HOW THE MADRIS LIVE.

Their Food, Dress, Occupations and Homa and Church Beligious Ceremonies.

The Maori lives mainly on the food that nature has provided, but adds to it provi-sion of various kinds imported from other lands. His native cloth (tappa) has long gone out of use, and European fabrics have taken its place. The men are clad in Engtaken its place. The nen are clad in Eng-lish style, though seldom wearing shoes. The women, also shockess, as a rile, dress with taste and abjure gorgeous colors, sham jewelry and loud display, but are greedy of hee trimmings, carrich feathers, artificial flowers and adornments of a sim-liar kind. To pay for their new wants, the copra of commerce is made from the dried fruit of the cocoanut.

Cotton is ploked, or the magnificent or

DETERMINED TO MAKE TROUBLE

Striking Slave and Italians Attack Depu-ties at Latrobe.

Latrone, Pa., May 22.—Interest in the strike situation here has the call over the flood excitement. The state of affairs is extremely critical in this region, and trouble is imminent. The attempt to resume work yesterday by the Latrobe Coal company was met by unit opposition, principally was met by unity opposition. work yesterday by the Latrobe Goal com-pany was met by ugly opposition, princi-pally from a big mob of Slavs and Ital-ians. Only one man was allowed to go to work. The mob was in an ugly mood, and the strikers were armed with clubs, bars of iron, big steel rods and other weapons, proving very formidable in the hands of these victous foreigners. At the Lagionier works about a mile from At the Ligionier works, about a mile from a town, a dozen deputies were confronted by a mob of about twenty-five strikers, armed with clubs and revolvers. The deputies were attacked from the rear, and one of them was struck over the head with a club and another blow over the arms and his rifle wrested from him. arms and his rine wrested from him.

Many men are trying to get back to work, but the strikers are guarding every point.

Nine-tenths of the strikers are not Euglish-speaking, and they are determined to make trouble.

Breckinridge's Probable Successor,

LEXISOTON, Ky. May 22. — Colonel Breckridge was shown up in all its wick-edness by Hon. William C. Owens in his initial address to the people of Scott county yesterday. Mr. Owens was greeted by a large crowd, filling the ball at Georgetown to overflowing, and many who desired in the control of the control who desired admittance were turnest away. Fully 300 women were present wearing Owens' Indiges, and they Joined in the applicase in a manner that showed that the womanhood of the district is bittrely opposed to sending Breakingridge back to congress. The applause was abmost continuous throughout the speech, showing that Owens was well received. Resolutions certifying to the good character of the Scott county man were passed by a rishing vote.

Marsiand Strikers Quiet.
Comminiano, Md., May 22.—Everything is quiet in the George's Creek mining region, despite the threats made by the strikers Sunday to keep the workmen out of the mines by force if necessary. No violence was offered, but this was probably due to the presence of the deputy sheriffs and the arrest of three rioters on Saturday. The three mines of the Considiation company are operating on full time and are turning out 3,000 tons of coal a day. Others will start up this week. The strikers have been making strong efforts at Frostburg and from that place to Marriand Strikers Quiet. forts at Frontburg and from that place to Eckhart mine to prevent the miners from going to work. Some of the strikers were arrested for interfering with the men.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE

An Amendment to Place Iron Ore on the Free List Defented.

WASHINGTON, May 92.—The senute held an eight hour session yesterday, from 16 until 6. The entire time was sound debating the proposed senses duty or forty cents per ton on iron are. The house bill placed iron are on the free list, and the Republicans took occasion to taunt the Democrats with incensistency and with being false to their pledges to give the country free raw materials when they obtained control of the government. Some very sharp encounters occurred. Only one vote was taken, and this was on Mr. Peller's amendment to transfer iron ore to the free list. Senator Hill, of New York, Reans voted against it.

The early part of the day's proceedings in the house was devoted to a legal discussion concerning an amendment de-claring that the statute which directs the sergeant-at-arms to make deductions from the salaries of members on account of absence had been repealed. The chairman ruled the amendment out of order, but was in turn overruled by the house on an appeal. The amendment was then adopted. The Democrats declared that a sep arate yea and may vote on the amendment would be demanded in the house. In the morning Mr. Paul J. Sorg, recently elec-ted to succeed the late Representative Houk, of Ohio, was sworn in amid cheers from the Democrats.

End of Popular Government in Servia. BELGHADE, May 22. — King Alexander ms accomplished another coup d'etsi. A royal proclamation issued this morning abolishes the constitution of 1888 and reatores that of 1800, giving the king the right to appoint one-third of the members of the chamber of deputies. With the restoration of the old constitution the accret ballot ceases and the electoral sys-tem of Scrutin de Liste is abrogated. The king has taken this step upon the advice of his father, ex-King Milan. Under the orders of the king Premier Nicolaiovitch will at once reorganize the cabinet.

Kulp for Congress.

SUNBURY, Pa., May 22. — The Repub-liesn county convention met in the court house here yesterday. Only one delegate from the Upper River and of the county was present. These nominations were made: Congress, Monroe H. Kulp, of Shamokin; legislature, Grant Newberry, of Northumberland, and W. Rhoads, of Herndon: register and recorder, Frederick Hass, of Shamokin: jury commissioner, Etner Kelly, of Sunbury. The delegates to the state convention were instructed for Hastings and Robinson.

The Coke Strike a Fallure,

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 22.—The coke strikers made quite a round-up at Par-chauce, but were able to stop only a few men from going to work at the regular time. These, however, went to work at a later hour. The Fairchause Purname company has five diggers at work. Martin and Kyle report increased forces. Oliver also reports increased forces. At Dunhar overything is quiet. The general impres-sion is that this week will see the men break and the strike a failure.

which now numbers mentions among all prominent men of the county.

An attempt was made to burglarize the German Catholic church Sunday night, but the marauders were fruhtened and made their escape before taking any of the gold plate stored about the building. Their presence in the church was first made known to the priest by an electric alarm connecting with his house. This was at 11:30. The priest ran to a window and shouted "fire." Several young men passing by, took up the alarm and ran to be churches. The front door was unlocked and a basty search made of the church, but finding no one, the party left, satisfied that the alarm was false. Shortly after ward another darm came to the parsonage and on going back again, the searchers found a broken lamp belonging in the building, and an open window through which the burglars had made their entrance and escape. No trade has since been found of the marauders.

West Virgin & Mines Still Idla. WHERLING, W. Va., May 22.—The effort of the Elm Grove company to start their
