Chief Burgess Burns said, "I know it was a shame and disgrace, but I couldn't help R or stop it." Mary Neimand, a maid employed by Dr. Szlupus, testified that she neard the Chief Burgess tell people not to speak in English. She identified Burgess Burns, who stood in line with Polizemen Casey and Dougherty. Mr. Burns denied the statement and said that instead of standing on the op-posite aids of the streat, as the witness iestified, and be spoke to Mrs. Szlupas. The witness was not there. During the examination of Mary Nei-minal W. Kane second very aggressive and in fact supartial that Messas. Gable and Strangin objected to his method of ex-amination. There was a warm exchange between Messas. Kane and Kerns, on one side, and Gable on the other. Inguitus Rice said he averns, on one side, and Gable on the other. An additional report of the investiga-tion will be given to-morrow with a lengthy report of statements mails by J. J. Franey, J. J. Reilly, Rev. Morrison and R. A. Glover.

> There was a great gathering in the louncil chamber, Saturday night, to listen to the investigation by the lamp and watch committee of the charges made against the borough officials by Dr. Szlu pas and the two filthuanian societies pre sented in the petition published a few days ago. The chamber was filled to its full capacity and it was with difficulty that the crowd was prevented from crowd ing upon the desks of the chairman and ecretary.

The members of the committee were Meesrs, Dougherty, Gable, Straughn, Kane and Kerns, the first named gentleman occupying the chair. Upon motion of Mr. Gable, the committee requested W.

J. Watkins, of the HEBALD, to act as secretary and report the proceedings. secretary and report the proceedings. W. J. Whitehouse, Esq., of Postaville, occupied a seat in the rear part of the chamber and remained there until a late norr. He took no part in the proceedings. It is said he was there simply as a listener in behalf of Charles Radikewics and others who contemplate proceeding Dr. Sympas and others in the near future on some very sectors charges. M. M. Burke, Esq., was in attendance as counsel for Chief Burgess Burns, bur did not feel called upon to take part in the proceedings.

M. M. Hurke, Esq., was in alternative as convest for Chief Borgress Burns, but did not feel called upon to take part in the proceedings. The investigation continued four hours and a half and the secretacy took enough testimony to fill every column of the Hurkin and lack of space prevents a de-tailed report. It was fitteen minutes after the mid-night hour when the hast witness was allowed to retire. The committee took no delhit action, but will submit the test-mony to the next meeting of the Borough Council and ask it to decide the case. Upon request of Mr. Kane the obarges were road and then Chief Bargess Burns stapped forward and said that as far as he was concerned he denied the case.
