TARIFF COMPROMISE.

Claims of Senators Who Favor Speedy Passage.

MR. HILL'S VOTE UNNECESSARY.

The Men Who Are Engineering the Compromise Claim Forty-three Votes Without That of the New York Senator—Will Pass Before June 1.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—While the reports early in the day indicated that there might be some difficulty in agreeing upon a tariff bill, the conference which was held by the leaders on the Democratic side of the senate yesterday afternoon seem to have been in the interest of harmony, and what lack of confidence there was among those who hoped to secure a compromise disappeared.

The senators who are engineering the compromise are counting on forty-three Democratic votes, and they believe they will be able to control that number beyond doubt. This indicates that they hope to pass the bill even with the opposition of Mr. Hill, and it certainly indicates that the bill has probably been made satisfactory in other respects to Senators Murphy of New York and Smith of New Jersey.

Senator Brice, who is more outspoken than any of those who participated in the conference, said: "In an interview a few days ago I said that a tariff bill had been agreed upon and would pass, and I now reiterate that statement. I will not say anything as to details, but a bill has been agreed upon. The statement I made at that time that the Democratic leaders had agreed and would pass a bill was a great help in carrying the Third Ohio district by the Democrats, and I now assert that what I then said was true, and that a tariff bill will pass."

Senator Brice was asked if there was any doubt about any Democratic senators not voting for the bill, and he replied that he could not say how senators would vote.

The Republicans assert that they know positively of some of the changes made, and claim that the bill will be materially altered. The fact that when Senator Squire had finished his speech yesterday no effort was made to further press the consideration of the tariff bill, and that other bills were considered and an executive session held without opposition by the Democratic leaders is taken to mean that the compromise is about completed, and that it may be ready to report in a short time.

The assertion is made on good authority that by unanimous consent a day would be fixed for a final vote upon the bill. A leading Democratic senator, while not committing himself as to the day, predicted that the bill would be disposed of before the 1st of June.

Four of the women were so seriously burned as to require the attendance of an ambulance surgeon. The building was completely gutted. One corpse was carried out so badly burned that identification was impossible. It is supposed that it was Leopold Schoneau. Further search disclosed the body of a woman. It also was burned so that it could not be identified. A Mrs. Floorman who worked in the building is missing.

THE RIOTS CONTINUE.

Cleveland Police Fight a Mob of Two Thousand Rioters. WORKING MILL MEN ATTACKED. They Are Driven from Their Factories by Howling Mobs, Which Are Finally Put to Flight by the Police—Many of the Gang Severely Clubbed.

CLEVELAND, O., May 3.—The disorders which began Tuesday with the May Day demonstration of the unemployed culminated yesterday in open riots. There were three separate and bloody conflicts between the police and the rioters, and today the police are under arms ready to respond to call in case of an emergency. The riot is believed to be over, however.

The trouble began in the forenoon when a mob of about 2,000 started to raid the factories on the flats and drive from work the men employed therein. The first attack was made at the Variety iron works. The windows of the factory were smashed with stones and bricks, and the workmen fled in a panic. A force of seventy-five policemen was then called in. The rioters proceeded to the Upon bolt works, where 1,500 men were induced to quit work because the officers arrived. When the police came upon the scene the men made a stand and hurled bricks and stones at the officers. Orders were given to charge them with clubs. The rioters ran like sheep at the first assault, but their leaders attempted rallying them upon the Abbey street viaduct.

Squads of police coming up at both ends of the bridge penned in the crowd, and they were forced to fight their way out. They made a rush for the officers, but at least a score were clubbed unmercifully before they finally succeeded in getting away. During this conflict two anarchists were arrested after a terrible struggle on their part. One of them, Thomas Moore, an old man, was clubbed into submission and taken to the station in a patrol wagon, cursing the police and declaring that this was the happiest day of his life. The firmness of the police had a good effect, for it resulted in scattering the rioters in all directions.

In the south end of the city, at the same time, a mob of 300 men drove the workmen away from the United States Rail works and were about to make a raid on the Cleveland rolling mills. They were met by Police Director Herbert and a squad of ten policemen, who clubbed them until they were glad to run. At least thirty men were injured in this melee, but the mob was dispersed.

Mayor Blee issued a proclamation commanding people to not assemble on the streets, and at the same time he called upon the Cleveland Grays, the Gatling gun battery and the resident companies of the Ohio National Guard to assemble in their armories and await his call. There was a ready response to the call, and at least 500 men are under arms awaiting any emergency that may arise.

HE COMMITTED SUICIDE!

The Cause and Its Lesson. Why did he commit suicide? Oh! for the same reason that thousands of others are on the verge of the same pit, of paralysis, idiocy, or some other equally unfortunate result of any nervous affection. He knew he was afflicted with a nervous disorder, but was careless, apparently indifferent to the outcome; or he may have lessened his chances for recovery by treating with physicians who had little or no knowledge of such affections, or by deluging himself with worthless so-called remedies. His case was a sad one, but no worse than that of any other nervous sufferer, who has nervous or sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, irritability, melancholy, falling memory, hot flashes, fainting, sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, sexual debility, epilepsy, etc. The same or similar consequences are likely to result to any one who has any of these advance symptoms of an awful end. Do not hesitate in getting rid of them by intelligent treatment. Dr. Franklin Miles, the celebrated specialist, has studied nervous diseases over 20 years, and has discovered the only reliable remedy for them. Thousands of voluntary testimonials prove the virtues of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve.

Albino Barker, of Clinton, N. Y., writes: "I was an afflicted man with extreme nervousness that I was on the verge of insanity. My head ached so that I could scarcely feed myself. I used twelve bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and was cured. I wish to recommend this wonderful remedy for nervous troubles.
