THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

Its Guardians Held a Meeting Last Night.

NOW IT IS DIPHTHERIA

Seven Cases Reported Within the Past Two Weeks—Stringent Enforcement of the Law to be Made in Regard to Public Funerals and Visits to Affected Houses.

The Board of Health held a regular semi-monthly meeting last night at which all the members, Messrs. Spalding, McHale, Malone and Broughall, Secretary Scanlan and Health Officer Miles were present.

The report of the secretary relative to the existence of contagious diseases in the borough was not as favorable as at the last meeting, two weeks ago, and showed that since that time diphtheria has broken out and made several victims. The statistical report was, scarlatina, 1; measles, 3; diphtheria, 7.

There was considerable discussion over the advisability of taking decisive measures to compel people to obey the notices posted on houses where contagious disease exists and the sense of the board was that where people persist in visiting such houses and defy such notices they will be prosecuted; and steps to be taken to enforce the law against taking the remains of people who have died of contagious disease to churches, or allowing public funerals. In publishing death notices the nature of the disease, if contagious, must be stated.

In discussing these various provisions one member of the board told of how strict the Hazleton health authorities were in cases of diphtheria. The houses were quarantined and no one was allowed to leave or enter them. The grocers and other merchants left their goods at the doors and after their departure the occupants of the houses took the goods in. One Shannock lady went to Hazleton to visit friends and got quarantined there for three weeks. She finally made her escape by night.

Another member told of personal observations in Shamokin. There is a house containing two small patients. A large, flaming red flag flies in front of the house and on one of the opposite corners is a small watch box in which there is a policeman, day and night, watching the house to see that no one leaves or enters it.

Incidentally, this member told of the storm that was raised by some practical jokers, in spite of the police regulations, stealing the red flag and putting it in front of a house where there was no patient.

Health Officer Miles reported that yesterday he caused the High Constable to remove three dogs, three hogs and two cats, all defunct.

Ritter complaint was made against the sanitary condition of the old rink building on South Main street, owned by Goldfish Smith. The nuisance committee of the board and health officer visited the place and found it filthy in an extreme sense. Cows and pigs are kept under the eaves and there is absolutely no drainage. Sixteen families live in the place.

On motion, it was decided to invite the sanitary committee of the Borough Council to join the nuisance committee of the Board of Health in a visit to the place and then consult on the best method for dealing with the case.

The secretary read a communication from the State Board of Health announcing that there is no more small-pox at Reading.

A committee was appointed to make a list of the probable expenditure for the new fiscal year, so that an application for an appropriation can be made to the Borough Council.

A Pointer for Schomers. Superintendent of Public Instruction Schomer on the 19th inst. advised the superintendents of schools in the various counties that the appointment of teachers by boards of directors in April and May for the next annual school term is illegal, and that he will insist upon compliance with the law requiring continuous annual terms in every school district of the state without change of teachers, except appointments to vacancies where these occur. He holds that the boards of directors, as now constituted, have no authority to levy taxes and employ teachers for the next year, as their duties in such matters are limited to the current school year, ending on the first of June, 1894.

Coming Events. March 16.—A grand ball will be held in Robbins' opera house on St. Patrick's Eve.

March 26.—First grand ball under the auspices of the Monomere Social Club in Robbins' opera house.

Mar. 27.—"The Trolley System," benefit of Mrs. Damm, at Ferguson's theatre.

April 2.—First annual hop under the auspices of the Riley orchestra, in Robbins' opera house.

April 12.—First anniversary of the Daisy Chain of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church. "Old Song" entertainment.

April 30.—Ice cream festival under the auspices of the Star Flute and Dram Corps in Robbins' opera house.

Ladies' Night. Lizzie May Ulmer, who will begin a week's engagement in repertoire at Ferguson's theatre on Monday evening next, supported by Maurice Drew's play, makes the first night of her engagement ladies' night and for that reason the management is issuing special ladies' tickets for next Monday night's performance. Each of these tickets, when accompanied by one regular paid orchestra reserved seat ticket, will admit a lady and gentleman, or two ladies, thus securing two reserved seats for one price.

Now Uniforms. Ticket Agent Quinn, Baggage-master Golden and Mail Agent Thomas J. O'Connor, three of the industries and courteous employes at the Lehigh Valley depot, spent a few hours in Delano yesterday getting measured for new uniforms.

ALLEN WINS.

The Grand Jury Ignores the Perjury Charge—Costs on Loach.

The Grand Jury at Pottsville, yesterday, ignored the charge of perjury made against County Commissioner Charles F. Allen by Samuel A. Loach, secretary of the Republican Executive Committee, and put the costs on the prosecutor.

The charge was based on the allegation that Allen had sworn falsely when he took his oath of office as County Commissioner last January, because he had made promises before his election to help him secure votes. Sixteen witnesses appeared before the Grand Jury, among them J. S. Honsberger, George Heffner, Charles Hausa and Theodore C. Helfner.

Mr. Allen had been previously indicted for bribery and a motion to quash the indictment has been argued. The decision of the court on that motion is being awaited.

The Pottsville papers say that the action of the Grand Jury in the perjury case will not dishearten the people who are fighting Commissioner Allen and that quo warranto proceedings to oust him from office are in course of preparation.

COAL TRAIN RIDERS.

Coal and Iron Police Make a Capture of Four.

Yesterday afternoon a posse of C. & I. policemen composed of Peter Kreiger, of town; George Geiger, of Mahanoy City; James Lippold and William Shovlin, of Shamokin, and James and Frank Smith, of Mt. Carmel, started out to raid coal train riders and succeeded in gathering in four.

The parties arrested were youths and they were Thomas Shore, Peter Selbach and Lewis Hagan, of West Coal street, Shenandoah, and Daniel Francy, of Colorado. They were taken before Justice Lippold after a hearing. Shore, Selbach and Francy were discharged upon paying the costs. There parents are very poor and the payment of costs was considered a sufficient punishment.

Hagan is a Polish youth and his proper name is said to be Catakewicz. He was impudent and obstinate during the hearing and did not feel disposed to even pay the costs. When last heard from he was in the lockup, the officers having decided to give him time to reflect.

GILBERTON.

Mrs. Ralph Curry was a Mahanoy City visitor yesterday.

Harney Grady, of Girardville, was seen on our streets last evening.

James Farley and Arthur Brocius are seriously ill with pneumonia.

Benny Donahue, of Girardville, was a town visitor Thursday evening.

Daniel Wynne and Daniel Redean, two Coal and Iron policemen, attended to business here yesterday.

The employees of the Draper and Gilberton collieries received their pay yesterday and, as usual, made "Duck" lively. A number of our theatre-goers will attend the production of "The Diamond Breaker" at Mahanoy City this evening.

P. J. Kelley, a knight of the key, of St. Nicholas, discussed railroad matters with our popular station agent, Mr. Slattery, yesterday afternoon.

Bear Run colliery, which has been suspended for about three months, will resume on Monday. This will give employment to about 400 men and boys.

William Miller, formerly a prominent young man of this place, and who has been with his parents here the past three weeks, returned to duties at Waterbury, Conn., yesterday.

Intense excitement prevailed in our town last Thursday evening, when it was learned that our faithful young master of long run had discovered a young lady struggling in the canal on Smith's side. By his coolness and pluck he succeeded in rescuing her.

Dr. Blaklee, a man of more wind than muscle, struck town on Thursday. While in town the "Dr." met a gentleman who knows him of old. This gentleman reminded the "Dr." of some dirty tricks of years gone by. The "Dr." grew wrathful and swaggers about our streets in a most disorderly manner. We will meet the "Dr." the next time on the outskirts of the town with a dog and a double-barreled gun.

Thrown From a Carriage.

James J. Tobin, the North Jardin street saloonkeeper, and his daughter had narrow escapes from very serious injury, and perhaps death, while driving down Dunn's hill on returning from a funeral. The kingbolt of the carriage broke and the sudden drop threw Mr. Tobin and his daughter into the canal. Fortunately the horse also stopped at the time the accident happened. Mr. Tobin received some cuts and bruises on his face and hands, but they were not serious.

Smeared With Paint.

Some person smeared one of the posts in front of Davis' store on West Centre street with paint, yesterday, and several persons who rubbed against the post had their garments ruined. One of the sufferers is on a still hunt for the perpetrator of the trick and if the two should become acquainted there will be a little unpleasantness.

Died.

BURNS.—On the 19th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Margaret, infant daughter of James and Margaret Burns. Funeral will take place on Monday, 12th inst., at 3 p. m., from the family residence, 128 North Chestnut street. Interment in the Annapolis church. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 3-10-11

A Good Show.

Lizzie May Ulmer, supported by Maurice Drew and his players, begins the week's engagement at Mahanoy City last night. "Dan's Girl," a comedy drama, which made Miss Ulmer famous, was the bill. It proved an enjoyable one.—Wilkes-Barre Record, Nov. 23d, 1893. At Ferguson's theatre for one week, commencing Monday, March 12th.

Obituary.

The infant daughter of James and Margaret Burns, of North Chestnut street, died this morning and will be buried at 3 o'clock on Monday.

The funeral of the late Edward Griffiths has been fixed for Monday at 2 o'clock.

Dining Car Service.

On and after March 12th the dining car on the European plan will run on trains Nos. 1 and 2 between Easton and Wilkes-Barre, instead of between Jersey City and Wilkes-Barre, as heretofore.

DEEP LAID SCHEME!

A Case Which Produces Some Peculiar Points.

DUPED TO IMPRISONMENT

After Sorting a Sentence to the County Jail a Man Discovers That His Theft Was Really a Part of a False Friend's Scheme.

A few days ago the HERALD made brief mention of the arrest in town of one Michael Yurkus on a charge of rape preferred by Mrs. Savage, a Polish woman of Mahanoy City, and the fact that the court fixed bail in the case at the sum of $3,000. Being unable to furnish the security Yurkus has since been in jail.

If the details of the story which has since been briefly told by the husband of the prosecutrix are given on the trial of the case, it will prove a very interesting one. It sounds much like the cheap novel stories.

Savage says that some time ago Yurkus told him where a good hammer could be stolen from a place in the mines, and also pointed out a good place in which to hide it. Savage yielded to the temptation, was arrested and served two months in jail for the theft.

After getting out of jail Savage learned that during his imprisonment Yurkus had tried to supplant him in the affections of Mrs. Savage, in fact had been intimate with her.

But more than this Savage found out that his arrest and imprisonment was only a scheme by Yurkus to get the husband out of the way, so that he would have a clear road to the object of his affections, and that Yurkus was the man who had told the Coal and Iron police who stole the hammer and where it could be found.

Of course Savage became real savage and after discussing the case for some time and talking over the relations of his wife with Yurkus it was decided to have the latter arrested on a charge of rape and the wife will be chief witness against the accused.

GREAT CONSIGNMENT.

A Stock of Clothing Worth $10,000 to be Sold.

Max Reese has received a large stock of clothing consigned to him which will and must be closed out before April 1st, and as he has not the room in his Centre street auction house, he has rented the large room next door to the First National Bank and will open the place on Friday evening and continue to sell until April 1st. The store will be open for private sale only and the clothing will be sold at 50 per cent. reduction. Men's, youths', boys' and children's clothing, men's cheap suits and hats. Max Reese, Auctioneer. People buying $5 worth, or over, will have their fare paid. Electric car stops at the door. 3-9-11

A Social.

Miss Mahala Fairchild held a social last evening at her residence on the South White street at which members of her Sunday school class and others were present, among them being Alfred A. Lewis, John Graham, Howard Dodson, Robert Linton, William Bashore, John Kanter, Napoleon Powell, William J. Veale, James Taylor, George Fortz and Daniel Houser, of town; Robert Beckler, of Pottsville; and Samuel Small, of Lost Creek. There were instrumental music by Miss Sallie Becker, of Girardville, and W. J. Veale, games and other amusements, and at 11 o'clock there was an elaborate spread.

The Time for Bargains.

Now is your time to secure your groceries and provisions at Reese's Auction Room, West Centre street. Tea, coffee, syrup, canned goods, brooms, glassware, dry goods and everything in that line. Room must be made vacant positively next week. Stock must and will be sold at your own prices. Balance of the carpets almost given away. Reduced to 15 and 20 cents per yard. Don't forget the place, opposite Reese's Auction Rooms, West Centre street, Shenandoah, Pa. 3-9-11

Wilkinson's Bargain Sale.

Next Monday we place on sale, at 35 cents each, 500 pieces white shirts, our regular 75 cent quality. Fifty pieces best quality table oilcloths at 16 cents per yard. Also 100 pieces new dress gingham, worth 10 cents, will be offered at the low price of 6 1/2 cents per yard. Our special price at bargain prices is worthy of your attention. I. J. WILKINSON, 3-6-11 29 S. Main street, Shenandoah.

Lost Ten Dollars.

The flickering of mining lamps on the pavement at the south end of Main street last night attracted quite a throng of spectators. A Hungarian had lost a ten-dollar bill through a hole in his pocket. The search was a fruitless one.

Letters.

The following letters remain uncalled for to date at the Shenandoah postoffice: Miss Lena Decker, Miss Tot Williams, E. Broecker, E. H. Murphy.

A new laundry was opened by Sing Lee on Monday, February 28th, at No. 14 West Centre street, Shenandoah.

Burchill's Cafe.

When seeking a neat and well conducted cafe, go to Burchill's, corner Main and Coal streets. Polite and prompt attention.

Get your repairing done at Holderman's.

McElbeny has a photograph of the enjoyment of his patrons.

Misses Rauer, Casey, Cleary and McManis drove to Ringtown last evening to take part in a new play, "O'Donoghue's Court," held in the P. O. S. of A. hall at that place.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Miss DeMerritt Will Preach Here Another Week.

Miss DeMerritt, the young lady evangelist at the Primitive Methodist church, is meeting with great success and will continue another week, closing her labors on the 25th. There will be service in the church to-morrow, as follows: 9 a. m., prayer meeting; 10:30 a. m., business meeting. Those who were present last Sunday morning are not likely to miss this business meeting. Revival service in the evening. All conducted by Miss DeMerritt.

The subject of the discourse in the Trinity Reformed church to-morrow evening by Rev. Robert O'Boyle will be "Christ Drinking of the Bitter Cup."

Too Sporty.

Two young men attending the High School have recently occasioned considerable talk by their sporting proclivities and the stories were magnified yesterday by a report that they took two game roosters up on the mountain and started a man, which was interrupted. Parents of other attendants threaten to demand action by the school authorities if the sporty young men do not change their habits.

Notice!

All members of John W. Stokes Lodge No. 213, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet in Schmidt's hall, on Monday next, at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, Edward Griffiths, which will take place at 2 o'clock from his late home, West Oak street. All members of the order are invited to participate.
