COMPROMISE AT DARLINGTON

Another Murder Growing Out of Governor Tillman's Dispensary Law.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 5.—Governor Tillman now feels assured that there will be no further trouble as a result of the Darlington dispensary killing. After holding a lengthy conference with a Darlington committee the governor instructed General Richbourg to prepare everything to bring the troops back here tomorrow. The governor has agreed that if the men in Darlington who have caused trouble will stand their trial he will let the civil law take its course all the way through.

Concerning the resolution introduced in congress in regard to his stoppage of telegrams the governor said: "Oh! I don't care to notice every crank who introduces a resolution."

There was a murder at Darlington yesterday growing out of the late disorders. It took place at the Cleveland hotel, where Dr. W. H. Payne, one of the guests, shot and instantly killed Henry Green, second cook of the hotel. The cause of the tragedy, it appears, was that the negro went before General Richbourg, commander-in-chief of the state volunteers, and made affidavit that he had seen Dr. Payne coming out of the dispensary. When Dr. Payne spoke to Green about it hot words were passed on both sides, Green giving Dr. Payne the lie. The pistol was placed at the negro's breast, the shirt being burned by the powder.

More Victims of the Indian War.

EL PASO, O. T., April 5.—Troop B has followed Troop K to the scene of the battle between the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians in the Cheyenne and Arapaho country. The battle, say couriers, still continues. When Troop B reached the scene a hot skirmish was in progress. The soldiers took a hand, and one white man and four braves were added to the list of seven dead. The latest rumor is that the Indians are gathering in large numbers. The possibility of a brief but bloody war is being discussed. It is claimed that if the Cheyennes and Arapahos, who number 300 at this agency, were to go on the warpath they would be joined by the Apaches, Comanches and Kiowas, who number several thousand.

Ashley's Kidnaped Boy.

ASHLEY, Pa., April 5.—Chances seem brighter for finding Eddie Brotherton, who mysteriously disappeared from here about four months ago. After the recent arrest of the Italian organ grinder, Buzz Guss, Fenner and several prominent citizens hired a detective of the Pinkerton force, who became noted here for his work in apprehending "Red Nosed Mike." Every clue has been run out, and the work is said to have had telling results. The letter received after the child's disappearance is supposed to have been a decoy, coming from the kidnapers.

Kansas City's Election Riot.

KANSAS CITY, April 5.—The three men reported as fatally wounded in Tuesday's election riot are still alive, but reasonable hopes of their recovery are not entertained. Pate, the deputy constable who precipitated the riot while trying to arrest one of the Pryor family, said he believed that Mike Callahan, the only one that was killed outright, is the man that shot him. Pate is one of those mortally wounded. Harry Fowler is another who will die, if it is thought nothing short of a miracle can save him.

Prendergast Gets Another Lease of Life.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Assassin Prendergast will certainly not be hanged before July 2, and not until May 21 will the investigation into the condition of his mind be commenced. Such was the order entered by Judge Chelmsford yesterday afternoon. The state asked for four months and the defense asked for two weeks more for preparation. The trial of the case was reckoned to take a month, and consequently the date of May 21 and July 2 were agreed upon.

Changes in the Carnegie Works.

PITTSBURGH, April 5.—A number of changes are to be made among the officials now in charge of the Carnegie Homestead Steel works, but just what they will be and who will be affected in the change cannot be learned until the announcement is made by the heads of the company. The changes are being made with considerable secrecy, and are believed to have been the result of the recent armor plate difficulty which the company had with the government.

To Take the Valkyrie Home.

LONDON, April 5.—Captain Cranfield and a crew of twenty men sailed yesterday from Liverpool for New York on the White Star liner Majestic. Captain Cranfield, it will be recalled, sailed Lord Dunsraven's cutter Valkyrie last year in the races for the America's cup. He and the men with him will bring the Valkyrie home, it having been decided that she will take no part in American racing events during the coming season.

A Dynamite Bomb in Leadville.

LEADVILLE, Colo., April 5.—A dynamite bomb was found yesterday in the court house. It was eight inches long and two and a half inches in diameter. The fuse had broken when it was originally buried, and this alone probably prevented an explosion. The discovery caused intense excitement. The county commissioners immediately offered $1,000 for the arrest of the person who placed the bomb there.

Steel Rail Production Rushing.

PITTSBURGH, April 5.—Business is rushing at the Edgemoor Steel works, at Leadville, more so than at any other time during the year past. The big order recently received for steel rails put all the little workmen back in their places at the mill, and the production is away above the standard. The output is from 1,300 to 1,400 tons every twenty-four hours.

Commander Heyerman's Sentence.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The court martial in the case of Commander O. F. Heyerman, who commanded the Kearsarge when that vessel was wrecked on Ronador reef, finds the commander "guilty, through negligence, of allowing a vessel to be stranded." He was sentenced to be suspended for two years on waiting orders pay.

Misce Held for the Grand Jury.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The coroner's jury in the case of Miss Martha J. Fuller, the typewriter, rendered a verdict that Miss Fuller came to her death by a shot fired from a pistol, but who fired the pistol they were unable to determine. Misce was held to the grand jury.

Killed While Burglarizing.

WABRAW, Ind., April 5.—George Welick, a merchant at Potosi, near this city, shot and instantly killed a man who was trying to get into Welick's store for the purpose of robbery. The burglar is supposed to be a tramp.

COXEY'S COMMONWEALERS

They Are Prevented from Marching Through the Streets of Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, April 5.—Forty men who claimed to belong to Coxe's army were before Magistrate McKelvey yesterday, they having slept in the police stations the night before. A dozen of them, who were evidently worthy unemployed workmen, were released. The others were sent up for thirty days each.

Among the recruits to the army yesterday were twenty Huns and Poles, who said they were starving. Yesterday afternoon the army was formed in line to march to Monongahela wharf, where a large meeting was held. The police authorities, however, counseled them to remain in camp. Last night the Commonwealthers were again prevented from marching out to attend a meeting. Several burglaries on Tuesday night was the cause of this rigid discipline, though they cannot be traced to the army.

Though the army was not present both Coxe and Brown addressed large meetings both afternoon and evening. At the afternoon meeting on Monongahela wharf there were between 15,000 and 20,000 people present.

Late last night thirty-five of Coxe's followers who had disregarded the orders of the police were arrested in Allegheny City for vagrancy.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION AT OIL CITY

A Father and Three Children Killed. Two Others Fatally Injured.

OIL CITY, Pa., April 5.—A terrible explosion occurred last evening by which four persons were instantly killed and two fatally injured. The dead are: Joseph Kaulis, a German laborer, aged 50; Mary Kaulis, aged 6 years; Joe Kaulis, aged 4; Mary Tasmer, aged 7. Mrs. Kaulis and her babe, 6 months old, were seriously hurt and are now lying in a dying condition at the hospital.

Because of the explosion is a mystery. When it occurred Kaulis was on the back porch of his residence, and the children were playing in the yard. His wife and youngest child were inside the house. There was no gas burned in the house, either for fuel or lights. The bodies of all were terribly mangled, and the entire rear portion of the house was blown into kindling wood. The only plausible theory advanced for the disaster is that Kaulis found a glycerine can and had brought it home with him, and it was accidentally exploded. Kaulis was thrifty and industrious, and highly respected.

Maryland's Iron Hall.

BALTIMORE, April 5.—The answer of Charles J. Wiener and Joseph O. Franco, the Maryland receivers of the Order of the Iron Hall, who have about $100,000 in their hands, to the petition of James P. Fahey, of Indianapolis, Ind., to have the funds of the order in Maryland turned over to him, was filed in court here today. It denies that the order of the Indiana court is operative outside of that state, and claims that it should not be respected here; that the money of the order here belongs to Maryland members, and it will be to their benefit to have it distributed under the direction of a Maryland court.

Da Gama Threatened with Yellow Fever.

BUENOS AYRES, April 5.—Yellow fever on board the Mendallo, one of the Portuguese warships which brought to this port from Rio Janeiro Admiral da Gama and other Brazilian insurgents, is increasing in violence, and many of the crew are now prostrated with the disease. It is feared that Admiral da Gama, who has been greatly weakened by his wounds, would fall an easy victim to the disease should he be attacked. A vessel has been dispatched from Portugal to convey the refugees to Portuguese territory.

Passed the New Jersey House.

TRENTON, April 5.—The house last night passed the following bills: Making trout fishing legal between April 1 and July 31; requiring dentists to procure a license under a penalty of $300 fine; abolishing public road boards in Essex and Hudson counties and putting the control of such boards in the board of freeholders; providing that the inspector of factories and his assistants shall have the inspection of mines.

His Memory Returned.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 5.—Yesterday through a shock resulting from a fall Edwin A. Waldo, who has been missing from Chicago since Easter Sunday, regained his right mind. Overwork brought an attack of congestion of the brain, and the sufferer has no recollection whatever of time, place or incident since seeing the interior of St. James' church, Chicago.

The Twelfth Gaylord Mine Victim.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 5.—The body of the twelfth victim in the Gaylord mine, Dan W. Morgan, was discovered late last night. He, like his companions, was caught under the fall and instantly killed. Morgan was a widower, 52 years of age. Only one more body now remains in the mine, that of Thomas Pickett, the foreman.

St. Joseph's church at Lost Creek was the scene of a very interesting wedding on Tuesday, in which Michael H. Cuff, one of our highly respected and popular young men, was the groom. Miss Annie E. Cuff, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and John J. Reilly acted as best man. The bride wore a lovely, well-fitting dress of pearl laces with slippers to match, and a Gainsborough hat. The bridesmaid wore a Henrietta cloth dress of the same color and a hat similar to that of the bride. After the ceremony the party enjoyed a drive over the hills to Pottsville and partook of a wedding dinner, prepared by Mr. Kimmel, proprietor of the Northwestern Hotel. After spending some time in Pottsville the bridal party returned to Lost Creek, where a reception was given them at the home of the bride's parents. John J. Constables Complete.

EDITOR HERALD:—A matter that agitates a portion of our community, and rightfully, too, will be presented to the Borough Council. It is a complaint of the several constables of the borough to the Council that the paid police interfere with their business. Their complaint is just. During the sessions of the criminal court a common occurrence is to see the whole police force in daily attendance, and when the court is not in session an almost daily occurrence is to see two or three of them lie themselves to Pottsville with a prisoner or two. They are paid a fifty-dollar salary by the borough. They make nearer one hundred and fifty dollars each by acting as constables. What protection do we receive when two or three will go outside of the borough to arrest a person for a misdemeanor at between one and three o'clock in the morning. No wonder such places as Mr. Edward Early's should be robbed, almost in the heart of the town, a place as well-lighted and as easily seen as almost in daylight. Bah! let the good citizens make it so hot for Constable as to compel their brothers and neighbors-in-law to do their simple duty. That is, give their undivided time to the borough. It is said they have passes over the railroad. If so, what services do they render the railway companies? The companies do not give away passes for every trifling service.
