She Used the Great Remedy, Paine's Celery Compound.

The Burden of Housekeeping Falls Heavily on Mothers.

Housekseping is growing less simple and sore and more complex each year. A home that professes to be well regulated today is far more difficult to manage than was the ame kind of a home 50 or 60 years ago. Upon the woman fails the burden.

Many work themselves into nervous exmanation. Many mothers grow so irritable

But thousands of irritable, nervous, tired and broken down women have found their health and strength, and regained their even tempore, through the use of the greates r-medy the world has over known, the removy first prescribed by the eminest Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth

Let every woman read the following volutary testimonial from Mrs. E. E. Short, a highly respected resident of Haverhill, Mass . and harro of one of the thousands of wonderfal cares that are wrought by Paine's celery

"Though never very strong, I was always well until married. I was 19 years old then and am 28 now and the mother of four chill lien. I got frightened just before my little irl was born, and I have never wholly recovered from it. I have taken medicine enough to swim in. I have been so nervous that I did not dare to go out in the back com after dark unless some one went with me for faar I should scream.

"I have been very thankful that I used Paire's celery compound, for as a result I can now go out evenings and not feel so awful. Every one tells me how well I look. I do my work all slone, and people ask me how I do so much, and I tell them because I used ame's celery compound. "My husband has spent enough money for

A lover of pictures, a man of means, making a tour of the art galleries of the world, realized that the luxury of seeing all these beauties was limited to the very wealthy, and to them only by wearisome and expensive traveling and time. "Why not in the present age of perfect photographis reproduction, why not reproduce most noted of these art treasures ?" was the question he asked himself. Why he applied his means and prestige to secure large photographs of the choice

The result is "MASTERPIECES FROM THE ART GALLERIES OF THE WORLD." The original idea was to issue the book charge $2.50 a part or $100,00 in all. That is the whole idea. Now, a syndicate of newspaper publishers has purchased the photographs

Now, every one may have this magnificent work which was originally intended for the rich man's palace.

Such is the force of nineteenth century invention, machinery, enterprise, and desire for circulation.
