One of His Experiences.

For thirty-eight years Capt. Loud followed the sea, most of that time as master of a vessel, and upon retring from the water was appointed by the Secretary of the United States. Treasury to superintend the seal flasherles in Alaska, which position be held five years. He relates one experience as follows:

"For several years I had been troubled with general nervousies and pain in the region of my heart. My greatest affliction was sleeple sness; it was almost impossible at any time to obtain rest and sleep. Having seen Dr. Miles' remedies advertised I began using Nevine. After taking a small quantity the benefit received was so great that I was positively alarmed, thinking the remedy contained opiates which would finally be injurious to me; but on being assured by the druggist that it was perfectly harmless. I continued in tagether with the Heart Cure. T day I can conscientiously say that Dr. Miles' Bestonative Nervine and New Heart Cure did more for me than anything I had ever taken I had been treated by entirent physicians in New York and San Francisco without ben it. I owe my present good health to the judicious use of these most valuable remedies, and heartly recommend them to all afflicted as I was. —Capt. A. P. Lond, Hamplen, Me. THE ARREST OF CAPTAIN WYANT.

Taken to Payettoville Under Military Escort to Prevent an Attempt at Lypching-An Alleged Plot for Wholesale Destruction by the Use of Dynamite.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 6 .- Twenty leaded cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio road were burned by strikers at Paint Creek, ten miles below Eagle, yesterday. The cars were standing on a switch. A general outbreak is now momentarily expected, as the strikers are becoming em-boldened by their recent successes with the torch Colonel Wyant, under guard of a full company of militia, was taken from Mont-gomery a prisoner to be tried at Fayetteville on the charge of shooting at the strikers. He was in the hands of the sheriff. The military protection was made necessary from the fact that 800 to 1,000 armed strikers are scattered at points along the road between Montgomery and Fayetteville, all thirsting for Wyant's life and swearing to lynch him at the first opportunity. As soon as Governor Me Corkle was apprised of this he ordered the militia to accompany the sheriff as an es-cort. The party reached Fayetteville with-out molestation.

The situation at Eagle and vicinity is increasing in seriousness, and it is felt that the crisis is at hand. A deputy sheriff arrested an unknown man on Morrey's Creek, just above Eagle, with a large dynamite bomb in his possession. The fellow promised to turn state's evidence and disclose the whereabouts of 150 more bombs and reveal a flendish plot of destruction.

The man, who was brought to this city, says he was engaged in the attack on Wy ant's tipple, had attended all their meet ings and knew all their plans. He says the riot at Acme was carefully planned, and was only frostrated by the action of the authorities. The strikers took to Acme twenty-seven large dynamite cartridges to distinguished Confederates were among blow up the works and to destroy the their purpose being to loot it.

At their meetings arrangements were made, with the counivance of certain peo-ple, to arrest Wyant, bring him to Montgomery and turn him over to the mob of miners. His life would not have been worth a penny. In addition to this a das tardly and horrible outrage was to be per-petrated. When the soldiers came ac-companying the sheriff in making his arrests for murder, the dynamite eartridges distributed, already fused with percussion caps, were to be lighted with lighted cigars and thrown among the troops and posse. maining and killing the members

The dynamite cartridges were distriband one of them is in the possession of the governor today. They were to bring Wyant to this place, where his life was to be taken, and then the riot was to be made down the railroad.

down the railroad.

Wyant was arrested on the warrant sworn out before Squire Adkins, whose son was engaged and was one of the ring-leaders in the strike, and for whom a warrant has been issued for murder. But when four constables attempted to take Wyant to Montgomery he resisted, and told them that he was perfectly willing to go to Fayetteville, where he could have some sort of a show, but he did not pro-pose to be taken to Montgomery for the purpose of being killed by a mob.

It was the intention of the authorities to take a posse and arrest a number of people in Montgomery for whom warrants had been issued, but at the last moment, by reason of a change of affairs brought on by the arrest of Wyant, it was not done. This is all that saved the lives of the men who were innocent of anything more than the fact that they had been summoned by the authorities to assist in maintaining the law.

A notice was found tacked on Carver's store, a half mile below Eagle, that the mob would blow up his house and family in the next twenty-four hours.

The situation is the most serious since the battle. There is an unusual bustle at the state capital, and the press representatives are to be excluded

TO LOAN TO THE POOR.

New York's Provident Loan Society Seeks Incorporation.

IT MEETS WITH STRONG OPPOSITION

Mr. Butts Declares It a Money Making Scheme of Tax Dodgers, While Leader Ainsworth Calls It a Noble Charity. The Bill Progressed.

ALBANY, March 6 - "I am given to understand that the pawnbrokers of New York city have raised $60,000 to bent this bill," said Leader Ainsworth on the floor of the assembly last night, "and I should look with great suspicion on any amendment if the introducer was not known by me to be honest." This statement, that attracted the attention of the large au-dience present, was made when Mr Shef-field's bill to incorporate the New York Provident Loan Society of New York came no.

Mr. Butts sent to the desk an amendment limiting the rate of interest at which the association may borrow money at 4 per emit, and striking out the provision exempting any member or trustee from being limble for any debts of the associa-tion. Mr. Butts said the bill was not what # purports to be. It is estenably in the interests of the poor people of the city of New York. In his opinion the bill was a money making scheme, pure and simple. It was also class legislation, as it gave certain privileges to persons not enjoyed by others in a similar business.

Mr. Sheffield said the bill was drawn solely in the interest of the poor people in the city of New York. The distress during the past winter among the poor had been very great. So many demands had been made on the pawnbrokers for loans of money by the poor that the pawnbrok-ers had little money left to lend. The ob-ject of the association for which this bill peer of the association for which this did provides is to farnish loans of money to the poor. "It is a grand charitable ob-ject," said Mr. Sheffield, "and the mames of the incorporators of the association should be sufficient answer to the gentleman from New York (Mr. Butts) state-ments." Mr. Sheffield rend a letter from Mayor Gilroy, who heartily approved of

Mr. Ainsworth said the bill ought to have passed long ago. The incorporators are public spirited and representative men who want to help the poor. There never was a time in the memory of those now living when the poor of New York so much needed the help which this bill would give them. He believed that the pawnbrokers were the only interest in opposi-tion to the bill, and read a statement in a New York newspaper to the effect that a pool of $30,000 had been raised to oppose

Mr. Hennessy ridleuled Mr. Ainsworth's statement regarding the pawnbrokers' poel. He said the bill gave the incorporapool. He said the bill gave the incorpora-tors all the privileges and benefits of the pawnbrokers without being required to file a bond or obtain a license. The incor-porators may be highly respected gentle-men and very philanthropic, as had been stated, but he knew some of the gentle-men who were known as notorious tax dolgers, who did not pay their taxes when they should, and those who did had to pay more on their account. more on their account.

Mr. Davidson moved that the bill be recommitted to the committee on judiciary for a hearing. The motion was lost and the bill was progressed without Mr. Butts.
