Superintendent Bancroft does not believe in moving large bodies of men across the country in the face of the opposition of localities having enough unemployed of their own to take care of. Many communities between Og-den and Omaha are already burdened nearly $1,000,000. The others indicted are his son, Schuyler C. The Primrose Army Discharged.

WASHINGTON, April 10.-The forty-one men who arrived in Washington on Faturand who arreight car from Textratana, Ark., and who were looked up for vag-rancy, were arraigned for trial in the po-lice court. After a protracted hearing the men were ordered released by Judge Kimbill, who held that they did not appear to be vagrants, but bona fide workingmen in search of employment. He said he would search of employment. He said he would give them one week in which either to find employment or to isave the city, and if at the end of that time they were still hars they might expect to be dealt with under the law. He gave warning that any actual vagrants coming to the sity would be severely dealt with.
