This story comes from the First ward: One of our prominent hotel keepers received a bunch of shamrocks from Ireland, yesterday, which he placed in a dish of water on the bar for exhibition. While out of the room a moment two Germans, who drive a beer team, entered, and sprinkling salt on the shamrocks, ate them with great gusto for water cress or some other green.

Professional burglars have begun operations in Mahanoy City. It is thought they are the same gang who have operated so successfully, and by the aid of chloroform, for the past month in other parts of the county. Their first attempt in this city was made upon the house of T. H. B. Lyon, Esq., at the corner of Mahanoy street and Main street, on Wednesday night-Thursday morning. Their booty was about $125, and a good watch. Entrances were effected through a transom in Mr. Lyon's office, which adjoins his residence. They passed from the office to the house and up stairs to Mr. Lyon's bedroom, removed his watch and keys and pocket-book from his clothing, which hung beside the bed and quietly retired to the office. Here they lit Havanna from the lawyer's private box and coolly began an inspection of the papers in his safe, which they opened with the keys taken from his pocket. Nothing was stolen but money and the watch, and they were even considerate enough to leave notes and other valuable papers in the pocket book, for which Mr. Lyon feels much obliged. Of the money taken, there was a fifty dollar note, a silver certificate for twenty dollars, a gold certificate for the same amount, and the remainder in five-dollar notes, silver and small coins.

MAHANAY PLANE.

The Mahanoy plane hoisted all night to deliver all the loaded cars to the main line.

James J. Boylan, of Merchants', visited Mahanoy City last evening.

It is high time for the Schuylkill Traction Company to commence and put their road in proper condition.

A birthday party will be given in honor of Miss Helen Maurer on the 27th, at the Maurer residence.

An special meeting of Town Council was held last evening. The meeting was called to order by William E. Middleton, President. The members present were Delaney, Reynolds, Leahy, Foley, Morgan and Killeferrer. After a little talk with Tax Receiver Tierney, the president nominated the following as a Board of Health: as per the Act of the Legislature of May 11, 1893: Dr. J. H. Enteline, Jesse O'Connor, West ward; S. G. Middleton, Middle ward; Thomas Painter and John W. Stone, of the East ward. The president then announced his committee, which were well received and seemed very satisfactory. Treasurer elect Wayne's bond was presented and approved. The old borough jail was then condemned and a committee of three appointed to select a lot and proceed to build a new one in the Middle ward. The meeting then adjourned.

COXEY'S ARMY OF INVASION.

Promised recruits for the Grand March to the National Capital.

MAHONING, O., March 16.—The Coxe army continues on a peace footing. Today's mail brought a letter from David Kings, of Fair Hope, Fla., who proposes "to muster a 'company' and join your division along the pine twenty miles west of Columbus, Ga." Harry J. Naughton, of Homestead, Pa., says he is getting up "a band of 100 good men to enlist in need of work." Charles Burnell, of Salem, reports progress in Columbiana county, where he is arranging to secure barracks for the army—to sleep in as it proceeds to invade Parkersburg. J. A. Cozart, of Poplar Bluffs, Mo., writes on behalf of the unemployed workmen of that place: "Many of us want to join your army and will do so, we can pay our own expenses, and if we can get reduced rates will come 1,000 strong."

W. F. Sutherland, of Huntington, Arkansas, says: "I propose to raise 100 men here. I propose to start with this number and walk to Lime Rock. There I will get 1,000 men, divide and take two routes to Washington." Professor A. Allen, now a "mercenary," notifies the "general" that the spirit of Andrew Jackson has descended and endorsed Coxe's scheme of political salvation. The chieftains are greatly encouraged.

Lawyer Hocking's Disappearance.

TURKSHANK, Pa., March 16.—The first light threw upon the sudden disappearance of Henry Hocking, the prominent lawyer and politician, which has caused so much excitement here, was the discovery in the vault in his office of a sealed package directed to his brother Samuel, which was opened and found to contain a letter saying that his health was failing and that he needed a sea voyage. Explicit directions about settling his estate, with power of attorney to his brother, were given in the paper. He also intimated that unless his health improved his friends would likely never see him again. The missing gives every indication that he was insane before he left home, although his family did not suspect it.

BLAND'S DOUBLE VICTORY.

The show of yesterday melted away rapidly this morning. There is "blood on the moon." Look out for developments. People who own sleighs may as well put them in camp for until next winter. The State Editorial Association will probably go to Asbury Park, N. J., this summer. Hazleton ruff-raff insult the Salvation Army, but the army will be on top when the ruff-raff are calling for water. Linemen to-day commenced stretching the trolley wire along East Centre street for the Lakeside Electric Railway. Grocer John T. Graf has placed a new and handsome wagon on the road to deliver goods to his many customers. A rumor got abroad to-day that a case of small-pox had been located on Jardin street. Secretary Scanlan, of the Board of Health, stated that the rumor had been investigated and found groundless. A talent social will be held under the auspices of the Junior Y. W. C. T. U. in the temperance room, postoffice building, this evening, at 8 o'clock. Admission ten cents. Owing to the heavy sales and non arrival of bottles the office of the ALVA Medicine Co. will not be open to-day. Tomorrow people wanting the medicine can be supplied without further delay.

Easter Sunday is near at hand. A great stock of clothing having been consigned to Max Reese, commission merchant and auctioneer, and that gentleman not having room in his Centre street auction house, he has taken the large room in the opera block on South Main street, next door to the First National Bank. The stock consists of men's, youths', boys' and children's clothing, 152 Prince Albert suits, 400 pairs of pants, from 55 cents up to $1.50; cheviot suits, men's suits from $2 up, 380 fine confirmation suits, fine Jersey suits for all ages, reduced to $1.25 and $1.50; single vests from 25 cents up, 350 navy blue suits, 1,328 youths' suits. Bring your children and get them clothed at one-half the usual price. Remember the place, sign of the Red Flag, next door to the First National Bank. The sale will last only until April 1, as the room must be vacated by that time. Now or never is your chance to clothe you and your children cheap, at Max Reese's Auction and Commission House. 3-16-3t.

Hear the 23d Regt. band at McElhenney's cafe. 3-14-4t. Coming Events. March 16.—A grand ball will be held in Robbins' opera house on St. Patrick's Eve. March 20.—First grand ball under the auspices of the Monomere Social Club in Robbins' opera house. Mar. 27.—"The Trolley System," benefit of Mrs. Damm, at Ferguson's theatre. April 2.—First annual hop under the auspices of the Riley orchestra in Robbins' opera house. April 12.—First anniversary of the Daisy Chain of All-Saluts' Protestant Episcopal church. "Old Song" entertainment. April 20.—Ice cream festival under the auspices of the Star Flute and Drum Corps in Robbins' opera house. Surprise Party. A number of the young friends of Elwood Jacoby met at the home of his uncle, John Robbins, 301 East Centre street, last evening, to celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of Mr. Jacoby's birth. The party was a complete surprise to the young man. An enjoyable evening was spent that was concluded with a luncheon comprising all the delicacies of the season. Among those present were: Misses Jennie Beddall, Sallie and Bird Wasley, Lizzie Keithan, Ruby Yost, Mary Leckie and Maggie Jacoby; Messrs. Max Mayer, John Sterling, Daniel Reedy, Ezra Houslock, Frederick Deik, Paul Shultz, Harvey and Elwood Jacoby.

Waters and Casey To-night. The special feature of the performance of the Drew Company, at Ferguson's theatre to-night, will be the debut of Messrs. Waters and Casey, as partners in their new sketch entitled "Music Has Charms." In the sketch three of the new songs written and composed by the two young men, and which are about to be issued from Boston, will be sung. This is the first time these songs have been in public and the audience to-night may be promised a treat, as Mr. Casey has a national reputation as a fine comedian.

Large Funeral. The funeral of the late Michael P. Kelley, who died at Shamokin on Tuesday, took place to-day. The remains were brought to this town at noon and the funeral proceeded to Pottsville on the 12:44 Lehigh Valley train. The attendance was very large, three cars being required for the accommodation of the relatives and friends. Martin Lambers, William P. Delaney and James Bell, of Shenandoah, and Peter Mohan, William and Timothy Cashman, of Shamokin, were the pall bearers.

Why Pay More? Having decided to discontinue our carpet department we have marked them at prices that will close them out with a rush. Here are a few leaders: Regular 100c, heavy 25c; all of the 90c grades are down to 50c; our best 75c, all wool ingrain are reduced to 50c. These prices are extremely low for the above goods, which are all the latest and best patterns. L. J. WILKINSON, 34-44 29 S. Main street, Shenandoah.

Second Hand False Teeth Come Cheap. CHICAGO, March 16.—False teeth sold for one cent per set, gold watches at $3.50 each and seal skin snuggles at 45c; plenty a piece at the sale of unidentified property held by the lost and found department of the World's Fair. Other lost goods were sold at equally low prices, and not over $500 was realized.

Ex-Senator Dawes Mightily Ill. WASHINGTON, March 16.—Ex-Senator Dawes, of Massachusetts, who was taken suddenly ill here yesterday, was much improved this morning, and was able to be about his room. He will probably remain in Washington several days for rest, but no fears are entertained on account of his illness.

The Roster Claim Nonsuited. MADISON, Wis., March 16.—Judge Liebeck granted a nonsuit in the celebrated roster suit against Governor Peck and other state officials. An appeal was at once taken to the supreme court by the plaintiffs, and a decision is not expected before next fall. The suit was begun by Tracey, Gibbs & Co., printers, and George Robert Dow, capitalist, to secure $15,000. The roster printing contract was let to the Madison Times for $57,000, and the governor's private secretary, practically owner of the Times, sold an interest in the contract for $20,000. The state printer, who sold his claim to the job for $18,000, and Clark paid to the plaintiff only $3,000 of the money he had received from them. The plaintiff claim that they were defrauded, but the court implies that as they apparently knew an $18,000 contract was being let for $57,000, and were to share in the profits, they were entitled to no relief.

The Tariff in the Senate. WASHINGTON, March 16.—Secretary Carlisle and Assistant Secretary Harlan were in consultation with the senate committee on finance yesterday afternoon concerning the administrative features of the tariff bill. It is understood that Mr. Carlisle coincided with some of the opinions expressed by the Republican members of the committee, and that some amendments of this portion of the bill will be made. The Republicans are attacking the administrative part of the bill wherever it is materially different from the existing law, which they claim is as good a system as can be devised. The opinion is gaining ground that the bill will be reported to the senate on Tuesday next.

Comstock Makes a Raid. NEW YORK, March 16.—The Tenderloin club on West Thirty-second street, composed of leading men in every walk of life, was raided by Anthony Comstock, of the Society for the Suppression of Vice. Mr. Comstock went to the club houses and arrested Eugene Leonard, a colored boy of 16 years, and then tore from the walls the obscene pictures, more than a score of them. The pictures were taken to the Tombs court and displayed before the justice, who held the boy for trial in $500 bail. The pictures were painted by artists connected with the press of this city, and have been on exhibition since 1891.

Catholic Rebuke Satoll. CLEVELAND, March 16.—Again the rebellion among the Poles of St. Stanislaus' Catholic church has broken out. Bishop Horstmann and Monsignor Satoll refused to remove their priest, Rev. R. Kosinski, and it was thought that settled the matter. Protesting members have written Monsignor Satoll in a defiant strain, declaring that they will have the priest arrested, and advising Satoll to leave the United States if he has no authority to fight wrongs. A movement is also on foot to form an independent church.

A Naval Officer Disgraced. WASHINGTON, March 16.—The record of the court martial in the case of Assistant Engineer Armin Hartholt, tried on a charge of drunkenness and overstaying leave on the China station, has reached the navy department. The court found him guilty and sentenced him to drop to the foot of his grade, to be confined to the Baltimore for three months and to be publicly reprimanded. The latter sentence has been carried out.

California's Army of Invaders. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 16.—The industrial army received admissions, bringing its enlisted force up to 890 men. The situation is liable to become serious. The army has been refused free transportation over the Santa Fe, and as General O'Brien told the city council on Monday that if the railroad would not give transportation the army would take the railroad there will surely be trouble if the attempt is made.

A Septuagenarian Robbed. ALLENTOWN, Pa., March 16.—The police are looking for Clemens Laskowski and Thomas and William Hefney, all young men, who are suspected of robbing Peter Diehm of $2,000. Diehm is an industrious laboring man over 70 years old, who had saved the money by penurious living. The money was stolen while the old man lay asleep.

Centonix Versus Non-Centonists. KITTANNING, Pa., March 16.—The suits and cross suits among the union and non-union mill men came up here for trial to-day. The charges include riot, conspiracy, shooting, intent to kill and assault and battery. About 150 men, evenly divided between the two factions, are in town and many are armed.

PENCIL POINTS.

DEAR OLD GRANDMOTHERS.

Healthy, Hearty, Happy, Using Paine's Celery Compound. How to Make the Last Mile as Smooth as Possible. The Illness of the Aged Mainly Comes Under the Head of Weakness. For ages the world has been piling up its indebtedness to the sweet, sunny, salutary grandmothers, who, when mothers' hands have been full and strength overtaxed, have surrounded the young lives under the home roof with the atmosphere of peace and unselfishness. Care for them, then. Give them the best of care and love and thought. Do not let the old folks any longer think they are retired and must sit clear back out of sight from the world, feeling that they have no relation to it. Give them your arm when streets are slippery. Carefully avoid saying anything that implies that they are in the way. Remember that they, more than younger people, need something to stir and clear their slow blood and give strength and tone to their nerves and more feeble powers of digestion and assimilation. The illness of the aged mainly comes under the head of weakness, but none are too old to be helped by Paine's celery compound. It brings new material for building up worn-out nerve tissues. The many forms that nervous weakness takes all disappear when once the veins are supplied with pure, more abundant, more vigorous blood. Paine's celery compound cures dyspepsia, sleeplessness, headache, and neuralgia. It cleanses the blood of every trace of poisonous humors and encourages a rapid addition of the red corpuscles upon which the vigor of the entire body depends. White cheeks, white lips, badly nourished frames indicate thin, poor blood. Paine's celery compound restores a rich, pure current to the blood and a healthy action to the nervous system. To those who cannot sleep because of nervous exhaustion, Paine's celery compound will show itself the one thing needed. Men and women of every age who have to struggle daily to meet the needs of too great nervous expenditures should take this great remedy. Its invigorating, soothing action begins at once at the nerve centers which manufacture the nervous force for every muscle and organ of the body. Not only has too little attention been paid to the aged, but the prevention of nervous diseases in children and young adults has been neglected. Paine's celery compound is genuine food for the tired and used-up nerves. It cures a tendency to headaches and all those diseases which are due to a disordered nervous system. Try it; you will be convinced.
