Evening Herald.

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1894.

There is a possibility that a fourth Brooklyn Tabernacle may be built, but the likelihood that it will be is small. Dr.
Talmage said that he regarded his pastoral work as ended, though, of course, he expects to continue preaching. To build him a new church will cost, it is estimated, about $85,000, and Dr. Talmage declares that not the first step toward its erection must be taken until the necessary funds are all secured. This is a prudent determination. His experience with a huge church debt has been sufficient to teach him the folly of going into an enterprise that is not fully paid for at the start, and he will be wise to stick to this decision.

A NOVEL and extremely interesting experiment is soon to be tried in Ohio. It is a new departure in road improvement, which is claimed by its author to have points of marked superiority over the building of macadamized roads. The plan is to extend the electric railway tracks from cities and towns into the surrounding country, and to construct the roads in such a way that they can be used for wagons and carriages drawn by horses as well as by cars. Of course there will be a great saving in horse power where-ever such roads are used, since far heavier loads can be drawn on steel tracks with the same force. In two counties of Ohio trial will be made of this system the present year. It need hardly be said that the result will be awaited with much interest not only in Ohio, but in other states. The question of road improvement is filling a large place in the public mind nowadays, and anything in the direction of solving it is sure of earnest and respectful attention. Something similar to the Ohio idea was suggested by an English writer years ago, but nothing, we believe, ever came of it.

DR. TALMAGE has taken a financial stand against a renewal of the financial embarrassments under which he had been laboring for many years. He has declared that all the debts of the Brooklyn Tabernacle must be liquidated, and at least $200,000 secured before he will enter into another church-building enterprise.
This decision may involve the disbandment of his large congregation, but it is creditable to his business sagacity and good sense. The rebuilding of the Tabernacle on the present site with another debt of $300,000 would be a blunder almost criminal, for experience has shown that, while he is a popular preacher capable of drawing about him great audiences, he cannot depend upon them for the financial support required to pay for costly structures largely built on credit.
Himself possessing business shrewdness and practical ability in no ordinary degree, he has expended the best years of his life in ministering to a congregation which was hopelessly involved in debt. He cannot be censured if he refuses to go through another campaign of this harassing and demoralizing nature.

A TRUE SOLDIER.

Gen. Sickles, one of Tammany's representatives in the lower House of Congress, had this to say at a recent reunion banquet of the Third Corps Association. It is not often we have an opportunity to say a good word for a Tammanyite. Sickles is a man who talks to our liking, and stands high with the ex-soldiers. In reply to a toast to the corps he led at Gettysburg, he said:

"I think the atmosphere of Washington would be better if there were army corps generals here oftener. Somewhat to my surprise since coming to Washington as a public man, one of my chief occupations has been to defend the defenders of the Union, and to keep them from being put out of what I consider their just positions.
I had been in the city but a little while when a man came to me from the navy yard, from which he said he had been discharged without cause. I examined his papers and found that he was one of my old men, who had been with me through six battles. I looked the matter up in the department, and though there was nothing else against the old fellow, it was said that he had voted for Harrison at the last election. And I just said to the head of this bureau: 'As long as that man was with me during the war, and through all of those twelve battles, I never asked him what his politics were. And I think it is a little too late to commence now.

To my mind, any man who has been discharged has a right to any politics he chooses, I don't care even if it is Coxey-ism.' That case was only the beginning of the work I have had to do and since then I have been called upon to discount about three cases of the same sort each month."

THE COMMONWEAL ARMIES

General Kelly May Become the Commander-in-Chief.
BONAPARTE, Ia., May 18.—It is announced that General Kelly will perhaps go to Washington from Keokuk to take charge of the Commonwealth armies of the United States.

Bonaparte and Farmington gave a large quantity of provisions. The army went into camp three miles below here. The fleet will reach Keokuk tonight.

CINCINNATI, May 18.—General Fry, whose industrial command is encamped at Lawrenceburg, Ind., says that the industrial army of the United States now numbers 150,000. He asserted that within sixty days he would have 200,000 men in Washington.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 18.—Twenty-five weavers captured an engine on the Great Northern at Troy, Mon., and rode twenty-five miles to Atlanta. There the company had torn up the track, and the train was ditched. Eight industrials were injured, one seriously. All were arrested and taken to Kalispell.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., May 18.—Randall's army arrived in this city last evening, having tramped from Warsaw, a distance of twenty miles. Arrangements had been made for them to spend the night in camp at the fair grounds, and food was provided. They started this morning for Fort Wayne.

NEWARK, N. J., May 18.—Judge Millgan yesterday sentenced seven Coxeyites to thirty days each in the county jail. The men were caught in a freight car. They say they are deserters from Sweetland's command of the Connecticut division of Coxey's army.

THE JERSEY RAILROAD WAR

Tracks Laid Down Are Removed by a Rival Company.

MILLVILLE, N. J., May 18.—The South Jersey railroad succeeded in getting across the West Jersey tracks at Woodbine yesterday. A switch was built around the West Jersey obstructions and the frog put in. While the watchmen at the crossing slept in his box car, drawn across the crossing, shortly after midnight he was overpowered by about seventy-five men, who removed his weapons, locked him in his car and then removed the obstacle from the place where it stood.

The watchman expostulated and flashed out an injunction from the court of chancery, but the gang heeded it not, and in a short time had succeeded in laying the tracks on the crossing and prepared for connection at both ends.

After the West Jersey people secured the restraining injunction several weeks ago only one watchman was left to guard the box car drawn across the site of the proposed crossing, and it was not believed the South Jersey people would dare to disobey the restraining order of the dignified chancery court.

The tracks of the South Jersey railroad were barely down when a large force of men employed by the West Jersey company appeared and began to tear up the rails. They were attacked by the men in the employ of the rival concern, and a lively scrimmage occurred, in which ten of the men were hurt. Six of these were among the forces of the West Jersey company and the others were South Jersey warriors. None of them were seriously hurt.

Supervisors Stubbs and Chenoweth, of the West Jersey, were arrested, and afterward released in $500 bail.

Came from Italy for Revenge.

MARLETON, Pa., May 18.—Anthony Ritzina is in jail here, charged with the murder of Santo Faracena by stabbing him through the heart in a barroom quarrel, which grew out of a feud that began when both men were residents of Italy.
Ritzina declares that the dead man robbed him of his sweetheart, and that he followed him to this country to seek revenge. The crime was committed in the presence of a large crowd. Carmen Torcu, who tried to separate the men, was badly cut by the infuriated Ritzina.

Jersey Legislators Take a Heat.

TRENTON, May 18.—The legislature adjourned last night until Wednesday of next week, at which time both houses will return to consider any vetoes the governor may send in. The breaking up was attended with great disorder in the house.
It is probable that adjournment until September will be had next week. The bill to legislate out of office the assistant prosecutors in Hudson, Essex, Passaic, Monmouth and Mercer counties was passed by the senate.

Fatally Burned by Exploding Metal.

BUFFALO, May 18.—A serious explosion occurred in the shops of the Buffalo School Furniture company's foundry. Five moulders, John Schneider, Fred Erge and George Schneider were badly hurt. About seventy-five men were working in the foundry. The molten iron was thrown about the foundry. The men who were injured were both cut and burned by the flying metal. Valentine Schneider will die.

A RECORD

of twenty-five years of cure is made by Dr. Pierce's Golden
Medical Discovery.
In all blood disorders, this remedy has numbered its cures by the thousands. Years of uninterrupted success long ago led the proprietors to sell this remedy as no other blood-purifier has so much confidence in the "Discovery" that they guarantee it in all diseases that come from a torpid liver or impure blood. As a blood-cleanser, flesh-builder, and strength-restorer, nothing like the "Discovery" is known to medical science. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous Affections, quickly yield to its purifying and cleansing properties. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

For Colic, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus and Cholera Infantum, take Dr.
Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed.

A SWEEPING INQUIRY.

Senate Committee to Investigate Charges of Corruption.

LODGE'S RESOLUTION UNOPPOSED.

Senators Gray, Lindsay, Allen, Lodge and Davis Will Probe the Matter—A Late Session of the Senate and an Agreement to Work Longer Hours.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Interest in the tariff debate in the senate was overshadowed yesterday by the debate on the Lodge resolution to investigate the charges of attempted senatorial bribery and the charges that the sugar schedule of the tariff bill had been fixed in the interest of the sugar trust in return for a half million dollar contribution alleged to have been made by the trust to the Democratic campaign last year. There seemed to be a manifest sentiment in the senate in favor of the passage of the resolution—at least no opposition to it was developed. In fact the disposition was to broaden it, and it was amended so as to include charges that senators had speculated in sugar stock and in several other particulars, and as amended was passed without division.

Before the passage of the resolution Senator Hamsbrough read a letter from C.
W. Buttz, who is charged with bribery offering, indignantly denying the charge and urging an inquiry.

The vice president has decided to appoint as the committee to investigate the charges of bribery under the Lodge resolution Senators Gray, Lindsay, Allen, Lodge and Davis.

From 12 o'clock until 4:30 the tariff debate dragged along. Mr. Gallinger holding the floor for fully two hours and Mr. Higgins for two hours and a half.
Then after an hour and a half's work, during which time only fifteen more paragraphs of the chemical schedule, comprising two pages of the bill, were disposed of, the Democrats concluded to change their tactics. Progress under the system under which the senate had been operating seemed impossible, and they decided that the time had come to adopt coercive methods. At 6 o'clock Mr. Harris, the floor manager of the tariff bill, moved that the senate take a recess until this morning, with the intention of continuing the legislative day and forcing the consideration of the tariff bill to the closure of all other legislative business.

This meant the inauguration of the policy of drastic that made famous the struggle over the Federal election law bill, the bill to repeal the Sherman law and all other big legislative contests in the senate. The Republicans, under the leadership of Mr. Manderson, resisted, vainly protesting that they did not seek to delay action on the tariff bill. They used the usual filibustering methods for breaking a quorum by refusing to vote, although certain of their western colleagues declared to join in the filibuster.

Shortly before 7 o'clock the lights were turned on, and shed a blaze of effulgence upon the chamber. The senators sat list-lessly in their seats reading the evening papers or chatting in groups. The public had no knowledge of the sudden change in the program and the galleries were absolutely deserted, save for a few belated individuals who nodded on their elbows in the public section. One by one the senators slipped down to the restaurant to snatch a hurried dinner in lieu of the regular meal that had been denied them.

Both sides had evidently come to the conclusion to "sit it out." They prepared for a siege. They smoked in the cloak rooms and chatted on the floor. Mr. Palmer regaled those who gathered about him with his inimitable stories. Occasionally several senators would cluster around Mr. Harris and listen to his crisp, pointed and sometimes very caustic characterization of the situation. The scene recalled the long struggle on the silver bill last summer. Mr. Voorhees, chairman of the finance committee, sat calmly in his seat displaying the same stolid heroism that characterized him on that occasion.

Meantime, as the Republicans refused to vote, the sergeant-at-arms had been sent out for absentees. Mr. Pugh (Ala.) and Mr. Squire (Wash.) made their appearance about 7:30, and were the first fruits of the sergeant-at-arms' prowess.
About 8 o'clock Mr. Chandler disturbed the serenity of things by inquiring whether he could proceed with some remarks he desired to make on the pending bill. Mr.
White (Cal.) replied sarcastically that he could if he would confine his remarks to censorship. Mr. Fairbank, in the chair, ruled that no remarks were in order pending the absence of a quorum.

At 8:30 Sergeant-at-arms Bright submitted his report, which showed that of the absentees on the roll call ten senators were absent from the city, twenty-two could not be found, one (Mr. Morrill) had declined to attend, and nineteen were either present now or had reported that they would immediately respond to the request. This did not satisfy Mr. Harris.
He was in favor of adopting more heroic measures. He moved to compel the attendance of the absentees.

At 10:30, after sitting for eleven and a half hours, and after some sharp talk on both sides, the Republicans succeeded in forcing an adjournment, although the battle was in reality a drawn one. A compromise had been practically agreed upon before adjournment by which the sessions of the senate are to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. after Monday.

LOOKS BAD FOR BUTTZ.

Story of the Alleged Attempt to Bribe Senator Hutton.

RICHMOND, Va., May 18.—Mr. H. O.
Claggett, private secretary of United States Senator Hutton, is in the city as a delegate to the Episcopal council. He gave an interesting story of the manner in which the effort was made to bribe the Virginia Senator. Buttz went to Warrenton with letters and sought an interview with Mr. Epps Hunter, Jr., the senator's son. He approached Mr. Hunter as an attorney, and told him that he wished to engage his services in an important matter. He told him also that his fee was to be $25,000 or more.

Mr. Epps Hunter says he could as easily have received an offer of $75,000. He asked Buttz what manner of service was required in consideration of such a handsome fee, and then it was that Buttz delicately intimated that it was to secure his father's vote against the tariff bill. Mr.
Hunter indignantly ordered him from his office, and at once acquainted his father with the fact. Senator Hutton laid the matter before the finance committee, and they prevailed upon him to keep quiet in the present in the hope of getting at the inside facts. But nothing has since been learned, and it is not known whom Buttz represented.

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Dr. Samuel A. Mutchmore, of Philadelphia, Chosen as Moderator.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 18.—The first day's sessions of the Presbyterian general assembly usually are of particular interest, because on that day the sermon of the retiring moderator is delivered and a providing officer for the ensuing year is elected. The former is of interest to many because of the opportunity offered to the speaker to touch upon some of the burning questions of the hour, and the latter because it sometimes indicates the composition and temper of the body. In the case of the sermon advantage was taken of the opportunities offered, and many of those in attendance at the assembly are openly criticizing the moderator in that he gave particular attention to his discussion of a matter that is to come before the body on an appeal in a judicial case—that of Professor Henry Preserved Smith.

The election of moderator did not turn on grounds of the orthodox or liberal tendencies of the candidates. It was declared of each candidate that he was "sound in the faith," and in this was indicated the general temper of the assembly. The successful candidate, Dr. Samuel A. Mutch-more, editor of the Presbyterian, of Philadelphia, was looked upon from the first as the leading candidate. He was elected on the second ballot, the vote being: Mutchmore, 281; Brown, 269. Dr. Arthur J. Brown was the home missionary candidate, but was probably hampered to some extent by the fact that he had been the pupil of Professor Smith, whose case is to be considered later. The candidacy of Dr.
Dunsmuir, of California, and of Dr. Garner, of New York, was an outgrowth of local pride. There was no "liberal" candidate nominated, and such a one, it is said, would have had no chance of election.

GAUDAUR BREAKS ANOTHER RECORD.
AUSTIN, Tex., May 18.—The great international regatta witnessed its third-day of unprecedented success yesterday by the introduction of the grand final three mile heat with the start for prizes aggregating $2,100. The first prize is $1,000.
The entries were Gaudaur, Peterson, Dur-nan, Temner, Hoamer and Rogers. This race is the one in which Jake Gaudaur broke the world's record last year, rowing over this same course in 19m. 6s. with Peterson after him. Yesterday Gaudaur came in only a short distance in the lead, breaking his former record by making the time of 19m. 15s. Peterson came in in 19m. 25s. Gaudaur acknowledged that Peterson pushed him harder than he was ever pushed in his life before.

Pennsylvania Odd Fellows.
ALTOONA, Pa., May 18.—At the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows here yesterday it was decided to divide the funds in the hands of the trustees between the homes at Glen Avon and Meadville, providing that those institutions amend their laws so as to correspond with those of the Grand Lodge. The following grand officers were installed: Grand master, Harry L. Neill; deputy grand master, Charles Chaffin; grand warden, Amos H. Hall; grand secretary, James B. Nicholson; grand treasurer, M. Richards Muckle, representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Robert E. Wright and Francis M.
Ray. The Grand Lodge then adjourned to meet in Philadelphia next year.

Closed by the Coal Strike.
BRADDOCK, Pa., May 18.—The coal strike has caused suspensions that have forced more than 3,500 men out of work here.
The Braddock wire mill, employing nearly 1,000 men, was forced to suspend several days ago, also the Dubuque forge, at Rankin. Yesterday the Pittsburg wire mill closed down, and 500 more men are thrown out of work. The blowing out of furnaces H. I. and E. at the Edgar Thomson works involved the retirement of several hundred men, and more suspensions will follow during the next three days.

Captain Bristow Censured.
NEW YORK, May 18.—The naval court of inquiry, which convened Wednesday at the British consulate to consider the circumstances attending the stranding of the Persian Monarch on the Long Island coast, rendered its decision yesterday.
This decision is the Captain Bristow's master's certificate he suspended for six months, and that a first officer's certificate be granted to him during that time. The court censured the first and second officers, but returned their certificates. Pilot Jackson was also censured.

Valkyrie Will Keep Vigilant Again.
NEW YORK, May 18.—When Mr. George J. Gould reaches Southampton next Wednesday he will learn that the Earl of Dun-raven is willing to race the Valkyrie against the Vigilant. A cable to that effect was received here yesterday from Lord Dunraven by H. Matland Kery.
The former agreed to give the Vigilant two special races, one over the Cape May and Brenton Reef course and the other during the Clyde regatta. Two gold cups will be the prizes offered.

Vetted by Governor Flower.
ALBANY, May 18.—Governor Flower has vetted the bill allowing the contested seat cases in the constitutional convention to be taken to the courts for decision, on the ground that the portion of the bill giving officers of the courts special fees is unconstitutional. He also vetted the bill authorizing the amendment of the constitution to be submitted to the people in 1896, if not ready in 1894.

Denied by Mgr. Satelli.
DANBURY, Conn., May 18.—Mgr. Satelli, the papal legate, was interviewed in regard to the dispatch in the London Chronicle from Rome that the pope would interfere between him and his alleged enemies in this country. Satelli said he did not know anything about the matter. He was inclined to think the dispatch a canard and that it did not come from Rome.

Neither Side Will Recede.
TRENTON, May 18.—United States Senator Smith was in this city again yesterday in conference with the manufacturing pottery and a committee of their employes seeking to effect a compromise of the existing strike. Neither side would recede, and the situation remains unchanged.

Another Husband for Princess Maude.
LONDON, May 18.—The Chronicle's correspondent at St. Petersburg says it is reported in official circles that Grand Duke Paul, the youngest brother of the czar, will shortly be betrothed to Princess Maude, the youngest daughter of the Prince of Wales.

To Prohibit Female Mine Labor.
BERLIN, May 18.—A resolution to prohibit female labor, both in the interior of mines and on the surface, was unanimously adopted by the miners' congress yesterday. The resolution applies to all countries.

After Typhoid and Malaria

Hood's Sarsaparilla Purified and Built Up the System.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
" gentlemen—Two years ago I was taken with a very severe illness, beginning with erysipelas, and then had typhoid and malaria fever.
After I got up and out of bed I thought I was cured, but was mistaken. In a short time a burner broke out on my face, at first causing the skin to be rough and lumpy and gradually developing into sores, which spread until

My Head Was Covered with them. No one can imagine how I suffered with the great itching and burning. Prescriptions had no effect. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, so I concluded to try a bottle, and I soon found a great change in my condition. The sores began to disappear and I was soon entirely cured. My general health has improved and I feel like a new man altogether. I sleep well at night and have no trace of that itchy and burning sensation." JAMES J. WELCH, Cretighton, Pennsylvania.

Fierce Forest Fires in Rhode Island.
PROVIDENCE, May 18.—Forest fires about Exeter and West Greenwich are raging fiercely, and 600 men are doing their best to check their progress. The fire has cut a swath fifteen miles long and about three miles wide, making forty-five square miles burned over. Two dwelling houses, Hopkins' mill and two other sawmills have been destroyed. The lowest estimate places the damage at $50,000 and the highest at $250,000.

Bryan Will Retire from Congress.
WASHINGTON, May 18.—Representative William J. Bryan, of the First Nebraska district, has sent a letter to the chairman of his congressional committee, Judge J.
H. Broome, of Lincoln, declining to be a candidate for re-election. His reasons for retiring from congressional life are that he is unwilling to enter into a contest which, to be waged successfully, would confine him to his district during the campaign.

For Governor of New York.
BUFFALO, May 18.—State Committee Mack, editor of the Buffalo Times, nominates Congressman Daniel N. Lockwood, of Buffalo, for governor in case Governor Flower should decide that he does not want the nomination to succeed himself this fall.
