CAMERON FOR PRESIDENT.

At last Monday night's meeting of the Teller and Wolcott club the following was unanimously adopted :

"Hemolyed, That the Creede Teller and Wolcott club use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, the friend of silver, for President, and Judge Caldwell, of Arkansas, the friend of labor, for Vice President.

Here is a good ticket. When Senator Cameron voted against the repeal bill the only Eastern Senator who did) we believed that should he shy his castor in to the presidential ring he would be the most formidable candidate in the field. It is now rumored that Senator Quay is out for him for President. If so, he is good enough for the West, and is the only Eastern Republican who is in actual touch with Western people. As to Judge Caldwell, a man who will interpret the laws to the protection of the laboring classes is our kind of a Republican, and Colorado would rell up a good round majority for such a ticket.-The Sentinel, Amethyst, Colorado.

NOT IN TOUCH.

District Attorney Flood, of Reading, has resigned from the School Board in that city. In a letter to the Board, which has just been made public he says: "Having no sisters, daughters or other relatives to be taken care of through my official influence; having no interest in any contracts under which the money of the dis trict has been and is being expended; having no political axes to grind, and no factional or other interests to subserve in antagonism to the general interests of the schools, I have found myself not in touch with the many who have been chosen as my colleagues, and this has limited my usefulness."

Don't this fit the shoes of many officials in this county, not only in School Boards, but Borough Councils as well?

HAD the Brooklyn Tabernacle congregation been in their seats when the fire was discovered there would probably have been a panic and great loss of life. The destruction of the Tabernacle at the time and in the manner it occurred cannot be arded altogether as a calamity. When the possibility of its being sold arose a few months ago, there was some talk of furning it into a public hall for lectures, concerts and the like. Its otter bufftness for such a purpose, in view of its dangerous character, is now made fully evident. Presumably the edifice was built in harmony with the provisions of the law but nothing can be plainer than that the putting up of buildings with such flimsy interiors ought to be made impossible in any city.

MISFORTUNES do not come alone. While the Democrats in Congress are still langeling over the tariff and subjecting the entire country to loss and apprehension, the seventeen-year locust has arrived in the state of New Jersey. A dispatch from Miliville says that "there are miliions of them in sight," and Dr. Willetts, of Port Elizabeth, predicts that "June will see the locusts awarming over South Jersey." As nearly as can be ascertained, the locusts are coming up from the depths of the earth, and at last accounts were within five inches of the surface. The sympathies of the rest of the country will go out to New Jersey, in view of its prospective affliction.

CHEAP steerage rates between this country and Europe are desirable from some points of view, but it is to be hoped that they will not bring about a large inflow into this country of the sort of immigrants that cannot be considered desirable no matter in what aspect they are re

FAVORITE REMEDY.

IT MAKES PEOPLE WELL.

There is no remedy in the world like by Kenndy's Favorite Remedy, no medi-ne that is so generally prescribed by hysiciaus and so widely used in hospitals physicians and so wheely used in haspitals and sanitariums, none that has re-ceived so many unasked-for testimonials from Shenandoah and vicinity. There is seldom a day passes but that the reporters of the HERALD hear kind words spoken for Favorite Remedy by these who are reing it.

Edward Barton, of Ponckhockie, Ulster Co., N. J., who, until recently, has been suffering from gravel and an impoverished condition of the blood, in conversation as to his improved condition, said: "I had been sick for a long while, and gradually grew worse, until I was obliged to resign my position. I counted nine different physicians who had prescribed for me, but I could see no benefit from their medicines; finally I made up my mind to try Favorite Remedy, and here I am in just three weeks from the time I began taking it, well and ready to take up my old position again. If I had taken this medicine when I first felt the symptoms of the trouble, it would have saved me many dollars and weeks of sickness."

There is hardly a home in Marbletown where you will not find Favorite Remedy.

Terrible Effects of the Storm on Lake Michigan.

Eight Dashed to Pieces Within the City Limits of Chicago and One Sunk Off Milwaukes-Schooners Myrtls and Cummines Each Lose Six of Their Crew.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The strom which yesterday swept Lake Michigan was the most disastrous of recent years. Eight vessels were driven ashore within the city limits of Chicago. Out of their crews ten men are known to be drowned, and in every instance boat and cargo are utterly

One schooner, the Myrtle, was wrecked just outside the government pier, within a half mile of Michican bonlevard, and six of her crew went down to death in plain view of hundreds of people. The wrecks extend from Glencos, on the northwest, where the Lincoln Dall went to pieces, to South Chicago, a distance of forty miles. Following is the list of the wrecks as near as now known:

Schooner Lincoln Dall, 195 tons, driver ashore at Giencoe, eighteen miles north o Chicago; schooner Myrtle, 197 tons, wrecked at the foot of Harrison street; schooner Jack Thompson of Chicago, 199 tons, wrecked off Twenty-fifth street; schooner Evening Star of Milwaukee, 203 tons, wrecked off Twenty-seventh street, crew rescued; schooner Mercury of Grand Haven, 218 tons, wrecked off Twenty-seventh street, crew rescued; schooner J. five men of the schooner Myrtle.

One of the most exciting features of the storm was the imprisonment of twenty-seven men who were working in the water works crib off Lake View, one mile from the shore. Their only shelter was a tim-ber tower erected on the crib, and until that was washed away the men were not believed to be in any danger. It was a close question for them, however. After that time, as the water went over the crib again and again in blinding sheets, crowds of people lined the shore, anxiously watch-ing the crib, from which a distress signal fluttered. The contractors made frantic efforts to get the men away, and offered the tug companies any amount of mone to make the rescue, but the tug men said it would be useless to make the effort. The men were rescued this morning, after a

THE LOSS OF THE CUMMINGS. Five Men and a Woman Drowned, D spite the Efforts of Life Savers.

MILWAUKEE, May 19.—A fierce gale from the northward raged on Lake Michigan yesterday, and a tremendous sea is awseping into the bay. The schooner M. J. Cummings entered the bay at about 8 o'clook and dropped her anchors off Mich-igan avenue, but they fuiled to hold, and the vessel drifted southward and shore ward until she reached the breakers, when she evidently filled through her cabin and forecastle, and went down in twenty feet of water.

The crew took to the rigging, but pe The crew took to the rigging, out peo-ple on shore say they saw two men swept over the stern of the schooner when she went down. The life saving crew went out into the lake and drifted down to the wreck of the Cummings, but at the crit-ical moment when the men might have been rescued a huge wave swept along and carried the lifeboat, with its brave crew, towards Hay View, where they were swept into the breakers. The life saving crew managed to reach shore safely at Bay View. They returned to the station immediately and made another effort to rescue the crew of the Cummings. Five men and a woman perished in the wreck of the Cummings before the life saving crew reached the wreck. One of the crew and a life saver were rescued. The men who perished fell from their perches in the crosstrees to the water and sank out of sight. The body of the woman is still lashed to the rigging.

Six thousand people lined the piers and shores of Jones Island and the main land when the tug Knight Templar towed a scow bearing the life savers left the pier to make the rescue of the crew. When the surf boat was within fifty yards of the wreck a human figure that had been clinging to the rigging of the misseamast was seen to throw up its hands and fall backward into the boiling waves, being instantly lost to sight. A short time before another of those cling-ing to the ropes had also let go his hold ing to the ropes had also let go his hold and perished. A groan went up from the crowd as each body was lost to sight, and then all eyes centered on the surf boat as it dropped back beside the sunken vessel. Two figures slowly descended the shrouds of the mizzenment and clung to the lines but a few feet above the waves.

Five minutes passed as attempt after attempt was made by the life savers to swing the lifeboat near the waiting men. Oue figure was seen to leap from the rigging and land in the boat. Two minutes later a man sprang far out. Slowly the long line that holds the surfboat was paid out and two rescued men were permitted to drift toward the shore—one mement lost to sight in the foaming breakers and again alive and sure of rescue as the boat se on the top of some mighty billow.

Along the beach at the foot of Jones Island a crowd ran to meet the reso men, and willing hands were stretched out to them, and they were dragged to a place of safety.

The dead are: Captain John McCullough, Marine City; Mate Timothy Bo Buffalo; Thomas Tuscott, sailor, Marine City; unknown sailor, Marine City; sailor named "Jim," Marine City; cook (woman), unknown, Buffalo. Saved: Robert Patterson, Kingston,
