Resolutions of Condolence. The following resolutions were adopted at a regular meeting of the Grant Band:

WHEREAS, it was the decree of our good Father to leave us in this world of sin and mystery; Providence to remove from our midst and from the field of his earthly labors our dear and beloved friend and fellow member, the late Fred J. Hafner; and

WHEREAS, as a token commemorative of the services in which the deceased was held amongst us, we the surviving members of the Grant Band, endeavor, however faintly, to express our estimate of his character and worth and our feelings at the loss to his family and friends by his untimely taking away; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his humble submission to the decree of our Divine Maker, we tender our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved widow and family of the deceased, and commend his soul to the kindly consideration of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That in his demise the community has lost one of its best citizens and one of its most earnest workers, whose zeal in all undertakings for their betterment and whose work was unflinching during his long membership of three years; whose honesty of purpose never wavered and whose integrity in every office of trust was always above reproach.

Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased our charter be draped for a period of thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered as a part of the records of the Grant Band and a copy of same presented to the widow and published in the EVENING HERALD and Sunday News.

IT IS TIME TO GET WELL. All Nature Takes a New Start--New Sap Runs in the Trees and New Blood Courses Through the Veins--In Spring Take Paine's Celery Compound, the One Remedy That Cures.

Everything is upward striving. 'Tis as easy now for the heart to be true As for fields to be green or skies to be blue. 'Tis the proper way of living. All animate nature feels the touch of spring. Nature has her great spring cleaning days. The birds get new plumage, the fish put on their fresh, glistening, scaly armor, new streams of fresh water start from the ground; there are new buds and livelier sap, and in the human body the heart throbs with fuller, stronger beats. It is a season of great changes. At no time during the year is the body so inclined to get rid of old, diseased conditions, chronic sickness, and depressed disorders of the vital organs. It is for these reasons that Paine's Celery Compound, the most famous nerve regulator and blood purifier in the world, has acquired the name of the great spring medicine. There is not a single village in the country large enough to boast its regular physician or drug store where Paine's Celery Compound is not being more largely used this month than any other remedy. It is known wherever progress and enlightenment have pushed the railroad or the newspaper. Paine's Celery Compound is the very utmost the medical research of to-day can do for the exhausted, badly-nourished nerves and thin impure blood. It goes straight to the causes of the mischief in the many forms of disease resulting from nervous debility and insufficient or vitiated blood. A thousand painful symptoms arise from these two prime causes. Correct the nerves and blood with Paine's Celery Compound and the entire system must get well; diseases of particular parts disappear, and strength and health by day and sound invigorating sleep by night, return by an unflinching natural process. Paine's Celery Compound drives out diseases of the liver, heart, and kidneys--by sending pure, sufficient blood, loaded with reconstructive material, through these vital organs, instead of a watery, impure fluid that can neither nourish nor invigorate. Dyspepsia, neuralgia, rheumatism, heart disease, general nervous debility, and loss of strength cannot remain when the nerves and blood receive their daily reinforcement of rich, abundant nourishment from Paine's Celery Compound. Most diseases are signs of poverty, either of blood or nerves. Paine's Celery Compound makes people well because it feeds starved nerves and blood and regulates their functions. Try it and be convinced, as are thousands of men and women and children everywhere.
