SEVERAL hundred thousand persons who went to the World's Fair kissed what to resign their commissions in the interest of peace, but they refused, and said they they were told was a piece of the real Blarney Stone. It now turns out that the stone in question was only a Chicago Waite's arrest for disobeying Judge Granaving stone. Some of the kissers may possibly be inclined to kick, but if they are wise they will not do so, for two zeasons : First, it won't do them any good, and second, the "fake" stone was just as well adopted for kissing as would have been the Blarney Stone. A man who finds any pleasure in kissing a stone deserves to be deceived:

> The governor ordered out the militia contrary to the advice of his counsel and prominent members of the chamber of commerce. The militia officers were asked would obey orders. A move was made to have the supreme court order Governor ham's orders, but this was not done

Threatening demonstrations have been made against the governor, who remains at his residence under military guard, and he was reported much alarmed as to his patety before the arrival of the United States troops.

At the city hall it was claimed that strict orders have been given not to fire a shot or raise a club until the militia have taken the offensive. From 3 p. m. until 9 p. m. the state troops were drawn up in line of battle, and the city hall forces were ready for action. The other city officials were mred to vacate at a moment's notice. Il overtures from the governor were rejected, and every hour or two the gov-ernor threatened to exterminate the city hall people in thirty minutes, but the aruments of his counsel finally prevailed.
