Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been aroubled with rheumatism in his back, arms, and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cursed. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so had he had to do the sooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Baim and how it had cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by Gruhler Bros.

The following named ladies and gentlemen went to Tamaqua last night to attend a birthday party given Miss Mary Kraus. Mr. and Mrs. John Skeath, Misses Skeath, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Shertzinger, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones, Prof. Jones and Gusta Tismer. The party enjoyed themselves highly and returned to Mahanoy City by an early train this morning.

BA complete freight train of fourteen A complete freight train of fourteen cars, illuminated cabouse and practical working engine, a magnificent scene of Niagara Falls by moonlight, with real mist, as seen from Suspension Bridge, the flight of the Fast Mail which crosses the stage at the rate of seventy miles an hour, and a realistic steamboat race and explosion on the Mississippi, are among the most novel scenes and mechanical effects shown in Lincoln J. Carter's scenic production, "The Fast Mail," which appears at Kaier's opera house next Monday evening, April 16.

production, "The Fast Mail," which appears at Kaier's opera house next Monday evening, April 16.

"This night, twenty nine years ago, was one of great rejoicing in Mahanoy City," remarked an old resident to a HERALD reporter last evening. "The news of Lee's surrender came by telegraph through the Reading station and in ten minutes it was all over the town, and we had about four thousand people hers then, too. Everybody was wild with joy; old men threw up their hats like young boys and went into other most extraordinary manifestations of rejoicing. We got out the old Mahanoy City band and made up a parade in short order. The uniforms were white shirts and black pants, it being warm enough for lightweight clothing. A beautiful young woman, representing the Goddess of Liberty, was placed on the platform of a wagon, drawn by eight grey horses. Behind this came the rank and file, and I believe every mas, woman and child in town was in line, marching through mud a 'darn site' deeper than you see now and there was no kicking, either. Oh, those were the glorious days," and just as the last of the old man's enthusiasm poured out the Citizens' band took up a position under Old Glory at Main and Centre streams of the "Star Spangled Banner" as only the Citizens' band can.

The Sanford combination of comedians, in conjunction with the Twelve High kickers of Jerusalem, were to appear at Kaier's opera house last evening. Sanford didn't appear, nor did the advertised kickers, but there were two hundred other Kickers in the audience who quietly kicked themselves for being taken in so nicely by the wily Sanford. Rather than disappoint his audience, Manager Thomas J. Joyce, of this city, secured Scanlam's World of Noveltles, a Shenandosh company, who gave a very creditable performance.

The show was to have been a benefit to Sanford, a stranded minstrel, who floated into town "books" about ten "care."

He is an excellent performer and gave little entertainments to gatherings of new made friends every evening, and so He is an excellent performer and gave little entertainments to gatherings of new made friends every evening, and so worked himself into their good graces, an' pocket-books in some cases to the extent of a "five." The benefit was arranged and Sanford sold tickets right and left at fifty cents each, Manager Joyce contracting for the opera house, printing and other expenses. Sanford departed on Friday night, but just before doing so went to friend Joyce and told of agreat scheme he had to play a joke on a friend and wanted Mr. Joyce's gold watch to do it. The joke was a good one and both laughed at it together and Sanford took the watch, along with the procesds of his individual sales. Now some people are gullible enough to think the joke is on Mr. Joyce, but if it is so, he don't look at it that way. The door receipts of the entertainment will partially pay for the expense incurred.

The Shemandoah combination was made up of the following named performers: Miss ida Cotter, song; Charles Gesley, the two "Pat" Scanlans and Maurer in songs and dances; John Jenkins, "The Tricky Nig;" Peter Gaughan, the "Lone and Unprotected Female," Lydia Jenkins, songster; Messrs Michael Cadden, James Feeley and Dick Whalen, in an excellent brother act; Patrick Feegan, in a "Bowery Swell," and Messrs M. J. Gibbons and M. A. Durkin, as managers. Mr. James McLlonaid, of New York, rendered some beautiful selections on the violin.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE

Hill Fredhets Democratic Defeat Should the Income Tax Pass. WASHINGTON, April 10.—The proceedings in the senate preterriay from the opening to the closing of the senaton were full of interest. The first in point of time was the swaaring in of Mr. Walsh as a senator from Georgia so serve out the term of the late Senator Colquitt. Two resolutions intended to facilitate debate on the teriff bill were introduced, one by Senator Mills, providing for an amendment to the Mills, providing for an amendment to the rules so as to permit of the provious question, and the other by Senator Allen, providing for the taking of the final vote on the bills. the bill on June 7, allowing three days for debate under the five minute rule. Both went over without action. Senator Harris sought to reach some arrangement for the earlier meeting of the senate and for longer sessions for the consideration of the tariff bill, but his efforts encountered such strenums apposition that nothing was accomplished.

The chief interest of the day centered in Senator Hill's speech. That the question has not lost all its fascination was shown by the large crowds drawn to the senate. The speech was mainly directed agains the income tax, although Mr. IIIII spoke of the "humiliation" of the Hawalian question, which he strifuned to the fact that the head of the state department was a Republican. He opposed a fotoral in-come tax, but had no hijection to state income tax laws. He intimated that the re-tention of the income tax feature in the tariff bill would result in the defeat of that bill, but if defeat met the whole bill the responsibilities must fail on those who favored the income tax. The passage of the income tax, he said, would lose every northern state to the Democrats, and the result would be that not only would they lose the house of representawould they lose the house of representa-tives but the presidency as well.

The house was depopulated yesterday, three-fourths of the members being at the senate listening to Senator Hill's speech on the tariff. Those who remained were occupied with District of Columbia affairs, but little in the way of actual business was transacted.

Italian "Scabe" Driven Off by Strikers. CHESTER, Pa., April 10 .- A train load of Italians was brought here on the Penn-sylvania railroad and put to work on the Chester section, where the former workmen struck some time ago for increased pay. Soon afterward a mob gathered and drove the Italians off, two of them being severely hurt. Later in the day a gang was put to work in the Thurlow yard. A crowd of excited strikers soon gathered, and, urged on by the spectators, threatened to attack the Italians if they did not leave. Chief of Police Boone said he did not have enough police in the South Ches-ter equad to cope with the crowd, and the Italians were ordered to quit work and were conveyed quickly away on a con-struction train.
