THE PHILADOR ASSEMBLY. A Fashionable Ball at Mahanoy City Last

Evening. MAHANOV CITY, April 35 .- A brilliant offair was that of the Philador club in Armory hall last evening. The number invitations had been limited so the embiage was not too great for pleasure An attractive feature of the occasion was the beautiful decorations of the hall. As the guests passed in under the rich Turkish curtain at the doorway their eyes were greeted by the brilliancy of olors about the ceiling. From corner to corner across the big hall hung streamers of red, white and blue and rich orange and black, while festoons of gay colors were tastefully draped about the walls. The music stand facing the doorway was hidden by bunting and the gallery was decorated with streamers of the national colors.

the walls. The music stand facing the doorway was hidden by bunting and the gallery was decorated with streamers of the national colors.

In the left corner and next the orches traisfand was a coay corner—a nice place where you might sit in a soft cushioned rocking chair, your feet buried in the depth of a rich fur carpet, while you held a tete-a-tete with a pretty partner or watched fashion's pretty butserlies as theriflitted across the ball room.

At nine o'clock a cab roiled up to the door and the first delegation stepped upon the scene, fashionably attired, their faces bright and cager in anticipation of a delightful evening. From that hour the invited began to drift in until the number searched eighty couples.

At 0.00 Junes orchestra opened the ball with a walty and from that hour on the couples corecined in the mad whirl of happy excitement.
