About New Dress Goods.

As a dress goods store we acknowledge no competition; our assortments of rich dress stuffs were never so large, nor were prices ever so low as now. Besides the regular lines of cashmeres and henricitas, we show a superb line of line imported novelties in all the new shades. Real English broades in twenty rich designs at 37½ cents per yard. A visit to our dress goods department will convince you that it pays to buy at dress goods department that it pays to buy at L. J. Wilkinson's.

One of the Candidates. William R. Middleton, one of the candidates for nomination for the Legislaure in the First district, on the Republian ticket, was born in New Castle, chuylkili county. He was a son of techen Middleton, deceased, and Eliza Stephen Middleton, deceased, and Eliza Middleton. His parents came to this country from England in 1848. William commenced to work in the mines at the age of eight years, acting as door boy for tieorge S. Repplier and continued at the work up to 1870, when his parents moved to Shenandoah. He then worked as driver for the Thomas Coal Company and in 1872 moved to Mañaville, his present place of residence, and engaged in the hotel business. Mr. Middleton then secured employment under the Draper Coal Company and a year later entered the Dickinson Seminary at Willamsport, and was a student there for two terms. Subsequently he entered the Iron City Commercial College at Pittsburg and graduated from that institution. At the age of 21 he entered politics as a Republic graduated from that institution. At the age of 21 he entered politics as a Republican and cast his first vote for General Grant for President. From that time to the present he has been active at all conventions and has never before asked for any favors for office in the county. He has held the office of Justice of the Peace for the last sixteen years and was Town any favors for office in the county. He has held the office of Justice of the Peace for the last sixteen years and was Town. Clerk of Gilberton borough for three successive years. At present he is a member of the Town Council and president of that body. At one time he was shipping clerk for the P. & R. C. & L. Co. at the Stanton colliery, now abandoned, after which he was transferred to the Locust Gap. This position he resigned to accept one under the P. & R. R. Co., at Mahanoy Plane, as shipping clerk. After two months service he again resigned to accept a better position as head bookkeeper for the firm of Lawrence, Brown & Folmer at Frackville. This position he held for about five years, when the firm made an assignment. He again entered the service of the P. & R. R. R. as elect to Train master G. M. Israel, from which position he was promoted to the responsible one of ticket agent at Mahanoy Plane, which he now holds. Mr. Middleton was married in Philadelphia in 1878 to Miss Marien L. Devine, of Branchaile, daughter of Mrs. Katie Devine, deceased. Mr. Middleton's Republicans nominate him he will carry the district without a doubt. He is a good debater and fearless in all his undertakings. If nominated and elected he will be true to the best interests of his constituents and the welfare of the Republican party. He has a thorough knowledge of mining, railroading and the mercantile business and is a director of the Broad Mountain Building and Loan Association of Frackville.
