FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1894.

HEADQUARTERS
 REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, Philadelphia, Feb. 24, '94.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania: I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, May 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the following purpose, to wit: For the nomination of candidates respectively for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, two members of Congress from the state at large, Auditor General, Secretary of Internal Affairs, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

Attention is called to the rule adopted at the State Convention of 1893 providing for the basis of representation as follows: Representatives in future state conventions shall be based upon the vote cast at the Presidential or gubernatorial election immediately preceding, one delegate being allotted to each legislative district for over 2,000 Republican votes and an additional delegate for a fraction exceeding 1,000 votes, each district to have at least one delegate.

By order of the Republican State Com.
 B. F. GILKESON, Chairman.
 Attest: J. E. R. REX,
 A. D. FILLMORE, Secretary.

The representatives to which each district of the county is entitled to is as follows:

First district, 1; Second district, 1; Third district, 1; Fourth district, 3.

IT IS PITIFUL.

The scene in the grounds of the capitol at Washington, on Tuesday, says the Pittsburg Times, was absurd, humorous, sensational, according to the point of view, but above all pitiful. Delusion always is, no matter what form it takes, because sincerity is invariably a part of it. There is not the slightest reason to doubt that Coxe really believed all that he has said of his crazy mission, or to doubt that he finally impressed his conviction on many of the harmless vagabonds who followed him on that weary march over the mountains. Carried away himself, he carried them away with his dream of what both would do toward restoring peace and plenty in a suffering and distracted land. Pitiful! Nothing could be more so.

Think of it! In the shadow of that stately pile, splendid in its simplicity, in its air of power and repose, from which have gone forth laws that marked eras in history, and which commemorate illustrious statesmen and patriots, a gaping mob gathers to listen to the harangues of a crank and a vagrant artist, who had set themselves up as saviors, who had come with redemption in their hands for distressed millions, whose representatives were assembled within those white walls.
 Crank and vagrant to rescue a people from the misery of idleness, want, demoralization, to do what the majority within those walls have proved themselves incapable of doing. Could anything be more pitiful?

The crank was driven off, the vagrant artist locked in a cell, the helpless hobos marched down the hill after having been marched up, but the tremendous meaning they conveyed could be neither driven off nor locked up. Whatever their folly, crank and vagrant and hobo remain to represent the misery of idleness, want, demoralization, which has come through a policy of which even the lunatics were sure they could better. For a proud and powerful nation to come to such a pass, is it not pitiful? And the more is the pity that they who have been entrusted with the nation's welfare have been offering succor for this misery which are as insensate as those proposed by the crank and the vagrant and the hobo.

HOW WELL the Pennsylvania railroad is managed was made apparent on Tuesday by the declaration of a semi-annual dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. in cash. In times of great prosperity this declaration was to be looked for, but in times like these, when the great depression in business has in some respects more of a disastrous effect on railroads than on any other property, it is a duty to point with pride to the successful management of the great Pennsylvania corporation and to congratulate its officials on the splendid showing on its books.

JACK ROBINSON still fights on, undiminished by the announcement in the Philadelphia Press that he is beaten. When Jack goes into a fight he stays in to the end, and no amount of editorial opposition can turn him back. He has injected into his canvas a breezy interest that is in delightful contrast to the prevailing apathy concerning the remainder of the ticket. Without Jack's personality things political would be very dull, indeed, and whether he wins or loses, he will still retain the hearty good wishes of every Republican who loves an open, manly fight for preferment by a man who stands squarely upon his feet and asks no favors from political grand lamas.—Wilkes Fatally Hurt by a Runaway Car.

 WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 4.—As a number of employes of the Henry colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company were walking through the gateway a runaway car struck them. Three men were fatally injured. Anthony Duff, an expert miner and a township school director, had four ribs broken, and sustained internal injuries. The doctors say he cannot live.
 The other injured man is a Poleander named Nolasaki. Two other men escaped with slight bruises.

Wandered Away and Died.
 CUMBERLAND, Md., May 4.—Searchers yesterday found on the mountains the dead body of Julian Sibley, a well known carpenter of this city, who wandered from his home on last Sunday morning while suffering from temporary aberration of mind. It is generally thought he died from exposure. Mr. Sibley was hurt some time ago in the mills of the Cumberland Building company, from the effects of which injury insanity followed.

Carpet Weavers on Strike.
 LOWELL, Mass., May 4.—Five hundred engrain carpet weavers and thirty woolen millspinners, employed by the Lowell company, struck and walked out of the mill. Agent Lyon had not reported to them in answer to their demands for more wages or more work. The Jack spinners may come out, and if they do it will stop the Brussels department.

Passed Over Governor Veris' Veto.
 TRENTON, May 4.—The house passed over the governor's veto the three bills which legislate out of his position Bernard J. Ford, superintendent of the state house.
 The bill legislating out of office most of the officials of Camden, Paterson and Trenton was also passed. Carroll's two cent ferrage bill was defeated by the house.

Assaulted the Umpire.
 SCRANTON, Pa., May 4.—After Fen, the Hazleton pitcher, had been struck out in the tenth inning he made a vicious and disgraceful attack upon Umpire Wagner, striking him in the face with his clenched fist. Fen was then taken out of the game and Jordan substituted.

In Senate and House.
 WASHINGTON, May 4.—The time of the senate yesterday was taken up in speeches by Senators Chandler and Quay, the former with an impromptu speech of an hour, and the latter with a continuation of his prepared speech. The Democrats charge that Senator Quay is filibustering against the tariff bill. The house devoted the day to the consideration of the river and harbor bill.

Fatally Injured by a Bomb.
 LEIGE, May 4.—Another explosion of dynamite occurred last night at the residence of Dr. Renson, in the Rue de la Paix. The basement of the building was shattered and Dr. Renson and his wife terribly injured. The doctor cannot recover. The shock also caused breakage of windows in the houses in the vicinity.
 There is no clue to the person who caused the outrage.

Bank Officers Indicted.
 JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 4.—Several indictments have been returned against Nat Poyntz and Otis Poyntz, president and cashier respectively of the suspended First National bank, of Orlando, Fla., for embezzlement and making false returns as to the bank's condition. Directors Parramor, O'Neal and Lee have also been indicted for signing a false bank statement.

Forty Cars Passed Over Him.
 TRENTON, May 4.—Joseph Kelley, a small boy, while stealing a ride on a coal train in this city, fell between the cars and had a narrow escape from death. He lay flat on the sleepers, and forty cars passed over him without doing him the slightest injury. He was unable to talk, however, for half an hour afterward from sheer fright.

Panic at a School Fire.
 YPSILANTI, Mich., May 4.—The Union school building was burned while the school was in session yesterday afternoon.
 The pupils jumped from the windows, piling over each other in their flight.
 Olive Collins' spine was permanently injured by jumping from the second story.
 Several other children were slightly injured.

A Miner Entombed Alive.
 HAZLETON, Pa., May 4.—Theobald Wack-ley, a miner, was entombed yesterday by a fall of coal in Highland No. 2 mine, near Freeland. A rescuing party tried to reach the imprisoned man without success, although Wackley can be heard through the wall of debris which separates him from his companions.

Grand Master Ramsay Acquitted.
 CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 4.—Grand Master Ramsay, of the Telegraphers' brotherhood, on trial for tampering with the wires of the Cedar Rapids, Burlington and Northern road, during the recent strike on that road, was acquitted by the jury.

LOSS OF POWER

 loss of flesh, or emaciation. These come from impoverished of strength and tissue, and builds up healthy flesh. Nasty Cod Liver Oils add fat, but not wholesome flesh. This, pale, puny and scrofulous children are made plump, rosy and robust by the "Discovery." They like it, too.

 In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalesence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system, as an appetizing, restorative tonic. It sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.
 If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case,

SENATORS IN CAUCUS.

The Democratic Majority Take Action on the Tariff Bill.

MR. HILL STILL BELLIGERENT.

He Alone Votes Against the Resolution to Press the Amended Measure to a Speedy Passage—New Jersey's Junior Senator Falls Into Line.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—By a vote of 37 to 1, six of the forty-four Democrats being absent, the Democratic senators in caucus yesterday adopted a resolution agreeing to support the tariff bill of the finance committee, including the compromise amendments that have been agreed upon by the many conferences of Democratic senators during the past two weeks. The resolution was presented by Senator Gorman, of Maryland, the chairman of the caucus, and discussed at some length, as the session lasted from a few minutes after 4 o'clock until nearly 7 o'clock.

The six absent senators were Mr. Murphy, Lindsay, Irby, Butler and Gibson. It was claimed that they were all accounted for, and assurances were given that they would support the tariff bill. The only persons in whose absence there might be any significance are Senators Murphy and Mills, the understanding being that all others were in accord with any bill supported by the majority of the Democratic senators. Senator Mills was not at the caucus during the day, and the call for the caucus was sent to his house.

Senator Murphy's caucus notice was also sent to his residence, as he was absent from the Capitol. His position along has been one of doubt, but several Democratic senators assert that he will support the bill, and he is counted in the forty-three which are claimed as certain to vote in its favor.

In presenting the resolution and stating the object of the caucus Senator Gorman made a conciliatory speech. He said it was necessary to make concessions in order to secure the united support of the party, and he further asserted that it would need a Democratic majority to pass the bill. He stated that concessions had been made on all sides, and it was believed that the measure, with the proposed amendments, would now meet with the support which was absolutely necessary to pass a Democratic tariff bill.

Senator McPherson, of New Jersey, spoke in support of the resolution, and dwelt at some length upon the concessions which northern and eastern Democrats had been obliged to make and what they had to give up to meet the demands of the south and west. He claimed that the concessions that were talked of by the other senators were not wholly on one side, Senators Palmer and Vilas made long and vigorous speeches, urging party harmony and the necessity of early action.

Great interest centered in the speech of Senator Smith, of New Jersey, and his remarks were received with a great deal of satisfaction, for while he said he was not satisfied with the bill, and was unalterably opposed to the income tax, he was ready to support the measure with the amendments which had been agreed upon, although he claimed that what were called concessions by the southern and western men were but small compared with the concession which eastern senators made in supporting the bill with the income tax provisions.

Senator Jones said that he had seen the necessity for amending the bill, and after giving the matter due consideration had concluded that it was possible that the bill as first reported had not been sufficiently considered as to the interests of all sections. He had then endeavored in connection with others to remedy the defects as he saw them, and in doing so had tried to consult senators representing all shades of opinion.

He gave the reasons why the majority of the Democratic senators representing the south and west wanted the income tax and why the minority from the north and east were opposed to it, and said that while out of deference to the majority it had been kept in, the minority had been granted the concession of a limitation of the time the law should continue in force, and that while the period had not been fixed, it would probably be placed at five years. He said also that many of the industrial features had been omitted, but that the amount exempted and the rate of the taxation had not been changed. He also said that the sugar schedule had been changed so as to provide for an ad valorem duty of 40 per cent., and an additional duty of one-eighth of a cent on refined sugar, with a penalty of one-tenth of a cent on sugar imported from countries paying a bounty on sugar, the present law with the bounty to stand until the first of January next.

He said that the ad valorem tax was not materially different from the sugar provisions in the pending tariff bill. He stated that a large number of other amendments had been made, but did not mention them in detail nor make any explanation of them except to say that in no case were the rates of duty fixed as high as in the McKinley law.

Senator Hill in his speech took occasion to compliment Senator Jones for the patriotic and intelligent interest he had displayed in adjusting all differences, but declared that so irreconcilable was his opposition to the income tax that he should feel at liberty to offer any amendment he saw proper to any paragraph in the bill, so long as the income tax was a part of it, notwithstanding the resolution. He devoted himself largely to the income tax, and said that while he was pleased to hear of some of the changes that had been made, he regretted that the income provision was still retained. He denounced the compromise on this account.

He repeated what he had said in his public speech that no Democratic national convention had declared for an income tax. He also called attention to the fact that the demands of the Democratic party for free raw material had been ignored and said that wool was required to stand alone out of all the list as representing the fruits of this demand. He charged that the income tax had been retained for a purpose of placating the south and west, and said that because, if for no other reason, New York would have to pay 30 per cent. of the tax if imposed, he should antagonize the tax to the end. He declared that he was not mollified by the limitation of time. If the tax was right upon principle it should go in permanently; if not right, it should be expunged entirely. It looked, he said, as if the change had been made for the sole purpose of getting votes. It could not be defended upon that ground, and he warned the party against preparing a bill which would require too much defense.

Senator Hill was the only senator who voted against the resolution.

A RIOT AVERTED.

Swelling Italian Railroad Laborers Response at the Old Rate.

WILLIAMSBURG, Pa., May 4.—The strike of the Italian railroad laborers on the new extension of the Buffalo and Susquehanna road is over, and about 800 of the men resumed work yesterday. Wednesday 300 of the Italians, armed with guns, pistols, knives and clubs, marched up the road toward Gaines and threatened to destroy the town. The authorities were alarmed for fear the dusky foreigners might take a notion to carry out their threat, for they had a carload of dynamite in their possession at the time.

But for the coolness of Constable Black there would have undoubtedly been serious trouble. With a posse of fifteen or twenty well armed men he halted the strikers at the outskirts of the village.
 Three of the ringleaders were at once arrested and locked up. The forces then became demoralized, and retreated to hold a council of war. Deputy Sheriff Vall had a reserve of thirty picked men ready to assist the constable in case of emergency.
 Wednesday night the contractors informed the strikers that they could resume work at $1 a day or leave the work for others to take their places. Sixty men accepted the terms and about seventy-five men were paid off and discharged.

The strike was originated by a gang of workmen who were induced to come on from New York city by a padrone, who told them they were to receive $1.35 a day.
 When the men found that the interpreter had deceived them they attacked him, and would have killed him had he not sought the protection of the officers.

To Change Jersey's Congressional Districts TRENTON, May 4.—Senator Stokes introduced a bill changing the congressional districts of the state. The proposed new districts are made up as follows: First district—Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem counties; Second district—Atlantic, Mercer, Burlington and Ocean; Third district—Somerset, Middlesex and Monmouth; Fourth district—Sussex, Warren, Hunterdon and Morris; Fifth district—Passaic and Bergen; Sixth district—City of Newark and township of East Orange; Seventh district—County of Hudson, except the city of Bayonne; Eighth district—Union county, Bayonne and all of Essex county, except Newark and East Orange. The bill providing for the annexation of the towns of Harris and Kearney to the city of Newark passed both houses.

Clover Fields Destroyed.
 HUNTINGDON, Pa., May 4.—A strange green worm, measuring from a fourth to a half inch in length, has lately made its appearance in this county among the fields of growing clover. They appear in countless numbers, and when once they attack a clover field they continue in their destructive work until every vestige of the blossoms and leaves are eaten up. In Springfield, Tell, Clay and Penn townships whole fields of clover have been destroyed, and the farmers are in despair.

Prohibition Nominees.
 CHESTER, Pa., May 4.—Delaware county Prohibitionists held their convention yesterday and nominated the following ticket: President, Judge Lewis D. Vall of Philadelphia; congressman, W. H. Berry of Chester; assemblymen, L. Newton Pierce, George S. Yarnall and John D. Burns; prothonotary, W. S. Chalfant of Media; jury commissioner, B. D. Ayars, Sr., of Chester; directors of the poor, Z. M.
 Rower of Chester and Benjamin Johnson of Trainer.

A Big Newspaper Changes Hands.
 CHICAGO, May 4.—The rumors that have been floating about for some days of changes in the proprietorship of The Inter-Ocean are verified. Mr. H. H. Kahlbaum, who for three years has been publisher of the paper and proprietor of the majority of the stock, disposed of his entire interest to William Penn Nixon, who has been editor for more than eighteen years. It is understood that he received about $400,000.

After the Grip
 Sick, Lifeless, Dull
 BUT NOW IS Healthy, Happy, Lively

This Decided Change Brought About by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:"
 "Gentlemen—I wish to certify to the following facts: My little girl, Lilla May Guthrie, had a severe attack of the grip, and got somewhat better, but she did not seem to get right well. She lingered along from day to day, poor, weak and languid. We consulted a leading physician, and he said it was the drag of the grip still about her. We gave the medicine he ordered, but she seemed to get

More and More Delicate.
 She could scarcely eat anything, and what little she did take seemed to do her no good. Her flesh was soft and not healthy, and she was very much concerned about her. No medicine seemed to have any effect until about two months ago we commenced to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She had not taken half a bottle before she began to eat heartily, and we could see a decided change in her. Today she is in the full enjoyment of Perfect Health.

 Her flesh is solid, her appetite good and cheeks rosy, her sleep sound and refreshing, and her spirits high. She is full of life, and as mischievous as she can be. All this improvement was brought about by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.
 My wife has with me in recommending this medicine as the best in the world for building up the system." LIA GUTHRIE, Heathville, Penn.
 N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.
