REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, Philadelphia, Feb. 24, '94.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania:

I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, May 30, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the following purpose, to wit:

For the nomination of candidates respectively for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, two members of Congress from the state at large, Auditor General, Secretary of Internal Affairs, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

Attention is called to the rule adopted at the State Convention of 1893 providing for the basis of representation, as follows:

Representations in future state conventions shall be based upon the vote cast at the Presidential or gubernatorial election immediately preceding, one delegate being allotted to each legislative district for over 2,000 Republican votes, and an additional delegate for a fraction exceeding 1,000 votes, each district to have at least one delegate.

By order of the Republican State Com.
R. F. GILBERT, Chairman.
Attest: J. B. ILLI,
A. D. FILLIBRO, Secretary.

The representatives to which each district of the county is entitled to be as follows:

First district, 1; Second district, 1; Third district, 1; Fourth district, 3.

GROVER I.

The Mendocino-Tribune-Republican questions if Mr. Cleveland does or does not sign the Bland seigniorage bill whether it is worth a moment's quarrel. As far as its influence on the financial situation is concerned, it amounts to almost nothing.
There is such a quantity of money in this country now, that the question of the addition of fifty million dollars to the present amount is not of any account, to speak of. The government could coin five times as much silver as the Bland bill proposes to coin, and if it could be done in one day, it wouldn't make gold harder to get or raise the price of London exchange one cent on a thousand dollars. On the contrary, if the Secretary of the Treasury would throw the trouble some silver bullion into the Potomac river, the treasury would hardly miss it from its vaults. The only question involved in the signature, or refusal to sign the seigniorage bill is the question of whether the legislative branch of the government is a separate, and co-ordinate, and co-equal branch with the executive branch, or is only a subordinate branch to what the executive says go, come when it says come, and when it says do this thing, to do it without asking any questions. It is a question of whether Mr. Cleveland is the executive of the laws which we, the people make or the boss of the people, the maker of the laws, and the executive of his own will. The people who look at the present government at Washington, and then say that it is impossible to put the American people under a monarchy, don't know what they are talking about. This country is now practically a monarchy, and the only limit there is, is simply one of duration. It has got to end on the 4th of March, 1897. Thank God!

BUY A CREMATORY.

It is understood that the Philadelphia Coal & Iron Company has declined to grant the use of any of its property for a public dumping ground. It holds that by making such a grant it would render itself liable to prosecution for maintaining a nuisance. The borough is thus thrown into a dilemma. The places now used as dumping grounds are complained as a nuisance and the borough owns no land which it can set aside to receive the garbage. It has but one remedy and that is in the purchase of a crematory.
A sale of the stone crusher would probably assist the Council in raising funds for the purpose.

CHIVALRY ON TRIAL.

There has been considerable talk on the comparison of the two types by which this country was settled—the Puritan and the Cavalier, and we have been led to suppose that there was in the breeding of the people to the south of the Mason and Dixon line something of the ancient chivalry of which we have read much, but of which the moderns have been permitted to see very little. Though there has been no late instances of Southern Knights, out on expeditions of revenge upon the perpetrators of injury to the weak and helpless, and especially to the sex of Madeline Pollard, yet the prevailing opinion of most persons has been that, among the Southern people, there was an innate chivalry which gave weakness a right to demand protection if it needed it. The case of Miss Pollard vs Col.

Breckenridge, of Kentucky, now on trial in Washington, sadly shatters this idea, and leads to the belief that the human beast of the South has just as wide a range for his depredations as the same kind of an animal has in the North.

WHEN Editor Doyle, of the Sunday News, was asked on the witness stand the other day what the circulation of his paper was he tried to evade the question and gave a quibbling answer to the effect that the paper's circulation books were open for inspection by the world. The circulation books and a statement under oath are different things in connection with the News. If the circulation books are correct it is difficult to see why Mr. Doyle should hesitate to give the figures under oath.

THE people of East Line street and East Apple alley set an excellent example for the rest of the citizens by the promptness and cheerfulness with which they responded to the request of the Health Officer to clean the gutters and cellars.
If all the citizens would act the same way when called upon the borough would be saved considerable trouble and expense.

THERE is a vast difference between the statements of Editor Doyle and Witness Doyle. It is a difficult question to decide which is the more reliable.

WHEN the Sunday News volunteers to do anything look around and see if it hasn't got an ax that needs grinding hidden some place.

THERE is plenty material in Shenandoah for General Coxy's army of the unemployed, but the march to Washington is a terrific one.

LET the Borough Council keep up with the times and purchase a crematory to dispose of the garbage.

Eggs and new bonnets will predominate to-morrow.

New York Abortionists Bailed.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The police last night made a raid on abortionists doing business in different sections of the city, and as a result eleven women and five men are now behind the bars. The police claim to have convicting evidence in each case.
In one place the body of an infant was found under a sink, and in another the body of a stillborn child. The charges made by these practitioners were from $25 to $100, according to the circumstances, social position of the victims, etc.

Another Gaylord Mine Victim.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 24.—The Gaylord mine gave up another body yesterday, the fifth that has been recovered since the disaster of Feb. 13. It proved to be that of James Kingdom. The position of the body indicates that Kingdom, like his companions, had been running down the plane when the crash came and buried him under eighteen feet of coal and rock.

Gregg the Legal Mayor.

ENID, O. T., March 24.—Judge Buford, of the federal court, rendered a decision in the Moore-Gregg municipal war case, declaring W. W. Gregg, president of the town council, the legal mayor, and ousting J. C. Moore. The decision has intensified the feeling and a renewal of recent trouble is feared when Gregg attempts to take charge.

Murderer Bell Convicted.

HARRISBURG, March 24.—The Bell murder trial, which has been in progress here for the past two days, ended last night with a verdict of murder in the first degree. Counsel for the defense promptly moved for a new trial. Bell, who is a negro, murdered his white mistress, Ellen Miller, at Steelton on April 10, 1893.

A National Ticket from Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, March 24.—The Florida Hustler announces this morning the following national ticket for 1896: For president, Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama; for vice president, Hon. William E.
Russell, of Massachusetts.

Senator Colquhoun's Condition.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—At midnight Senator Colquhoun was resting quietly. The sinking spells of the morning and afternoon had not been repeated, his condition remaining otherwise unchanged.

TRY IT!—Hold the edge of a common stitching card in one hand so that no shadow will fall on either side; then hold your nose to the card and you will see how easy it is for the man to swallow one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

IT'S EASILY SWALLOWED.

one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These little Pellets are as effective as the best liver pills, and are easier to get down and more agreeable in their action besides.
The fact is, Dr. Pierce's sugar-coated Pellets are better in almost every respect. They act in a mild, easy and natural way. An absolute cure for Constipation, Dizziness, Indignation, Sour Stomach, Sick and Bilious Headaches, For Nervous Disorders arising from weak stomach, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, they are guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money is returned. Why are they not the cheapest pill for you to buy?

THE SEIGNIORAGE BILL

The President Deluged with Arguments For and Against It.

HE HAS NOT DECIDED ON A VETO.

As He Has Until Next Thursday to Make Up His Mind the Matter Will Doubtless Be Delayed Until Next Week.—Congressmen Urge Him to Sign the Measure.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Probably because it was cabinet day, and therefore difficult to get the ear of the president, there were few congressmen at the White House yesterday. But they have in no degree been relieved of anxiety as to the fate of the seigniorage bill, and are today making up in numbers the omissions of yesterday. The situation at the White House presents one strong feature of novelty in the fact that it appears to be the scene of a bloodless battle just now between the congressmen on the one hand, the large majority of whom are urging the signing of the seigniorage bill, and the great commercial interests of the country on the other, for twenty-nine out of every thirty of the communications coming from them pray for the veto of the bill. The congressmen have the advantage of personal presence on the field, but the other side is in evidence in great force in the enormous number of letters that burst in the presidential mail, and of telegrams that come so numerous, as to keep the wires hot and the White House operator occupied to his full capacity.

These communications by mail and wire are coming from all parts of the country, and are not, as might be supposed, altogether of eastern origin. For instance, yesterday there were appeals for a veto from Cincinnati, St. Louis, San Francisco and Salem, Ore. Virginia has also joined the line, as was made evident, by protests against the bill from the cotton factors of Norfolk and the transportation interests there. A very thoughtful presentation of objections to the bill, coming from Richmond without doubt, has made some impression upon the president. Of course it is manifestly impossible for the president to read himself in detail all of these communications, but they are carefully examined by Mr. Thurber, and any new point or suggestion on either side of the case is brought to the attention of the president.

There are all sorts of stories abroad as to the president's disposition towards the bill, and some have gone to the length of reciting that he has already prepared a veto message. If this be true he has not taken the members of the cabinet into his confidence, and at the meeting yesterday the subject was discussed from all points of view, with a distinct impression in the minds of the members of the cabinet that the president is still open to conviction. He has up to and including next Thursday—only a week—to make up his mind what to do with the bill, and there are indications that he proposes to use most of this time in thoughtful consideration of the matter.

It is certain that he has committed himself to no man as respects his action on the bill. When a congressman calls to urge the signature of the bill he is likely to have put to him a question that discourages him, but he soon learns that his colleague, who prays for a veto, has had a precisely similar experience, and both are left in more doubt as to the outcome than before their call.

It is noticeable that some of the communications received urging a veto concede that, owing to the slow formation of popular opinion, the result may be a temporary party loss at the polls, but they insist that in the end the sound and conservative course they approve will surely be regarded by popular support. This view is strongly expressed in the communications from the south, which in cases adjures the president to follow the line of conduct pursued by him in making the tariff issue. The comparatively few appeals for the signature of the bill, as yet received, are based on the plea that it will do no harm, and is absolutely demanded to insure party unity and the control of the next house of representatives.

A rumor has found publication to the effect that the president is about to go on a fishing trip of a few days, probably to Woodmont, W. Va., but this rumor can be positively denied.

Death of Inventor Baker.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—George C.
Baker, the inventor of the submarine torpedo boat, died in this city yesterday afternoon. Mr. Baker had been broken down in health for some time, and on Wednesday he underwent an operation for appendicitis, from which he did not recover.
The last congress appropriated $250,000 for the construction of a perfected submarine torpedo boat upon the plan made by Mr.
Baker. The deceased was about 50 years of age. His remains will be taken to Des Moines, his former home, where the interment will be made on Monday or Tuesday.

A Ticket Composed of Women.

ABLETTE, Kan., March 24.—At a mass meeting the women of Enterprise, a town of 1,000 people, in this county, have put up a complete temperance ticket composed of women. Mrs. M. Kohler, wife of ex-State Senator Kohler, was nominated for mayor. Mrs. Kate Haines for police judge, and a full quota of council members were named. All are married, and they propose to purify the city's politics.

Hoy and Thompson Win.

BATON ROUGE, N. J., March 24.—The shooting match at five paces, thirty yards rise and twenty-one yards boundary, for nominal stakes, which was brought off at Bergon Point yesterday, resulted in a victory for Hoy and Thompson by the following score: Hoy, 85; Thompson, 91; total, 176. Work, 91; MacAlister, 70; total, 170.

Rich Gold Found in Virginia.

RICHMOND, March 24.—Two valuable veins of gold-bearing quartz, assaying on the surface from $7 to $13.50 per ton, have been discovered in Loudoun county. It is said that New York capitalists who own the property have organized a syndicate to buy up all the adjoining land.

Mr. Wilson's Condition.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 24.—Congressman Wilson is in a weak condition, but Dr. Underwood reports that no unfavorable conditions have arisen, and that his patient is no worse off than when he arrived here on Thursday.

Fatally Injured by Dynamite.

ROCHESTER, March 24.—John Regolio and Frank C. Carlotto, Italians, and Edward Washine, a Pole, were probably fatally injured by an explosion of dynamite on the East Side sewer yesterday afternoon.

HARTSHORNE, PLAIDS GUILTY.

He Will Go to Jail for Abortion, but Keep-a Murder Charge.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., March 24.—The lovers of the sensational but a feast yesterday in the startling wind-up of the trial of Professor Hartshorne, the ex-school principal, on trial for procuring an abortion on Miss Alda Robertson, one of his pupils, who is now in an insane asylum. The presentation had put up a strong case, and the defense had relied greatly on the testimony to be given by Miss Mollie Jenkins, a sewing woman, who had worked at the Robinson house. But her testimony was a bitter disappointment to Hartshorne and his lawyers. Her testimony contradicted Miss Robertson's in no particular affecting the guilt or innocence in the case.

Hartshorne was a picture of abject hopelessness. He leaned over and plucked the sleeve of one of his attorneys. His lead colored face was drawn with despair and his voice was hoarse and weak. "It's of no use," he said, with an effort to speak intelligently, "it's of no use to try any longer. I might as well give up." Suddenly the counsel for the prosecution began a conference, after which Attorney Anderson presented the following written request to the court: "I, R. C.
Hartshorne, be leave of the court to withdraw my plea of not guilty in the case, and to enter a plea of guilty." This was granted, and then District Attorney Emery stated the evidence in the murder case pending against the defendant would be substantially the same as that in the abortion case just ended. He asked the court to permit a jury to return a verdict of not guilty. A jury was sworn and immediately entered a verdict of not guilty of murder.

This ended the most sensational case ever tried in the Lawrence county courts.
Hartshorne went back to jail to await sentence.

Hood's Is the Grandest Raised from a Weak and Low Condition

To Better Health and Strength After Four Years Suffering.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:"
"Gentlemen—I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the grandest discovery yet made, and it fills even more than you claim for it. My wife has been sick for the past four years. For three years she was so bad that she was unable to do any of her household work. We had good physicians, but she did not recover her health. She was suffering from Bright's disease and Lameness in the Back.

Her tongue was covered with blisters; had no appetite, and was very weak and low with general debility. I insisted on her taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and she has been improving ever since. She has taken five bottles, and is so well
