HEADQUARTERS
 REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE,
 Philadelphia, Feb. 24, '94.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania:
 I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, May 31, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the following purpose, to wit:

For the nomination of candidates respectively for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, two members of Congress from the State at large, Auditor-General, Secretary of Internal Affairs, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

Attention is called to the rule adopted at the State Convention of 1893 providing for the basis of representation as follows: Representatives in future state conventions shall be based upon the vote cast at the Presidential or gubernatorial election immediately preceding, one delegate being allotted to each legislative district for every 2,000 Republican votes, and an additional delegate for a fraction exceeding 1,000 votes, each district to have at least one delegate.

By order of the Republican State Com. H. F. GILBERT, Chairman.
 Attest: J. H. RYAN, Secretary.
 A. D. FILLMORE, Secretary.

The representatives to which each district of the county is entitled to is as follows: First district, 1; Second district, 1; Third district, 1; Fourth district, 3.

PUT UP THE BARS.

The people of this country are entirely too slow in awakening to the fact that the country is not big enough to divide with the whole world, and to give to every man who asks it, a foothold even. There was a time when it seemed, to the short-sighted politicians of the party which controlled the foreign vote, that no limit ought to be placed on immigration; but the experience of later years has taught a different lesson. The former peaceful condition of society has been radically changed. Once there was, even in the large cities of the country, a fear of the bower, if not a respect for the authority of the law, and class riots were a thing unknown. The change wrought in a few years is frightful, and causes thoughtful men, whether in public or private life, to look with great concern for its results in future. The moderately educated people who come here from some of the European countries, understand the principles of our political system, and know that there can be no such a thing as despotism here; and so they become citizens, and take part with the rest of us, the same as if they had been born among us. Not so, however, with the lower classes. That the admission of these people ought to be stopped is not a matter of doubt. Everybody concedes it, but while everybody is talking nobody is doing anything, except in a trifling way. Party platforms nearly all agree that these people should be denied admission; but they still come, and riot and bloodshed are occurring wherever they congregate. Wrongs are seldom righted till they become unnumbered. The pauper immigration is pretty nearly to the proper condition to cause a reverse of system in dealing with it. If Mr. Cleveland's Congress would take a few days' vacation from the Wilson bill for the encouragement of pauperism, and do something to stop the influx of foreign beggars, the country would feel that a Congress is sometimes of some use.

REPRESENTATIVE JOHN J. COYLE is the only candidate for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirtieth District, composed of a part of Schuylkill county. It has always heretofore been a Democratic district. Four years ago, Senator Monaghan, Democrat, was elected by a majority of 147. The Democrats now, however, appear to be fighting rather shy of it, and while half a dozen have been talked of as possible candidates, not one has formally announced himself. The district at the last February election managed to show up with a slight Democratic majority, but the right kind of contest will make it Republican next November without doubt.—Phila. Press.

Alabama Mine Strikers Defeated.
 BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 3.—The mine situation remains practically unchanged. The force of negroes put to work at Blue Creek has been increased, and the strike at that point is about broken. At other places the mines are idle, except that at a few mines small forces are working. The strikers, though threatened with starvation, are firm. Many of them are leaving for other states.

Dropped Dead at the Wheel.
 GREENSBORO, N. Y., May 3.—Just as the steamer Montauk was making her dock here last night, William Henry Winters, the pilot, who was at the wheel, dropped dead from heart disease. The steamer continued on her course and dashed her bow into the pier. There was great confusion at the time, but little damage was done.

Dr. Herz Will Escape Prosecution.
 PARIS, May 3.—The court has confirmed an arrangement by which the executors of Baron de Reimach will pay 1,500,000 francs to Dr. Cornelius Herz, 1,500,000 francs to the liquidators of the Panama Canal company. The adoption of this arrangement will put a stop to the extradition proceedings against Dr. Herz, who is in England.

To Appeal to the Queen.
 MONTREAL, May 3.—Many members of the Canadian parliament from this province, who are believed to speak with authority, say that the course which the French Roman Catholic bishops of the dominion have decided on concerning the Manitoba school question is to carry a petition to Queen Victoria.

THE SMALLEST IS THE BEST.
 There are a dozen well-known liver pills, but only one so effective that it can be guaranteed to give satisfaction, or the money be refunded. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are smaller, but better than the huge, old-fashioned pills, the medicinal agents are refined and concentrated. Every one suffers, at some time or another, from Constipation, Biliousness, Headache, Yellowing of the face, and other troubles, if you take these small Pellets they are easy to take, and do not upset the system. They are easy to carry, because they are put up in little glass vials. They're the cheapest, because guaranteed to give satisfaction. Remember that Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are pleasant to take, pleasant in action, perfect in effect. Keep this in mind and you solve the problem of good health and good living.

COXEY TO STAND TRIAL

The Commonwealth Leader Arrested on a Warrant, PROMPTLY ADMITTED TO BAIL.

He and His Lieutenants to be Brought Up on Friday—Kelley Denounces Coxey and Brown—The New England Industrialists, A Regiment Forming at Cincinnati.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—When Commonwealth leader Coxey went to the police court yesterday to testify at the trial of Brown and Jones for disturbing the peace on Tuesday he was at once placed under arrest on a warrant sworn out Tuesday night. Later in the day Coxey and Jones were let out on bail, Frank Hume, a well known wholesale grocer doing business in this city but living in Alexandria county, Va., going on their bonds. The trial of Brown, Coxey and Jones was postponed until Friday.

The three men have a considerable array of Populist lawyers to defend them, their counsel including Representatives Ponce of Colorado, Baker of Kansas, Kern of Nebraska, Bon of Minnesota, and Adjutant General Tarsney of Colorado, a brother of Representative Tarsney of Missouri.

Several members of Coxey's army walked through the White House grounds yesterday. Two of them expressed a desire to enter the building, but they were induced to abandon their plan by a couple of detectives in citizen's dress. There was no disturbance of any kind, and the president held his usual afternoon reception without incident.

Affairs at the camp of the Army of the Commonwealth are in a very quiet state. There have been no disorders or demonstrations of any kind requiring the large force of regular and special policemen who are stationed at and in the vicinity of the camp. The Commonwealthers have apparently settled themselves down to a temporary period of comparative inactivity. The camp grounds have been a dumping place for refuse, and trash is scattered indiscriminately about the grounds. Some attempt is being made to improve the appearance of the place, and many of the members of the army were engaged in piling up bricks and otherwise putting things in ship shape.

A large crowd gathered at the camping ground last evening to listen to J. S. Coxey on the nation's finances. Mr. Coxey intends to continue to speak each evening until his bills are passed. The camp had been thoroughly cleaned during the day, and a large portion of the ground was covered with clean straw. A large tent has been loaned for the use of the men, and it will add materially to the comfort of the Coxeyites.

Another Thieving Banker Arrested.
 NEW YORK, May 3.—E. M. Fulton, Jr., another partner of the late firm of La Montague, Clark & Co., was arrested and held in $10,000 bail. His wife went to his security. Other arrests are expected.

Big Incendiary Fire at York, Pa.
 YORK, Pa., May 3.—The extensive works of the York Safe and Lock company at this place was totally destroyed last night by a fire, which it is believed was of incendiary origin. The loss will be at least $50,000, part of which is covered by insurance. About 150 men will be thrown out of employment.

Fatally Injured by an Elevator.
 NEW YORK, May 3.—In the postoffice building one of the antiquated elevators caused a horrible and fatal accident. Mrs. Gillespie, a scrub woman, who supported her five fatherless children by washing the casements, was about to step on the elevator when some one started it and her head was caught and crushed against the wall. The poor woman's eyes were forced out of the sockets.

Fatally Burned by an Exploding Lamp.
 ORANGE, N. J., May 3.—At midnight a lamp filled with kerosene exploded in the store of Henry Decker, a tenant, at 290 Center street. Miss Susie Decker was enveloped in the flames and was probably fatally burned. Her mother and sister were badly burned in attempting to save her.
