The large 125-point turtle, which was on exhibition at the Minchoff Bros. hotel, met death by the hands of Gus Minchoff yesterday afternoon and is being prepared for the Decoration Day visitors.

The Anhauser-Busch special brew beer, which took the gold medal at the World's Columbian exposition for delicacy of flavor, is now on sale at Minchoff's Hotel Palace Square. Try it.

Andy Curran, James Copley, Misses Whitaker, Ryan and Dolan, Matt Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hoppes, of this place, witnessed the production of "The Old Homestead" at Shenandoah last night.

T. F. Gorman, general agent for the Rochester Brewing Company, has just completed his new office in the Mansion House block. The case work was built by Isaac Ball and is of unique construction and in all respects work. The whole given a beautiful appearance by stained glass.

The May pole party held at the Armory Hall, given by Prof. Holt and wife to his pupils, proved to be one of the grandest events of the season. The hall opened with many strange faces present. Besides the representation of many homes of town, The May pole celebration was arranged in very artistic style and was the main feature of the evening. Miss Marie Liverman assumed the part of the May Queen with excellent success. The skirt dance was also a very pleasing feature. Prof. Holt deserves praise for the affair. After the class had exhibited its skill in dancing the older people in attendance enjoyed themselves. The music was furnished by Prof. Jones' orchestra. Among those present were Maud Thirion, Sadie VanHorn, Emily Sunday, Sallie Hermann, Ellen McMillan, Mame Grace, Rosie and Ella Cleary, Asia and Hawthorne Lyons, Nellie Hagenbush, Marie Liverman, Lillian Riches, Elsie Myers, Lizzie Kaiser, Lizzie, Emily and Mary Llewellyn, Phoebe Snyder, William McMillan, Eva and Edna Lewis, Mr. Matt Stein and wife, Mr. Will Patterson, Mr. Reed, of Delano; Harry Krebs, I. Richardson, Hattie Porter, Bessie Little, M. M. McMillan, G. I. Sunday and wife, Miss Malina Mangle, Miss Maggie Kaiser, George Garrett, Charles Hendrick, Joseph Newman, Harry Harris, Miss Bowman, Manager Powers, of the Pottsville base ball club; Miss Lillian Whitman, Shenandoah; Mrs. A. P. Blakiese, daughter and son, of Delano; Miss Allen, of Tamaqua; Misses Zimmerman and Powers, Pottsville.

Hungarian Conspirators Sentenced.

BUDA PESTH, May 26.—The trial at Klausenburg of twenty-three members of the executive committee of the Roumanian national party in Hungary, on the charge of treason, in causing the publication of a document denouncing the act of union of Austria and Hungary, is concluded. Twenty of the prisoners were convicted and sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from eight months to five years and to pay the costs of publishing their sentences in all newspapers. Three were acquitted.

A Candidate for Legal Hanging.

ROANOKE, Va., May 26.—Fred Hairston, a negro about 22 years old, was arrested yesterday for outraging Blanche, the 15-year-old daughter of Henry W. Littell, on the 10th inst. Hairston suspected that his crime had become known, and seeing a policeman enter the yard he dashed into the kitchen and slashed his throat with a razor. After a terrible struggle he was disarmed, and his wound was dressed. He was sent to Lynchburg to prevent the people from taking the law into their own hands.

Massey Held for Murder.

BORLINGTON, N. J., May 26.—The coroner's jury in the case of Miss Lizzie Holloway says that she came to her death from the results of wounds inflicted by a blunt instrument in the hands of William Massey. The coroner then committed Massey to the Burlington county jail to await the action of the October term of court. Isaac Teiman will defend the prisoner. By advice of his counsel Massey made no statement.

An Unrepentant Murderer.

MACON, Ga., May 26.—Henry Miller (colored) was hanged here yesterday for the murder of John Braswell on Sept. 19, 1893. Miller denied the crime to the last, but acknowledged being present when it was done and robbing the dead man's pockets. He also confessed to having killed four men, and said he belonged to a band of Kuklux. He made no profession of religion, and said he could live as long in hell as in anybody else.

A Satisfactory Wage Scale.

PITTSBURGH, May 26.—The scale of wages which has just been determined upon by the Amalgamated Association of Tin, Iron and Steel Workers at the Cleveland convention meets the approval of organized labor in the Pittsburgh district. The scale has been changed to enable friendly manufacturers to compete with the non-union labor mills, where the scale of prices in Amalgamated mills is not observed.

A Reverend Confidence Man.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Rev. George S. V. Howard was arrested here yesterday, charged with working a confidence game. Howard was ordained a Methodist minister in New York, was once a Prohibition candidate for congress from Indiana and has preached in several Indiana towns. He was indicted in April for passing worth less checks, released on bond and jumped his bail, evading recapture until yesterday.

Smith Case Nearing the End.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 26.—The proceedings in the Smith case, which is an appeal against the heresy proceedings at Cincinnati, yesterday reached the last order, and the members began to give expression to their individual views as the roll was called. Forty-five three minute speeches were delivered, and the trend of opinion was shown by the fact that only eleven of them were in favor of sustaining the appeal. The proceedings concluded with a speech made by a member of the prosecuting committee. A vote is expected today.

Burns Declines a Cabinet Office.

LONDON, May 26.—The Times says that Lord Rosebery declined to accept the office of the labor leader, a position in the government when Mr. Gladstone resigned, and again when Mr. Mundella resigned. Mr. Burns declined on both occasions to accept office, giving as his reason that he was best able to serve the interests of workingmen on the outside.

A Fine Production.

Notwithstanding the complaints of the hard times and the fact that all the collieries in this district were idle for a week and the general depression of spirits and business caused by the recent heavy and lengthy rain falls with their accompanying floods, and notwithstanding the prices of admission were fixed at 25, 50 and 75 cents and 81, the production of "The Old Homestead" at Ferguson's theatre last night was witnessed by a crowded house. The lower part of the theatre was filled with prominent ladies and gentlemen, many of them being visitors from the neighboring towns. The gathering was one to make a stranger believe that Shenandoah is now one of the most prosperous towns in the country when all other places are benighted by the depression of times. But while such is not the case it carries with it a lesson, which is, that a first-class play and a first-class company can fill the theatre whether the times be good or bad and the prices high or low. It can be said without fear of contradiction that a play and company never appeared in Shenandoah and gave more general satisfaction than "The Old Homestead" did last night. Enthusiasm sprang from all parts of the theatre and the large audience seemed to be in rapturous delight at all stages of the play where the company sought to make a special impression. The play was one of the good, old fashioned, homespun life of the New England folks. It was free from the clamor attending plays which depend upon mechanical effects for realism and not a iota of blood-thrilling dramatic play penetrated a scene. Yet all was exceedingly attractive and through the whole was a beautiful thread of sentiment which appealed to the gentle feelings of the auditors and held their attention to the last. The peals of laughter were numerous and at times the people almost cried in their enjoyment of the story of life which was so naturally revealed by the play. The stage arrangements were complete in every detail and the company proved a well balanced one to the last. The singing by the quartettes also took the house by storm and three encores loudly seemed to satisfy the audience. With more entertainments like "The Old Homestead" Mr. Ferguson will succeed in convincing the patrons of his theatre that life is worth living, after all.

A MAN OF BROAD ACRES.

What Thomas Harrison of North Dakota Owes to Paine's Celery Compound.

The world has had in all just 15 decisive battles. But every man has in his lifetime more decisive battles than this. The important epochs in man's life that settle for him wealth, position, and often life itself, come without warning.

Weakness, indecision and lack of nerve force at these turning points is fatal. In long and doubtful sickness, when life itself trembles in the balance, a little more strength and power of resistance to disease makes the difference between life and death.

Thin people with depleted, diseased blood run big risks. Careful men and women all over the country are building up their systems and storing the nerve centers with energy now it is spring. They are taking that remarkable blood purifier and nerve food, Paine's celery compound.

It cannot be repeated too often that the blood is the fountain which supplies every part of the body. If this life-giving medium lacks vigor and richness, nerves, brain, heart, kidneys, and lungs immediately suffer. The weakest spot will give way first.

If you find yourself growing thin, nervous, without appetite—look out. You are starving some important organ through inappropriate nutrition.

Thomas Harrison is the proprietor of the famous Harrison farms of North Dakota. He holds the office of notary public, and is coroner of Traill county. He writes from Blanchard, No. Dakota: "Two years ago, when the grip was prevalent in this country, I suffered very much from this trouble. The disease lingered with me until it developed into catarrh of the head. For this loathsome trouble I tried many remedies advertised for catarrh without any permanent relief, and while spending the winter of 92-93 in Los Angeles I was treated by a specialist without any better results. Seeing Paine's celery compound advertised, I tried it, not expecting much relief, as I thought that I could not be cured. I used one bottle as directed, and was entirely and permanently cured. This was over six months ago, and I have not experienced a return of any of the symptoms, though I have been exposed to the inclement weather in North Dakota and have not caught the least cold after cold all winter. I will cheerfully answer any inquiries as to the correctness of my statements. Many around here are using the compound on the strength of my recommendation. It makes people well."

LOST CREEK.

Miss Maggie Smith, of Raven Run, is spending the week with the Toland family.

Michael Munley, of No. 2, is laid up with rheumatism.

Robert Gersford announces himself as a Democratic candidate for Sheriff.

Wm. Bradbury, of Omaha, Neb., who has been spending the past two months with Druggist Johnson, will leave for Pottsville to accept a position.

W. W. Wilcox, of St. Carmel, at one time proprietor of the drug store at this place, paid a visit to friends here.

John McIntyre and family will move to New York in a day or two.

Dan Grow, of Wm. Penn, who runs a restaurant here, will move his family to Lost Creek.

Prof. M. H. Carey will, in June, be married to one of Wm. Penn's fairest young maids.

Frank Langton, of Ashland, who wants to be Schuylkill county's next Sheriff, was here yesterday fixing his political fences.

The funeral of the late Michael Reynolds, who was burned at Wm. Penn colliery, occurred yesterday and was one of the largest ever seen here. The remains were buried at St. Joseph's cemetery, Girardville.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tistler, a prominent merchant of the town gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says she was well in forty minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by Grainger Bros.
