The WREN in Business

It is characteristic of the Wren that it will sneak in and occupy the nest made by another bird, in preference to building one of its own. This same trait is often seen in business. It is shown by the imitators of

COTTOLENE

No sooner has the wonderful merit of this new vegetable shortening, so much better than lard created for it a remarkable sale and popularity, than the business wrens are ready to move upon the market with many worthless counterfeits. Any housekeeper can be easily and cheaply convinced of the value of COTTOLENE by simply giving it a trial. They will then be unwilling to go back to lard, or go down to fraudulent imitations.

GREAT COAL STRIKE.

Fully a Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Men Out.

MINERS' OFFICIALS ENTHUSIASTIC.

President McBride Says Twenty-four Thousand Miners in Indiana Are Out—The Strike in Ohio and Western Pennsylvania About Complete.

COLUMBUS, O., April 23.—President John McBride, of the United Mine Workers, is busy comparing press dispatches and newspaper reports of the big strike with information at hand. His revised estimate shows that more men have struck in the competitive district and fewer in the outlying districts than anticipated, but the total number of men out remains about the same as Saturday—125,000.

In Illinois he states there are 24,000 out of 35,000 miners idle; in Indiana, 6,000 out of about 9,000, and in West Virginia about 2,000 out of 9,000. Conventions are to be held in Illinois and West Virginia tomorrow, when efforts will be made to bring all the men into line. President McBride expects definite information by letter from nearly every district today.

From other sources the following figures as to the number of men out in other states is given: Pennsylvania, 84,200; Ohio, 26,000; Tennessee, 3,000; Iowa, 5,000; Colorado, 4,000; Kentucky, 2,000; Indian territory, 2,000; Alabama, 8,000; Missouri, 2,000.

There seems to be no doubt but the suspension in Ohio and western Pennsylvania is about complete. The organizers are most active in West Virginia and Illinois, National Secretary McBryde having gone to the latter place to address meetings. No reports have been received of any disturbances and none are expected, as a friendly feeling seems to prevail.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Here and adjoining regions the miners have all struck. At the headquarters of the Indiana miners in this city no refusals to strike are reported. The officials are enthusiastic and confident of success. The Indiana miners of all classes number 9,000, block coal miners and unorganized miners, 4,000. The block coal operators will work till May 1. At Washington, Ind., all the bituminous miners went out. Only three of the seven mines at Evansville struck. The miners at Booneville, Oakland City and Frisco, which employ the miners by the day, will not be affected by the order. The miners along the Air Line will strike.

NASHVILLE, April 23.—The American's special from Cunningham, Ala., states that 500 miners at Corona, Walker county, struck. The strikers will hold a public parade in Birmingham tomorrow. The free miners at the mines of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Railroad company, in this state, and at the Bonair mines, near Sparta, remained at work.

Another Louisiana Race War.

TALLULAH, La., April 23.—A race war is on in this section of Madison parish. Charles J. MacFarland, the manager of the Dancy place, had a difficulty with a negro tenant named Josh Hopkins, in which MacFarland was badly beaten. A posse started in pursuit of this negro, and MacFarland and a man named Boyce were fired upon from ambush, Boyce being instantly killed. MacFarland escaped. The negroes were located in the woods late Saturday night about a quarter of a mile from the killing, and Sheriff McClellan captured Harris Williams. Just as he got to the edge of the woods Williams made an effort to escape. The deputies fired on him and killed him. Thirteen negroes have been captured and lodged in jail.

Murdered by an Employe.

MOBILE, Ala., April 23.—Victor Ducournau, proprietor of a variety hall and saloon, was stabbed and instantly killed by an employe. The murderer's real name is believed to be A. B. Pickler. Pickler came here about three weeks ago from Dallas, Tex., bringing with him Lavine Chanler, who gave her home as Honey Grove, Tex. He secured employment for her and himself at the new variety hall. Yesterday the murderer attacked her with a knife, cutting her throat from ear to ear. Ducournau went to her assistance, with the above result. The woman is still living. Pickler escaped.

Three Incendiaries Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 23.—At Tuscumbia Saturday midnight Tom Black, John Willis and Tony Johnson, all negroes, were lynched. About a week ago these men were arrested for burning the barns of Claude King. A masked mob of 200 men went to the jail and overpowered the jailor, after which they took the three incendiaries and led them to the Tennessee river bridge, where ropes were placed about their necks and they were compelled to jump off. The fall broke their necks, and the bodies, after being filled with bullets, were left dangling.

A Revengeful Chicken Thief.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 23.—R. Johnson, a negro chicken thief, was expelled from his church by the elders Friday night and ejected from the building by force. He swore he would turn the house over and kill "them niggers," and after trying to pry one of the corner posts out he gave up and went away. At an early hour Saturday morning the church burned down, and Johnson is accused of arson.

Six Cyclone Victims.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., April 23.—Late reports from Summerville, the scene of the recent cyclone, make more serious the report sent out from here. The town itself was not injured very much, but in the country the damage was great. Mrs. Val Keel and three children, her hired girl and hired man named Matsinger were killed. Five dwellings and many other buildings were blown away.

Buzzard's Heavy Sentence.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 23.—Mart Buzzard and Joseph Brownsweiger, convicted of burglary and shooting old Isaiah Sheaffer, of Groffdale, were sentenced Saturday. Buzzard was sentenced to pay a fine of $2,000 and undergo an imprisonment of sixteen years in the Eastern penitentiary. Brownsweiger was fined $550 and sentenced to eleven years in the penitentiary.

Trenton Potters Will Compromise.

TRENTON, April 23.—The long lockout in the potteries, owing to a cut in the piece price wage list, is nearing a settlement on the basis of a day wage system. Conferences are being held between the men and the employers, and two potteries have adopted the new scheme with satisfactory results. Some 5,000 men are concerned in this lockout.

Miss Greene, Morris, N.Y.

DANA'S SARSAPARILLA

THE KIND THAT CURES

Mrs. Rosette L. Greene, of Morris, N.Y., writes: — "My husband used your Sarsaparilla for a bad case of Heart Disease, that had troubled him since he was 17 years of age. It cured him, and he is able to work. My little girl was weak, emaciated, and suffered greatly from Kidney Disease. A persistent use of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA CURED her, and she is WELL and STRONG."

Killed on the Eve of Her Wedding.

WILLIAMSPORT, April 23.—The Williamsport and North Branch railroad experienced its first serious accident Saturday, resulting in the instant death of Miss Miriam P. Welch, only daughter of Superintendent Benjamin G. Welch, and the probably fatal injury of L. P. McClenathan and Mrs. Joel F. Bailey, all of Hughesville, the latter being a sister of Superintendent Welch. The victims composed a pleasure party who were on their way to Halls to meet Superintendent Welch. Near Pennsdale, a village twelve miles east of this city, their train came to a standstill, and before a locomotive that was following to bring the party back could be signaled it crashed into the caboose. Mr. McClenathan and Miss Welch were to be married next Thursday.

The Anarchist Leader Caught.

LONDON, April 23.—Owing to revelations made by Francesco Polti, the anarchist recently arrested in Clerkenwell with a bomb in his possession, the police have arrested an Italian named Guiseppe Ferrara. Polti declared Ferrara occupied the same position among anarchists as that occupied by "No One" among the Fenians. The Press Association states that Ferrara controlled the collection and distribution of funds for the anarchist cause, and directed the manufacture and disposal of shells intended for use in England and abroad. Polti says that Ferrara paid money to him and that he (Polti) was promised by him £1 a week for life if he caused an explosion.

To Succeed Bishop O'Farrell.

TRENTON, April 23.—The diocesan consultors and irremovable pastors of the Trenton diocese met at Archbishop Corrigan's last week to recommend a successor to the late Bishop O'Farrell. It is reported in Catholic circles, although all information was refused at the cathedral, that the priests recommended Rev. B. J. Mulligan, of New Brunswick, as most worthy; Very Rev. Vicar General McFaul as most worthy, and Very Rev. Deal O'Grady, of New Brunswick, as worthy. These names will now be acted upon by the bishops of the New York province, who will send three names to Rome, from which one will be chosen for the vacant bishopric.

Two Killed at a Crossing.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 23.—John Phoenix and Samuel Young were killed Saturday night at the Hanover street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad. They were inside the gates, waiting for a train to pass, when a runaway horse dashed into the gates, knocking them inward. Both men were struck by flying pieces of wood and thrown beneath the car wheels, being so terribly mangled that they died soon after. Phoenix leaves a widow and two children and Young a widow and four children.

General Slocum's Will.

BROOKLYN, April 23.—The will of the late General Henry W. Slocum has been filed for probate in the surrogate's court. There was no schedule of the amount of property, but it is estimated that he left upwards of $1,000,000. He makes some charitable bequests, and first directs the payment of $5,033 to the Childrens' Aid society and $5,000 to the Brooklyn Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. His swords, private letters and papers are bequeathed to his son, Henry W. Slocum, Jr.

A Fleeing Bank Thief Killed.

LITTLE ROCK, April 23.—A Gazette special from Conway says: George Thomas (colored) attempted to rob the bank, was pursued by a posse, resisted arrest and was killed by J. R. Brewer, deputy sheriff. Dr. J. B. Bashaw was making a deposit when the negro came up and reached for the money. Assistant Cashier Louis Hoyle discovered the attempt, and secured the money and drew his pistol. The negro ran and in the pursuit was killed.

Saved by His Dog.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 23.—An 8-year-old boy, while playing with his dog on the towpath, fell into the water, which at this point is six or eight feet deep. He would have drowned had not the dog jumped in after him. The dog grasped him by the hair on his back, and was dragged to the shore.

Burned to Death in Her Home.

NASHVILLE, April 23.—In Macon county the residence of Z. Keene was totally destroyed by fire. One daughter perished in the flames and the father, mother, son and another daughter were badly burned.

Congressman Simpson's Illness.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Representative Jerry Simpson's illness took an unfavorable turn last evening, his condition being complicated by the return of an old kidney trouble.

The Weather.

Fair; northwesterly winds; slightly cooler in the interior.

Bold Marauders at Gaulster, Pa.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., April 23.—Four masked men stole a handcar from a section house on the Pennsylvania railroad at this point and went to Gaulster, a small town ten miles distant, Saturday night. There they broke into the postoffice, gagged Postmaster Daniel Donnelly, and forced him to open the safe at the point of a revolver. After pilfering the safe they tied Donnelly to a bedpost, robbed the express office, Howard Russ' general store, and one or two private residences, securing money orders, checks, notes and other articles of value to a considerable amount. Then they remounted the handcar and returned to this city, where all trace of them was lost.

Decision Against Northwestern Strikers.

ST. PAUL, April 23.—By a decision of Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., acting attorney general of the United States, strikers cannot detach passenger trains from a mail car without liability to punishment for interference with the mails. The effect of this opinion has had a noticeable effect on the strike leaders in this city and along the line of the road, which effect is further apparent in the fact that the road is now clear from this city to Minot, and trains on the Minnesota and Dakota divisions are being run as usual today. It is believed that the strike is practically over now, so far as those two states are concerned.

Destitution in Colorado.

DENVER, April 23.—The committee appointed by the county commissioners to investigate the reports of suffering among the poor settlers in the eastern part of the state have returned. By reason of the utter failure of last year's crops the ranchers have suffered greatly during the winter because of their inability to secure fuel and other necessaries. A majority of these people are Danes and Russians, and have gone through the winter using Buffalo chips for fuel and with almost nothing to eat.

Death from Hydrophobia.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 23.—Two years ago Fred Hamm, a well known young man of Curo, was bitten by a rabid dog. The wound healed nicely, and had been almost forgotten until a few days ago, when he began to show symptoms of hydrophobia. He grew worse rapidly, and was soon raving and snapping at those around him. He died yesterday.

Eloped with the Handsome Preacher.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 23.—Edwin C. Witherell, rector of the Episcopal church at Stillwater, has eloped with Mrs. Anna Stevens. He leaves penniless his wife and babe, who are now at the home of Bishop Brooke, in this city. Mrs. Stevens deserts a kind husband. It is thought that she went to Kansas City. Witherell is about 27 years old, and handsome.

Row Among Railroad Stockholders.

TOLEDO, O., April 23.—The second day's session of the shareholders of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad was characterized by disgraceful brawls, which finally ended in a personal conflict, after which the Lackawanna faction left the room, elected their board of directors, while the Astor interests adjourned their meeting.

Italian Street Cleaners on Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Three thousand Italian street cleaners went on strike at midnight. The trouble arises from a demand for an increase of wages. The men have been working ten hours a day at the rate of ten cents per hour, and they demand the same hours for work and fifteen cents an hour pay.

GREEK EARTHQUAKES.

The Seismic Disturbances Cause Terrible Loss of Life.

MANY KILLED WHILE AT WORSHIP.

Reports So Far Received Show That Two Hundred and Fifty-eight Dead Bodies Have Been Taken from the Ruins, Which Will be Greatly Increased.

ATHENS, April 23. — The earthquake shocks that began in northern Greece at about 7:30 o'clock Friday night continued with more or less frequency until noon yesterday. All Saturday night the oscillation of the earth was noticeable, and the people of this city were in a state of semi-panic. Thousands of persons spent the whole night in the streets, dreading that should they enter their houses a more severe shock might bring the buildings down upon them. Telegraphic communication with many parts of the country is badly interrupted, and it is impossible to get news from some of the towns that must have been affected by the shocks. All the dispatches from the provinces add to the number of killed and injured, and the accounts of the damage to property are enlarged. In the villages of Malesina, Proskina and Martino, all in the province of Locris, 139 persons were killed.

The mayor of Larymni telegraphed that a heavy shock occurred at Proskina while vesper service was being held in the parish church, which was quite an old, but very substantial edifice. The walls of the church fell, burying all the worshipers in the ruins. The residents of the village were terror stricken at the violence of the seismic disturbance, and some little time elapsed before they recovered enough presence of mind to attempt to remove those covered with the debris of the church. Finally, however, a force was organized and the work of rescue begun. Hardly a person in the church escaped without injury. Thirty were taken out dead, amid the wailing and sobbing of their friends and relatives. Houses were thrown down in other parts of the village, and the money lost is great.

At Malesina houses tottered and fell as though built of card board. Hundreds of their occupants were caught before they had time to do more than attempt to escape. In this little village sixty persons were killed, some of the bodies being crushed out of all semblance of humanity. In some cases entire families were taken out of the ruins dead.

At Martino thirty-nine persons were killed. Here, as at Proskina, the parish church was the scene of the greatest number of fatalities, the walls of the structure being thrown from their foundations and toppled upon the worshipers. The others who lost their lives were killed by falling walls of houses.

It would be almost impossible to describe the scene in these villages. The people appear to be stunned by the severity of the blow that has fallen upon them, and many of them are completely apathetic. Others who have lost loved ones are nearly crazed with grief, and many heartrending scenes have been witnessed as the dead were removed from the masses of wreckage.

In the vicinity of Athens the fatalities were less numerous, but the damage to property is immense.

The Church of St. Elias, on Castella Hill, between the Piraeus and Phalerum, has been racked beyond repair, and is tottering to its fall. The domes, walls and mosaics of the famous Eyzantine church of Daphne are very seriously injured.

The reports that have thus far been received show that very many of the deaths occurred in the churches. Last week was Passion week in the Greek church, and religious services were held every day and evening. The services were very largely attended, and several churches falling in a measure accounts for the large loss of life. A majority of the victims were women and children.

The government will be compelled to adopt extreme measures to help the poor in the districts affected. King George left last night for the scene of the fatalities.

TO RETURN TO HER HUSBAND

Prince and Princess Colonna Said to Have Settled Their Differences.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Princess Evelyne Gallatro Di Colonna, whose flight to the United States with her three children in February last, after an unsuccessful effort to obtain a separation from her husband in the French courts, attracted the attention of two continents, is booked to sail for Europe in June. She will be accompanied by her half brother, John W. Mackey, Jr., and it is possible that Mr. John W. Mackey, the bonanza king, will be one of the party.

Princess Colonna has reached an amicable understanding with her husband, and their domestic difficulties bid fair to be settled to their mutual satisfaction. Prince Colonna made the first advances through mutual friends, and appeared from all accounts to be thoroughly contrite. Mr. Mackey convinced himself of Colonna's sincerity, and then set about to reconcile the other members of his family.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS COLONNA.

John W. Mackay, Jr., it is said, opposed the reunion, and Princess Colonna herself was not at first disposed to listen to her husband's plea for forgiveness. The advice of her stepfather, however, at last prevailed, and for the sake of her three children has consented to resume the conjugal relationship with her husband.

Defaulter Lohmann Arrested in Canada.

BROOKLYN, April 23.—Inspector MacKellar, of the Brooklyn police, received a telegram from the police authorities of Toronto, Canada, to the effect that William D. Lohmann, the former cashier of the Brooklyn excise department, who has been missing since Jan. 27 last, had been arrested in that city. The inspector immediately telegraphed back to hold Lohmann, and that officers would be at once sent on to bring him back to this city. Lohmann left home to attend a convention of German singing societies in Philadelphia. He failed to return, and an examination of the accounts of the excise department showed that he was a defaulter to the extent of $19,400.

HE COMMITTED SUICIDE!

The Cause and Its Lesson.

Why did he commit suicide? Oh! for the same reason that thousands of others are on the verge of the same sin, or in immediate danger of insanity, paralysis, idiocy, or some other equally unfortunate result of any nervous affection. He knew he was afflicted with a nervous disorder, but was careless, apparently indifferent to the outcome; or he may have lessened his chances for recovery by treating with physicians who had little or no knowledge of such affections, or by deluging himself with worthless so-called remedies. His case was a sad one, but no worse than that of any other nervous sufferer, who has nervous or sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, irritability, melancholy, failing memory, hot flashes, fainting, sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, sexual debility, epilepsy, etc. The same or similar consequences are likely to result to any one who has any of these advance symptoms of an awful end. Do not hesitate in getting rid of them by intelligent treatment. Dr. Franklin Miles, the celebrated specialist, has studied nervous diseases over 20 years, and has discovered the only reliable remedy for them. Thousands of voluntary testimonials prove the virtues of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

Alonzo Barker, of Clinton, N. Y., writes: "I was so afflicted with extreme nervousness that I was on the verge of insanity. My hands trembled so that I could scarcely feed myself. I used twelve bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. It is with pleasure I recommend this wonderful remedy for nervous troubles."

"I had been a great sufferer from chronic headache until I began, about four months ago, to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Pills, since which time I have not had a headache. Several of my friends are using Dr. Miles' Remedies, and find them, as I did, to be more than you claim for them."—Mrs. Mary Rister, Los Angeles, Cal.

W. H. Caswell, editor Tribune, Plymouth, Pa., writes: "My wife was cured of sick headache of many years' standing by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She has recommended it to her friends, and they all praise it highly."

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs. Dr. Miles' Pills, 50 doses, 25 cents. Free book at druggists, or by mail.
