ONE DEATH THUS FAR REPORTED

Buildings and Railroad Tracks Washed Away, and Great Damage to Growing Crops-Churches Damaged by Light-

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—This city was visited by a violent thunder storm yester-day afternoon that lasted for over an hour, and was accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and torrents of rain. While the storm was at its height lightning struck the lighter Mars at the Williams street wharf, instantly killing John Og-den, sged 75 years, the mate, and severely burning Captain Edward Knickerbocker, the owner of the vessel. Reports from suburban districts show considerable damage from the storm. At Lafayette, a small town on the banks of the Schuyl-kill, a dam burst, wrecking two buildings and injuring the Reading railroad tracks. Lightning siruck the dome of the Montgomery county almshouse, near Norris-town, and shattered the frame of the structure. There was a panic among the inmates, several of whom were stunned, but not seriously injured.

Buildings Washed Away.

Normistown, Pa., May 29.—A cloud-burst in Lower Merion township, this county, caused damage to property to the extent of $75,000. The chemical works, owned by James Hall, the West Conshohocken Carpet works and several outbuildings were washed away, and the shoddy mills of Markland Brothers were badly wrecked by the debris from these buildings. The tracks of the Philadel-phia and Reading railroad are piled up like the panels of a rail fence. The State ad and Crawford avenue have been en tirely obliterated, and Aramingo creek has been changed from its channel into a new one. The damage to crops is said to be very great.

Seminary Struck by Lightning

BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 29.—A cloud burst over this section yesterday afternoon, deluging the highways, and flooding the cel-lars and lower floors of many residences in the city. The Sun hotel block was inin the city. The Sun hotel block was in-undated and the stores in it sustained con-siderable damage. During the storm lightning struck the Moravian seminary, but it did little damage to the building. In other localities several barns were burned by lightning strokes. Hallstones as large as bazel nuts fell, and the damage to growing crops is probably very Farmers Greatly Alarmed.

READING, Pa., May 29.-This section was deluged by a cloudburst, which did great damage. The cellars of one hundred and deniged by a continuous of one hundred and twenty-five houses in this city were filled with water, and streets were torn up, the material being carried away by the rushing waters. Several severe washouts are reported along the line of the Columbia and Reading railroad, and the tracks were washed out in numerous cases. The farmers were greatly alarmed, but no serious damage to crops has been reported.

Lightning Damages a Church. COLUMBIA, Pa., May 29.—The most vio-lent thunder storm of years visited this place yesterday. Lightning struck the steeple of the United Brethern church, tearing a hole in the roof, and injuring the structure to the extent of $1,000. Several bystanders were severely shocked. The heavy rainfall flooded cellars and did onsiderable other damage.

The Storm in Union County. LEWISUURO, Pa., May 29.-The western portion of Union county was visited by a terrific hall and thunder storm, which did immense damage to fruit trees and growing wheat and corn.

Industrials Show Signs of Hardship. DENVER, May 29.—Last night 375 Coxey-ites reached here from Salt Lake over the Denver and Rio Grande road. Two hundred of the men were the Utah contingent under the command of General Carter. The remainder are from California and have been forty-nine days on the road from outhern California. They report havin experienced terrible hardships on the Utah desert, and show signs of having under-gone moral distress. These men are by gone moral distress. These men are by far the best looking industrials that have arrived here.

Three Saved from Drowning.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—The sail bont Susie Buckley was capsized in the Dela-ware river and the occupants, James Par-ker, George Smith and Samuel Jones, of Port Richmond, became tangled in the rigging and were nearly drowned. Five of the crew of the revenue cutter Hamilton went to their rescue and saved them after much difficulty.

Fire at Tyrone.

TYHONE, Pa., May 29.—The building owned by Samuel Berlin, and partially occupied by the restaurant of Mrs. S. E. L. Miller, and the furniture store of George W. Port adjoining were destroyed by fire at an early hour in the morning, and the iwelling of Mr. Berlin, in the rear of his building, damaged.

Blow at the A. P. A. HOCKFORD, Ills., May 29.—Judge Crab-tree overruled the motion to dissolve the injunction restraining Mayor Hutchins, A. P. A., from removing Edward Heffran, Catholic, from the position of fire marshal. This is considered a hard blow for the A

Found Behended.

JENSEN, Fla., May 29.—Miss Carrie Kaiser, a young lady 22 years old, was found murdered in the woods near Jen-sen. The head had been severed from the body, and there were signs that she had made a desperate struggle for life.

Fatal Hotel Fire.

BONHAM, Tex., May 29.—The Columbian hotel at Ladonia burned yesterday. The guests all escaped, but with little else than their night robes, except C. Lewis. He burned to death in sight and hearing of the frightened spectators.

First Peaches of the Season SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.— Local commission merchants have received con signments of peaches, being the first of the season. The fruit was shipped in from the Vacaville ranch of Peter Ditto and sold for $1.50 per box.

AMERICANS AND RUSSIA

Alleged Breach of Treaty by the Russian Government.

RABBI KRAUSKOPF'S COMPLAINT.

The Emineut Hebrew Ecclesisetic of Philadelphia, Refused Admission to Russie, Formally Brings the Matter Before Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 29. - Resolutions were submitted by Representative Raynor, of Maryland, to the house today, reciting that the Russian government has denied admission to that country of Rabbi Kraus-kopf, an eminent Hebrew secieslastic of Philadelphia, and that this action by Russia is a breach of the treaty which gives American citizens rights to enter ojourn and travel in Russia the same a tussian citizens are admitted to thi country. The resolution will direct the state department to make a demand on Russia for the full observance of the treaty, and in case of a refusal will direct the severance of all treaty relations with

Dr. Krauskopf came here recently, and was accompanied by Representative Treacy and Representative Straus in calls on President Cleveland, Secretary Gresham and other officials. It was then arranged that Secretary Gresham should notify the Russian government of Dr. Krauskopf's proposed visit and ascertain if there was proposed visit and ascertain it there was any objection. The response came quickly that the canr's officials could not permit the visit. Mr. Haynor at once drew his resolution, but it has been held back pending certain negotiations with Russia oncerning Behring sea.

Mr. Raynor says the case of Dr. Kranskopf presents the first lastic on the trenty rights of Americans to enter Russia. There have been other congressional reso lutions concerning Jews, but they have related to Russian Jews coming to this country. Mr. Raynor now presents the question of the treaty right of an Ameri-can to go to Rassia without reference to his religion or former nationality. The proposed voyage of Dr. Krauskopf was for the purpose of visiting the nine province within which Russia restricts the Jew-and to ameliorate their condition.

Net Back for Breckinridge.

Washington, May 29.—Judge Bradley overruled the motion made by counsel for Colonel William C. P. Breckinridge to file a bill of exceptions by virtue of which the suit of Miss Madeline Pollard against him might be carried to a higher court on ap peal. This action was taken because of the objection made by counsel for Miss Pollard that Mr. Breckinridge had not compiled with the law requiring that the bill of exceptions be furnished to them within three days, Sundays excluded, be-fore the expiration of the time within which the motion to file had been made. The effect of this apparently will be to prevent an appeal being taken.
