WELL DONE, NEW JERSEY. The wintry storm that came down from the Northeast on Tuesday night and Jersey was uncommonly well-timed to was a cold and cheerless night for every unrepentant Democrat in that state, from Wantage to Cape May. Horse, footland dragoons, the legions of Hing and Gang were routed. Their strongholds, hitherto im pregnable, the very citadels in which the chief bosses were intreached, were stormed by the resistless onset of the party of the people. Scarcely since Washington turned at Trenton and sent Howe and Cornwallis and their Hessians in a devil-take-the-hindmost flight from Jersey been the scene of so striking a victory over the public foe. It was in some respects even more notable than the great triumph of last November, of which it was the sequel and the completion, For that was the first engagement, and might have been reckoned the chance result of a temporary spasm of reform.

ever a party stood branded and damned beyond redemption, the Democracy of New Jersey does to-day. For years its life has been a study in corruption, and now, finding itself almost in articulo mortis, it remains as stubbornly Impenitent as ever. Elsewhere, when so tremendously rebuked as they were last fall. Democratic leaders, or some of them, have at least put forth some semblance of repentance and reform, and have talked about new leadership and purification of the party. But we have observed no such symptoms of assumed contrition in New Jersey. To the Democratic party there one might exclaim, as did Becket to De Brito: "Thou was born excommunicate ! I never spied in thee one gleam of grace." To the very last the State House-Racetrack Gang have persisted in their courses of iniquity. They have clung to the wrong, not even in expectation of ultimate gain and victory, but, after their latest hope was gone, in sheer love of evil, They are joined to their idols. Let them

New Jersey, patient and long-suffering, has utterly repudiated them at last. For the third time, strongest of all, her verdict has been rendered. The first time was last fall, when she retired the Demograts from power in the Legislature, and returned the Republicans by the largest majority then on record. The second was last winter, when, by unprecedented expressions of popular opinion, she gave moral support to her chosen servants in their battle for their rights and for the rights of their electors. The third was on Thesiay last when, after seeing and considering and weighing all that had been done, she deliberately, and by even been done, she deliberately, and by even greater majorities than those of last Nocomber, ratified her former decision, approved the work of the Republican Legislature and sealed the condemnaton of the Democratic Ring. And that after all, is he important thing. It is good to have a Republican Mayor in Newark, and a Republican Board of Alderman in Jersey City, and a Republican Common Council in Trenton, and a full Republican governnent in Orange, and a Republican Board of Freeholders-for the first time on re ord-in Warren county. It is good, too, to have this great industrial state add such a mass of cumulative condemnation to the National testimony against the incompetence and lack of patriotism that bear sway at Washington. But best of allfis it for the state itself to have the lawmakers at Trenton thus supported and asdsted and encouraged in their great work of cleansing the whole body politic, from ole to crown. It is a splendid and in spiring spectacle. It means, if the Repub deans continue true to their trust, the pernament redemption of the state. And it must give to every sincere believer in popular government new courage for his work, new faith in Republican institutions, and new confidence in the wisdom and virtues of the people. - N. Y. PROTECTION FORSOOTE

In Buffalo on Sunday 3,000 Poles held s neeting and heard speakers tell them to band together, elect their own people to office and thus gain the rights belonging to every man. Has anybody ever heard of Poles being deprived of any rights in this country ! On the contrary this is the only country on earth where they have any rights. In their native country they dare not call their souls their own, and if they should attempt to hold a meeting in Poland such as they held in Buffalo every mother's son of them would be triced up and bastinadoed, or tied down and knouted. They ought to be glad of the of the privilege of living in a free country.

If the recent actions of many of the Poles and Lithuanians in this town are samples of their countrymen's actions in other parts of the country we think they have no claim whatever for protection, but rather have made themselves liable to swept over the hills and plains of New the strictest surveillance. The people who were engaged in the disgraceful suit with the feeling of Democrats. It riot on the streets of this town but a short time ago, when the corpse of a human was being taken to its last resting place, clearly sounded the warning of the results in case such classes should secure the ruling power of the government. When they will not respect or help sustain the laws of the land as citizens, what can be expected of them as officials?

We repeat that these people are enjoying all the rights of every other citizen and nobody can deprive them of that enjoyment, If there is any complaint it in a devil-take-the-hindmost flight from joyment. If there is any complaint it journ sine die and go home. Mr. Cum-the Delaware to the Hudson has New should come from the people who suffer mings also made a brief speech against the by the manner in which many of the newcomers abuse the rights.

But this came at the conclusion of a long and flerce campaign, repeating that first result with added emphasis, and showing that the people of New Jersey, having set their hand to the plough, are not minded to look back.

And why should they look back! If the look back is the look back is the look back is the look back is the look back.

Mrs. B. Rugg, of Medusa, N. Y., thought there was no permanent care until she used Favorite Remedy, of Medusa, N. Y., thought there was no permanent care until she have been in years. It is the look back is the look back is the look back is the look back is the look back.

This is the time to

TO COUNT A QUORUM.

House Democrats Indorse the Tacties of Ex-Speaker Reed.

ABSENTEES WILL NOT BE PAID.

Congressmen Will Not Hereafter Draw Their Full Salaries While on Stumping Tours in the Interest of Political Parties-Stekness the Only Excuse.

WARRINGTON, April 14,-After a heated sidon of two hours and a half the Dem scratic caucus yesterday afternoon de-cided, by a vote of 80 to 44, to instruct the committee on rules to report a new rule to ascertain and record the presence of a quorum whether voting or not. This is the culmination of the long and bitter struggle that has been on in the Demo-cratic house ever since the end of the Fifty-first congress.

When the committee on rules on Thurs day brought forward the proposition to punish members who declined to answer to their names on roll calls by the imposi-tion of a $10 fine for each offense as the solution of the situation with which the house has been frequently confronted when it was deadlocked by the refusal of the Republicans to respond to their names a great deal of opposition was manifested to it on the part of various Democrats. Some of them did not believe that such a method would prove effective, and in-sisted that the house should go farther than the committee on rules seemed to do and adopt the quorum counting device invented by Mr. Reed in the Fifty-first

Others were not disposed to go even as far as the rule framed on Thursday con-templated. The result was that when the Democrats were without a quorum yester-day it was decided to hold a caucus to discuss and agree upon some plan. Practi-cally all the Democratic members of the house attended the caucus. As soon as it was called to order Mr. Bland presented a resolution directing the sergeant-at-arm to carry out the provision of Section 40 Chapter 2, of the revised statutes, by which deductions from the salaries of the mem bers should be made for every day's ab mence, except on account of sickness. This was in accordance with the action of the judiciary committee earlier in the day. After the members of the judiciary con mittee bad made their explanation th solution was unanimously adopted.

Then followed the fight over the ques tion of determining some method which some members who refuse to answer to their names should be made to participate in legislation. Several propositions were submitted. The resolution which contained the rule reported from the committee on rules yesterday, how ever, was not one of them.

The debate upon various propositions continued for two hours and developed a wide difference of opinion. Speaker Crisp took the floor and made a vigorous speech, pointing out the deplorable position in which the house found itself on account of continued and persistent absenteeism. It left the house at the mercy of the mi-nority whenever at a wink or nod from Mr. Reed the Republicans declined to answer to their names.

Quite a number of speeches were made in opposition to any and all rules looking to the counting of members who refused to vote. During the course of a rather hot tempered speach from Mr. Kilgore on the subject, Mr. Bland shouted, with an ex-pression of disgust, something to the ef-fect that if a Democratic house was forced to resort to Reedism they had better adproposition to count a quorum, at the conclusion of which he sent up to the desk au amendment to the title of any new rule which should be reported for this purpose, so as to make it read, "A rule to nominate Thomas Brackett Reed for president of the United States,"

After all who desired had sufficiently ventilated their views Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, offered a resolution in lieu of those which had previously been offered expressing it as the sense of the caucus that the committee on rules should prepare a new rule for ascertaining the presence of a quorum, and also some method for compelling the attendance of absent members. Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, then moved to refer all the resolutions which had been presented to the commit-tee on rules with instructions to report their judgment at a caucus to be held next day evening. This motion was lost— Mr. De Armond's resolution and it car-ried by a two-thirds majority—80 to 40.

It has been usual to give out any resolution adopted by a party caucus, al-though the proceedings themselves are kept secret, or at least are presumed to be so, but after the adoption of the DeArmond resolution another resolution was prepared, submitted and carried to suppress entirely the proceedings of the cau-cus. It remains now for the committee on ably be withdrawn and superseded by the quorum counting rule to be prepared

St. Jonns, N. F., April 14.—Both houses of the legislature passed an address to the governor declaring that in their opinion the legislature should be dissolved and the legislature should be dissolved and the people given an opportunity to ex-press their opinion on the issues raised by Justice Winter's decision regarding the extent of the authority of the govern-ment in the collection and expenditure of public money, the rights of the executive council, and the functions of depart-mental officers. The address also declares that the retiring congruence possesses that the retiring government possesses the confidence of the electorate, that they were returned without unlawful sids, and should be permitted to take public judgment of their acts.
