COUNTY SEAT LETTER.

From Our Regular Pottsville Correspondent.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

The Friends of the Various Candidates for Congressional Honors Are Doing Some Effective Work in the Lattor's Interests. The Small-pox Scare.

Special HERALD correspondences.

POTTSVILLE, March 22.—The people at the county seat received a bad scare over the report that small-pox was in their midst and have not altogether recovered from it. It was found that the victim was a man residing on the Cressona road and who had recently moved from Danville. Thanks to the prompt and active steps of Health Officer Hoskins, who, by the way, is an old war veteran and formerly resident of Shenandoah, the fears of the people were soon dispelled. He lost no time in enforcing the health regulations required by the ordinances and proved a strict disciplinarian.

All the leading Republican politicians who want office, and those who are backing them, are on their good behavior now. No one would think for a moment that any dissension existed in the ranks. Perhaps there is none, but before passing an opinion on that point I prefer to wait and watch developments. "Johnny" Shoener continues the favorite for Congress. Loch has been very busy of late and can be seen frequently with W. Jack Whitehouse, who is Sam's best friend. The latter was seen in confidential conversation with ex-Sheriff McCabe the other day and this has led to a report that the two have hatched horses—McCabe to work for Sam's nomination for Congress and Sam to put in his best ticks for McCabe's nomination for Sheriff. A bicycle made for two, as it were. But all this may be unfounded rumor.

Brumm is still sawing wood and saying nothing, but R. H. Koch's friends are doing quite the contrary. They are hustling. "Dick" would like to be Judge, still he would not hesitate in accepting a Congressional nomination. The Underhill will meet here Saturday. It is difficult to forecast what will happen when the several factions meet. As the committee is a double headed one two calls have been issued and a Kilkenny fight is looked for when the respective chairmen meet. Matt Quinn has a crew to pick with Congressman Heilly and it is said he will give that gentleman some trouble.

The new daily newspaper project here has developed a large number of able newspaper men and printers. The county seems flooded with them. Messrs. Finney and Lawlor have hundreds of applications and new ones come in with each mail.

What I'll give you something on the street Q. T. Zerby, of the Republican party, was shocked and very much chagrined when he heard the result of the HERALD trial. The verdict in that case was about as near right as a jury of twelve intelligent and disinterested men could get it. The borough had no right to complain. Had its representatives attended to their business by learning what the advertisement would cost before giving it to the paper there would, in all probability, have been no law-suit in connection with the matter. A mistake was made by the borough officials, and the loss of getting away from that point. Mr. Burke, Shenandoah's rising young lawyer, shed another feather to his cap by the manner in which he conducted the case for the HERALD. The result was a full vindication for Mr. Boyer.

Next Week's Surprises. On Monday, at 9 o'clock, we will place on sale 30 pieces of extra quality table linens, finest cream and turkey red damask patterns, made to sell at 50c. per yard; our sale price for one week will be 25c. per yard. Also, one lot of White Quilts, all new goods and no extra stars, at 24c. and 18c. each about half price. Men's seamless Allentown hose at 5c. per pair. We expect to receive another shipment of those wonderful white shirts at 35c. each, worth double. These are only a few of our unsual bargains. Don't fail to see our new dress goods and the long getting wraps at popular and pleasing prices.

L. J. WILKINSON,
3-6-4t 29 S. Main street, Shenandoah.

Brownsville, Yatesville, Ellensgowan and Turkey Run will be served with the 7:15 a. m. delivery. Money orders and postal notes will not be issued or paid.

"Grit's" Free Pictures. A beautiful and artistic 14-color picture, size 9x15 inches is given away with every copy of that popular newspaper, Pennsylvania Grit, which is sold here every Saturday. The pictures are beautiful and will look well framed. Everybody should get it and a picture this week. 3-16-94

MAHANAY CITY.

MAHANAY CITY, March 23.

J. H. James, Esq., of Ashland, was in town yesterday.

Miss Burns, of St. Nicholas, did shopping here on Thursday morning.

Miss Ella Seaman, of Gilberton, was among the shoppers in town yesterday.

The work of demolishing the old school house at Cole's patch was begun yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Schuth has returned from Wilkes-Barre to spend Easter with her parents.

Dr. Bowman, of East Centre street, made an excursion to Pottsville yesterday morning.

Thomas Dunn came from school yesterday to enjoy Easter festivities with friends and relatives.

Joseph Robinson returned to Philadelphia yesterday after a month's visit to his cousin, Joseph Robinson, of West Centre street.

Charles Friedenberg, a gentleman of leisure, and George Jacobs, manager of Allen's opera house, Tanamqua, were in town last evening.

Joseph A. Sullivan, the handsome and pleasing portrait agent from New York, was happily entertained by Ashland lady friends last evening.

While working on a counter in Patterson's store yesterday afternoon, Joshua Myers, fell badly through a show case, demolishing a $30 glass.

Thomas J. Humphreys, of Girardville, roadmaster for the Schuylkill Traction Company, looked after the company's interests here yesterday.

William Helms fell through a ceiling in John Bricker's residence, on East Centre street, yesterday morning, doing little damage to his person, but considerable to his pocket book.

The remains of Mrs. George Goff, who died on Tuesday, was taken from her late residence on West Mahanoy avenue this afternoon and interred in the cemetery on the hill. The deceased is survived by five daughters and four sons, all of age. Her husband died about six weeks ago.

Three boys from town, named Henry Keltman, William and Jeremiah Yarnall, and two men named Joseph Zimmerman and James Bretz, of Schuylkill Haven, were arrested by Coal & Iron Policemen Geiger, Smith and Kleindenz and taken before Justice May last evening for riding on a P. & D. national freight train. Some of the boys were old offenders and after receiving a severe and well-deserved reprimand from the Justice were committed to the lock-up in default of payment of fine. The men stated that they were looking for employment, and had of respectable appearance, were liberated on the payment of fine and costs.

George Helms, the well-known local comedian and vocalist, met with a singular experience while walking on Chestnut street, Philadelphia, recently. Before he had entered the city he had been found by a man named Quaker City. While in the neighborhood of the post office he stepped toward what appeared to be an open store door, when his eyes were suddenly riveted upon a figure the counter-part in face and clothes of himself. "My twin brother!" thought George, greatly surprised and cordially extended his hand to greet him, when it came in contact with the chilly surface of a plate-glass mirror.

George B. Yengst, the well known West Centre street butcher, has made up his mind to close the local branch in the county for killing and dressing stock for market. With one assistant he prepared 104 calves and 12 sheep within thirty hours. Seventy-eight of the calves went to Shenandoah yesterday.

Burglars broke into the Polish church, on Chestnut street, late on Wednesday night of Thursday morning, and carried off a gold chalice, some crosses and other church treasure to the value of $300. An entrance was effected through the front door and from the rudeness of the work, the robbers are supposed to have been amateurs. The local police are looking into the matter but have as yet discovered no clue.

Dr. J. Garrett Mertz, the West Centre street oculist, says there are many people in Mahanoy City suffering with poor sight which in many cases may be attributed to the electric light. The brilliant glare is too powerful for most eyes and causes a weakness of the optic nerves. Dr. Mertz is treating such cases with great success and makes but moderate charges. His advertisement appears in another column of the HERALD.

The annual inspection of Co. E, 8th regiment, N. G. Pa., took place in Armory hall, last evening. The gallery and all available seats and standing room about the hall were thronged with pretty girls and their escorts, who came to admire the evolutions of the brightly uniformed soldier boys. The Citizens' band was present and marching music. At eight o'clock the company marched in to the number of 56 with their arms shouldered. The roll was then called and as each man responded let his gun drop heavily to the floor. Each soldier carried his knapsack, overcoat, haversack, canteen and a large tin cup, besides a fourteen pound gun, making a total weight of twenty-five pounds. As they stood in rigid line, a dignified and keen-eyed officer inspected everything carried, from white collars to gaiters. The inspection ended satisfactorily and drilling commenced. As the officer's orders rang out clear and sharp, the men responded, wheeling, retreating, counter-marching and firing, their white-gloved hands and gleaming bayonets moving together with the precision of a machine, and winning great applause from the audience. Luncheon followed this, when dancing began in which blue coats and bright skirts became promiscuously mixed. The visiting officers were: C. H. B. Hand, Sayre; Lieutenant-Colonel Theo. Hoffman, Shamokin; Major Ridgway Wright, Scranton; Major Wallace Guss, Tanamqua; Lieutenant W. F. Richardson, Philadelphia, all of whom were royally entertained by the home guard.

The infant daughter of Joseph and Annie Bowman died yesterday. The funeral will take place from the late residence on West Centre street to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock.

The Wonderful Child Artist. On Tuesday evening, at Ferguson's theatre, Little Lydia, the wonderful child artist, will appear in her specialties of Irish jig dancing and songs. The entertainment is for the benefit of the mother of the late Fred. Damm.

Special low prices to all in watches, jewelry and silverware at Holderman's, corner Main and Lloyd streets.

WILL THEY START?

Commonwealth Army Said to Have Recruits Here.

THE LUZERNE MOVEMENT

Men in Town Influenced by the Reports From Hazleton, But They Are Puzzled as to How They Will Subsist During the March to Washington.

The General Coxe doctrine seems to have secured a foothold in this town. A number of men who were assembled in Justice Toomey's office to-day said they had organized and intended applying to the General for a commission. They said five hundred unemployed men could easily be secured here and as many more could be secured down the valley.

When asked about their intentions the men said they proposed to march to Washington to demand employment from the national administration, which is the policy laid down by General Coxe.

The story sounded very nice until the reporter asked how the army would subsist during the time it would take to march to Washington and the question seemed to make a big rent in the bottom of the calculations.

At this point a bystander became interested and said it was the question of subsistence which would kill the army. It is natural to suppose that the unemployed men are without means and they can hardly keep the people along the route to keep the army in provisions, so the only alternative they will have will be to put it plainly—to steal.

When Justice Toomey was asked what he believed about the movement he said he believed some men had been influenced by the reports from Luzerne county. At Hazleton, it is said, a man named W. Astor Evans, claims to have been commissioned by General Coxe to organize a Pennsylvania detachment of the Commonwealth army and says he has three hundred men already organized. He also claims that a man named William Cassidy, at Tomhickon, is said to have one hundred and fifty men ready for the march.

General Coxe was formerly a resident of Danville and is well known in Hazleton. Evans is a relative of Coxe's wife.

One first ward resident took a very philosophical view of the situation this afternoon. He said "I've got hangers and before I would undertake to walk to Washington I would want a contract for wages during the tramp. As my son, Dan, says, Washington is quite a step and the time lost in sitting down on the way would eat up all the profit."

MORE CONTESTS.

The Prison May Receive Some More Violators of Election Laws.

It is a cold day when Schuylkill county is without an election contest. Yesterday A. W. Schalk, Esq., presented to court affidavits of Fenton Keene, Patrick Curran, Patrick Murray, George Eichenberg and Thomas Pursell, who were candidates for local offices in West Norwegian township, and were defeated at the polls, who swear that illegal methods were resorted to to secure their defeat. They propose to contest the election of those declared elected by majorities of two votes and upwards and the jail doors may open to the members of the spring election board.

The candidates, whom it is alleged, were elected on fraudulent votes are Peter Haverty, Supervisor; John Brennan, three years; and Frank Curry, one year, for School Directors; John Curran and William Holly, Auditors.

It is strangely asserted that open fraud against the suffrage was also practiced in Norwegian (Curry's) township. It is only two years that a number of School Directors of this district were sent to jail for misdemeanor in office.

Coming Events.

March 20.—First grand ball under the auspices of the Monamore Social Club in Robbins' opera house.

Mar. 21.—"The Trolley System," benefit of Mrs. Damm, at Ferguson's theatre.

April 2.—First annual hop under the auspices of the Biley orchestra, in Robbins' opera house.

April 12.—First anniversary of the Daisy Chain of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church. "Old Song" entertainment.

April 20.—Ice cream festival under the auspices of the Star Flute and Drum Corps in Robbins' opera house.

May 30.—Strawberry and ice cream festival in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Camp 6, I. O. of T. A.

Hunting and Fishing Grounds.

The best in the West, North and Northwest is reached only by the lines of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. Trout season is nearly here; look up your tackle, see that it is in good shape and then write to John R. Pott, District Passenger Agent, Williamsport, Pa., for a brochure of "where the trout hide." 3-17-94

Good Friday.

The appearance of the town to-day was much like that which it bears on Sundays. Good Friday was almost generally observed. Services were held in many of the churches this morning and were well attended. Services will also be held to-morrow.

A ten-minute concert for a nickel at McElhenny's cafe. 3-14-94

To Purchase a Team.

The Phoenix Horse Company contemplates purchasing a team of horses and a committee has been appointed for that purpose. It is said the purchase of a team will eventually lead to the purchase of a steam fire engine.

Eggs are Cheap.

Grocers say that they never knew eggs to be as cheap in Easter season as they are this year. They have dropped to sixteen cents a dozen.

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Dynamite Kills Five People Near Pittsburg This Morning.

Special to the Herald.

PITTSBURG, March 23.—There was a terrible fatal explosion this morning at the dynamite works of the Acme Powder Company at Black's Run, a few miles from this city. Three children, a man and a married woman were instantly killed. They were Mollie, Nellie, Sadie and Samuel Ramey and Mrs. William Arthurs.

Five tons of dynamite exploded and shattered every structure within several hundred yards of the works. The report is said to have been heard at a distance of fifteen miles. The cause of the explosion has not been determined, but is attributed to a shock of some kind. A. P. A.

PERSONAL.

Miss Lulu Waters is visiting friends in Shamokin.

Connellman Finney returned from Philadelphia last evening.

Commissioners Allen and Martin were in town yesterday on official business.

Hon. J. J. Coyle, of Mahanoy City, spent a short time in town yesterday.

Mrs. H. G. Boyer went to Scranton this afternoon to spend Easter with relatives.

Hon. Elias Davis, of Broad Mountain, spent yesterday afternoon in town on business.

Mrs. Thomas Llewellyn and her daughter, Mattie, went to St. Clair to-day to visit friends.

James Bell and J. W. Johnson were passengers for Pottsville on the 12:43 Lehigh Valley train.

Mrs. W. G. Johnson and daughter, of Mahanoy City, are visiting Mrs. W. J. Jacobs, of West Oak street.

Kohler, the live rooster, Farmers' Hotel building, is sole agent for the famous AL-V-A Medicine for this Borough.

Misses Ida Sigfried, of Mt. Carmel, and Lillie Baker, of March Chunk, were the guests of the Misses Reese yesterday.

C. Will Langfield, a successful young member of the legal profession residing at Bloomsburg, is the guest of town friends.

Misses Lucy E. Williams, Laura E. Moyer, Mary A. Kistler and Mr. H. H. Fleisher, four of Auburn's school teachers, made their annual visit to friends in town yesterday.

Eight Girard college students came home this morning to spend Easter. Their names are Ressler, Anders, Oscar Bolich, William Hart, Robert Lenhart, Elmer Tompkins, George Leskie and Charles F. Bashore.

Grand Easter Display.

One of the finest Easter displays in the town is that of Max Schmidt, the North Main street dry goods merchant, who has put forth extra efforts to please his large number of patrons. The large windows have been displayed in a most attractive manner and are surrounded by large crowds who admire the splendid taste displayed by Mr. Schmidt. The south window is suggestive of the Easter season, with a large picture "Christ Hath Risen," and twirling evergreen, running from top to bottom, making the whole very attractive. The display of spring goods on the inside is just as attractive to the ladies, who through this popular store to view the mammoth stock of the latest Easter styles, including everything desired by the fair sex.

New Trial Asked.

J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., the Borough Solicitor, yesterday filed his motion for asking a new trial in the case in which the HERALD secured judgment against the borough. The reasons are (1) that the verdict was against the evidence; (2) that it was against the rules of evidence; (3) that the court erred in sending the files of the newspaper into the jury room.

The Jones Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Jones took place to-day from the family residence in Lost Creek. The deceased was extensively and favorably known and the attendance at the funeral was consequently large. The attendants drove to this town in carriages. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery at this place.

Cleaning Up.

Health Officer Miles called upon the residents of East Line street and requested them to clean their cellars and gutters. The request was promptly complied with and during the day the residents were observed working like beavers. The Health Officer speaks in high terms of the residents of this locality.
