A YOUNG BRIDE'S SUICIDE

After Six Weeks of Harriage She Takes

Her Own Life. CINCINNATI, March 3.—The suicide of Alice Sellew Ireland in her bedroom in an elegant home on Walnut Hills yesterday was sensational in the extreme. She was a bride of six weeks, and her family was one of the wealthiest and most highly respected in the city. The first intimation her husband had of suicidal intention was on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Dun-ham, a mighbor, came hurriedly down to the city and told her husband that she had received a note from Mrs. Ireland with some clothing, telling her she did not need them any more. Mr. Dunham sought Mr. Ireland and

Mr. Dunham sought Mr. Freland and they went immediately to the house. It was locked securely. They broke in and found Mrs. Ireland's room locked. Break-ing in they found her unconsolous on the bed and the gas turned on. When she was resuscitated she upbraided them, say-ing she would do it all over again. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham remained all night and Mrs. Ireland promised to make no other attempt on her life.

When breakfast was announced she said she would join them soon. While at breakfast a pistol shot was heard. Mr. Ireland rushed to her room and found her is bed, where she had evidently hoped to muffle the sound. She was unconscious, and died in a few minutes.

Her letters spoke of mistreatment by her mother, but it must be apparent that an oscult mental disorder axisted, not known even by her handsand. Their married life was ideally happy. The dead woman's mother gives a clew to the form of derangement by saying that her daughter was a phenomenal spendthrift, and that re-cently she (the mother) had paid a note of $500 which had been negotiated by Mrs. Ireland. The mother had not told her daughter that she had taken care of the forged paper. Dread of exposure is supposed to have driven her to desperation.
