JUSTICE NEWTON PLEADS GUILTY

He Gets Nine Months' Imprisonment. Constable Jamieson Convicted. BROOKLYN, March 23.—Richard V. B. Newton, the former Gravesend police justice, pleaded guilty to the indictment charging him with conspiracy in the election frauds in Gravesend, and threw himself upon the mercy of the court. He was then sentenced to nine months in the penitentiary and a fine of $500.

GEORGE DIXON "DOWNED"

The "Kentucky Rosebud" Gives the Champion His First Knockdown. PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—If the second round of the bout last night between George Dixon, present featherweight champion of the world, and Walter Edgerton, familiarly known as the "Kentucky Rosebud," of this city, had been allowed to continue for three minutes Dixon would have been completely knocked out. As it was it took him one and one-half minutes to recover his senses, while in the meantime the 20,000 persons who were present went wild with enthusiasm.

PENCIL POINTS.

It may not be actually with us, but it is near at hand, and steadily coming nearer. We refer, of course, to Spring, to that season of the year to which a late lamented poet once exclaimed: "Ethereal, ethereal come." A correspondent tells us that a girl near there sleeps with a horseshoe under her pillow for good luck. One night she put her false teeth under her pillow. She overheard herself the next morning, and jumping out of bed slapped the horseshoe into her mouth and wore it several hours before she discovered her mistake.

A LONG FELT WANT.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company announces that, beginning Thursday, March 23d, parlor cars will be placed in service on the Schuylkill division, between Philadelphia and Pottsville, on express trains leaving Philadelphia at 6:35 a. m. and 4:10 p. m., and Pottsville at 6:55 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. week-days. Seat checks can be purchased in advance from Ticket Agents at 338 Chestnut street, 1348 Chestnut street, and Broad street station, Philadelphia, and Pottsville.

DANA'S SARSAPARILLA THE KIND THAT CURES SCROFULA AND ECZEMA. A WONDERFUL CURE. A MINISTER'S TESTIMONY. I wish to extol the virtues of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Day's health was usually good up to the age of 40. At this time scrofula (skin manifested itself in form of Eczema. We had used a variety of remedies, with but little good result, but DANA'S SARSAPARILLA proved so effective that I must say it is a grand combination of remedial agents.

We have postponed our journey to the moon for the present, as a few doses of Dr. Cass's Wild Cherry and Souka has entirely cured our cough.

To Prevent a Brutal Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A large, fierce grizzly was captured some time ago and purchased by Colonel Boone, the lion tamer. Among the other animals owned by Boone is a lion named Parnell, which has a record for killing numerous keepers. It was proposed to put Parnell and the grizzly in the big cage of the arena at the midwinter fair, and let them fight to a finish. Tickets at $20 were selling like hot cakes. The secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is assured by Mayor Elliott and the chief of police of every assistance for preventing the brutal affair.

Destructive Fire in Denver.

DENVER, Colo., March 23.—One of the most destructive fires ever seen in this city broke out last night in the recently finished six-story Clamps building. The fire department, which was alerted about a quarter of a square was destroyed at a loss of $175,000. The high east and west walls of the Clamps building fell, crushing five two-story structures like egg shells. Then the front wall toppled over into Clamps street, the concussion breaking all the glass in the buildings opposite. The rear part of the St. James, one of the largest hotels in the city, was destroyed.

More New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—In a list of postmasters—presidential and fourth class—named yesterday were the following in Pennsylvania: W. F. Daley, Dubois; E. T. McGraw, Reynoldsville; A. R. Saylor, Roversford; W. W. Kitch, Sharpville; J. A. Fry, Ephrata; O. C. Jackson, Costeview; Solomon Uhl, Somerset; P. J. Langhan, Hawley; A. M. Dick, West Newton; R. J. O'Donnell, Canton; Charles Schmitt, Homestead; F. H. Stratton, Blossburg; P. J. Rothenhold, Grimville; L. E. Adams, Oak Ridge Station; M. L. Keck, Walnut; New Jersey—S. A. Drew, McAfee Valley.

Postoffice Burglars Use Dynamite.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 23.—The railway station and postoffice at Cedar Lane, this county, are in a state of confusion, and during the night burglars broke into the station and from there forced an entrance into the postoffice. The safe was dragged into the waiting room, where it was blown to pieces by dynamite. There happened to be very little of value in the safe. Nearly every letter in the office was opened and in many cases torn into pieces. It is almost impossible to ascertain the extent of the loss. The building was considerably damaged by the force of the explosion.

Burt Sentenced to Death.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., March 23.—The death sentence was imposed by Judge Yerkes upon Wallace Burt, the half breed murderer of Samuel M. and Lena Rightly. When asked by the court whether he had anything to say why the sentence of death should not be passed upon him Burt exclaimed between loud sobs, "Oh, I'm sorry!" Then he broke down completely, and his wails were the only sounds heard in the crowded court room.

A Little Boy's Sad Death.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., March 23.—While the body of Ambrose E. Seifried, who died on Wednesday, was awaiting burial in his home in Catasauqua, his son Harry, one of twins, about 3 years of age, while wandering about the house got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid used as a disinfectant, and swallowed a large dose of it. Despite all efforts to save his life the child died about an hour later.

Louis Kosuth's Funeral.

TUEN, March 23.—The body of Louis Kosuth was taken under escort to Buda Pesth today. The funeral will take place in the Hungarian capital on Tuesday next. It is understood that the body will be taken to Hungary by the way of Venice and Fiume in order to avoid its passage over Austrian soil.

Refusal to Extend a Judge's Term.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 23.—The senate, by a vote of 11 to 12, refused to extend the term of Judge John P. Vinson, of Montgomery, as associate justice of the Sixth judicial circuit. Judge Vinson is a Republican.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

The blizzard which has waged in the west and northwest for three days has spent its force. At Pittsfield, Mass., George C. Nickerson was poisoned by eating canned shrimp, and died in great agony. The engagement of Premier Rosebery to Princess Maud, youngest daughter of the Prince of Wales, is confirmed. The Pioneer coal mines, near Pomeroy, O., owing to a wage disagreement, will be idle all summer, throwing 600 men out of work. Tom Monaghan and Bob O'Hearn and their sons were arrested at Galveston, Tex., for indulging in a vicious glove fight, in which O'Hearn was knocked out. At Dallas, Tex., John W. Stinson and E. H. Rogers, discharged Western Union telegraph operators, bring suit against the company for $20,000 damages for black-listing them.

Rockefeller's Bondsmen Molested.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 23.—The court took from the jury the case of the molesters of the bondsmen of the Rockefeller bank failure, in February, 1893, $50,000 of the city's funds went down with the crash, Rockefeller being city treasurer. His bondsmen refused to pay on the ground that Rockefeller had made investments of the money. The case has taken a week for trial, and has aroused wide interest.

A Cruel Cooper Sent Up.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Judge Fitzgerald sentenced Berthold Popper, an usher at the Academy of Music, to two and a half years in Sing Sing prison. Popper eloped with Lillie H. Halleck, and knowing her to be the wife of Charles H. Halleck, went through the form of marriage. He got all the money that the woman stole from her husband, a Long Island farmer, and then deserted her in Chicago. She committed suicide as soon as she found herself deserted.

A Girl Charged with Double Murder.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 23.—Later developments in the death last Friday of Mrs. Rosa Brown and her son George are most sensational. Mrs. Brown had employed a domestic named Frances Maloney, who had been discharged. At the instant a druggist identified Frances as having called at his store last Friday to purchase strychnine. Detectives have secured additional evidence, and the girl is now confined in the county jail charged with the double murder.

Camden Democrats Surrender.

CAMDEN, N. J., March 23.—The Democrats yesterday surrendered the police force to the Republicans and Mayor Westcott. This was done as the result of the decision of the supreme court in the senate case. The chief of police, two lieutenants and four officers at once handed in their resignations. The police commission at once adjourned sine die, and Mayor Westcott set about to appoint sixty policemen.

Bomb in Another Church.

PARIS, March 23.—A dispatch from Grenoble says that a bomb was exploded Wednesday afternoon in the Church of Gallien, near Grenoble. The bomb was placed against a screen inside the main entrance of the church and exploded at about 4 o'clock, as the congregation was leaving the building after an Easter service. The explosion injured twenty persons, three of whom may die from their injuries.

PRENDERGAST TO STAY.

The Murderer's Execution Postponed Until Friday, April 6. CHICAGO, March 23.—After the refusal of the supreme court to grant a stay to Patrick Eugene Prendergast, sentenced to hang here at Chicago today for the murder of Mayor Harrison, the attorneys for the defense decided to appeal to Governor Altgeld. Wednesday evening Clarence S. Darrow telegraphed the governor at Springfield, Miss., asking him to grant a respite. Governor Altgeld telegraphed Darrow that he "declined to interfere with the duties belonging to the lieutenant governor of Illinois." A petition was then drawn up by Mr. Darrow, and he secured the signatures of nine circuit court judges of Cook county. Armed with this document the lawyers proceeded to Springfield and argued for a stay of execution. After hearing the arguments Lieutenant Governor Gill announced, at 10 o'clock last night, that he would grant no respite. Meantime Prendergast's lawyers have had not been idle. They had raised the question of their client's responsibility by claiming that he has become insane since the trial. Judge Chelton was applied to, and after hearing the arguments in the case he, shortly after 11 o'clock last night, postponed the time of Prendergast's execution until Friday, April 6. The formal hearing of the case will be begun before Judge Chelton and a jury tomorrow.

Congressman Wilson Very Weak.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 23.—Congressman W. L. Wilson arrived here yesterday from Mexico. He left Guadalajara last Monday morning in his private car and traveled by easy stages. Mr. Wilson is very much emaciated, and it was only with great effort on his part and assisted by other members of the party that he was able to reach the carriage in waiting to convey him to his hotel. His face is colorless, and his speech is almost inaudible from weakness. He will remain in Texas until fully recovered.

Go and See It.

Ignorance No Excuse.

John Foster, of Centra, had a hearing before Squire Amour, of Mt. Carmel, on a charge of having violated section 4 of the rules and regulations of the Board of Health of that place. He was employed by George W. Davis, of the same place, to cleanse the cesspools, on the Davis premises in Mt. Carmel. Foster had no permit. Mr. Davis told him that he (Davis) would be responsible. Davis was summoned and appeared. He had no fault to find with the regulations and intended no offense. Although his intentions were good, he was legally wrong and gladly paid the fine and costs. In this connection it will be well to mention that ignorance of the law does not excuse or defend. All property holders should become familiar with the requirements of the rules and regulations of the health board. It pays best to read the newspapers and become posted.

Local Reciprocity.

The application of the principles of reciprocity should be made in every town that is ambitious of attaining prosperity. The mechanic or laborer who lives in a town, and who is dependent on the people of that town or community for employment, who spends his money in another city has no right to complain if his neighbor refuses to employ him, but instead imports a workman from some other locality to build his house, lay his wall or paint his barn, as the case may be.

An Unfortunate Quotation.

"A good story is told on ex-Pension Commissioner Black," said a Chicago attorney. "Every one who knows Black is aware that he is one of the most dignified legal practitioners in the west, and that he is also somewhat enamored of the classics. Not long ago he was attorney in a nasty case at Springfield, and in his address to the jury he quoted very freely from the 'Merchant of Venice,' and wound up by saying that, although the plaintiff could demand his pound of flesh, the terms of his bond did not enable him to go beyond this. 'The attorney for the alleged user seemed very much amused at the line of argument Mr. Black was taking, and when that gentleman's peroration was concluded he rose and remarked with somewhat of a plying tone that Brother Black had recently held a brief in a dressed beef case, and that he had gotten the two cases mixed up, concluding by assuring the jury that there was no flesh in this case at all, but only money. A legal friend of mine, who solemnly asserts he was in court on the occasion, says the look of disgust on Mr. Black's face would have been worth a small fortune to any artist who could have reproduced it on canvas.'"—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Umbrellas.

"If half the citizens of New York only knew such a simple thing as how to roll up an umbrella, I would probably have to close up my repairing department," said an up town umbrella dealer. "Most of the umbrellas brought here to be mended," he went on, "would never have needed repairs if they had been kept properly rolled." "The right way to roll your umbrella is to take hold of the ends of the ribs and the stick with the same hand and hold them tightly enough to prevent their being twisted while the covering is being twisted around with the other hand. Then your umbrella will be as nicely closed as when you bought it, and the only wear and tear will be on the cloth. "It is twisting the ribs out of shape around the stick and fastening them there that spoils most of the umbrellas that are brought to me to be fixed up. Never hold the umbrella by the handle alone when you roll it up, and you will find it will last longer and cost less for repairs."—New York Herald.

Where They Met.

Donald (after the bell)—May I call on you occasionally, Miss Lester? We seem as old friends. Have I not seen you somewhere before? Miss Lester (cuttingly)—Yes, you saw me hanging onto the strap in the car one day last week while you were sitting down.—Vogue.

Confusion of Law.

"Turn to the right, as the law directs," is a simple rule to remember, but if it were followed out it would obliterate all the jottings and elbowings that make a crowded thoroughfare so disagreeable. Another rule is apt to conflict in a puzzling way with this one, and that is the unwritten edict that gives a woman the inside of the walk. Confusion between the two makes a bad business of the matter.—Philadelphia Press.

An Interesting Search.

Western Maid—They tell me there are ever so many more women than men in Massachusetts. The chances for getting a husband in your state must be rather slim. Bay State Girl—Yes. But then the paucity of men makes the search after a husband exceedingly interesting.—Boston Transcript.
