Some one, evidently a wag, recently started the story in Kansas that Senator Peffer has become superstitious, and always gets out of bed on one side of it.

REPRESENTATIVE BERKINRIDER is down on the newspapers. He declares that his "experience with newspaper men the past two months leads him to believe that they do not know how to tell the truth."

WILKESBARR, Pa., June 4.—Walter Gaston, superintendent of the Hazard Rope works, of this city, who occupied room 33 in the Arlington hotel, Washington, at the time of the alleged conference in room 34 between members of the sugar trust and certain United States senators,

A DEMAND TO POSTPONE. The "Star-Eyed Goddess," Hon. Henry Watterson, in his paper, The Louisville Courier-Journal, which almost every one knows is one of the ablest and rankest of Democratic papers, calls upon the Democratic President and the Democratic majority in Congress to cease fumbling with the tariff, transact the necessary business of the session and adjourn.

Count Hedervary Gives It Up. VIENNA, June 3.—Count Hedervary, who was attempting to form a ministry in Hungary to succeed that of Dr. Wekerle, has telegraphed to Emperor Francis Joseph that he is unable to form a cabinet.

Through an Open Switch to Death. ALTON, Ill., June 4.—A Bluff bus work train ran into a string of cars three miles east of here. The accident was caused by an open switch. Engineer Barnard was killed and Fireman Harrison badly wounded. Six of the workmen were injured.

Teeth Extraction Causes Death. READING, Pa., June 4.—Albert S. Tobias, an employe of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company at this place, died last night, in horrible agony from blood poisoning, the result of having had several teeth extracted a few days ago.

IT'S A SECRET.—that many women owe their beauty to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The reason—beauty of form and face, as well as grace, radiance from the common center—health. The best bodily condition results from good food, fresh air, and exercise, coupled with the judicious use of the "Prescription."

IN THE SADDLE.

Not since the war has the South been so completely in the saddle as now. Go where you will, says the Media American, to any department in Washington, and the southern dialect prevails, just as it did with those who were "perfect gentlemen before the war." There are 118 Democrats from the Southern states in the House—a third of the whole body. They act as a unit and are always in their seats.

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS

Prepared to Extend the Working Day for Senators.

VOTE ON THE SUGAR SCHEDULE.

Some Senators Believe That This May Be Reached Tomorrow, While Others Assert That It Will Be Delayed Until the Latter Part of the Week.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The sugar schedule will again this week be the central point around which the proceedings in the senate will revolve. Among numerous senators who were asked for their opinion as to when the debate on this schedule would cease, not one would attempt to fix a definite time. The discussion has already proceeded for three days, which is the utmost time that Democratic senators would admit before the debate was begun, would be necessary or allowed to it.

Among other lines of policy which have been conversed among the opponents of the bill is that of allowing the sugar schedule to be accepted as amended by the committee on finance without taking any vote on the schedule in a committee of the senate, the object being that the opponents of the bill shall not be forced to show their hands at this time, and especially that they may refrain from exhibiting their supposed strength among Democratic and Populist senators.

The Republicans will probably resist the attempt to extend the sessions beyond 6 o'clock to the extent of at least demanding that a quorum be maintained, and some of them will decline to assist in making a quorum. The Democrats appreciate this difficulty, and will make an effort to have a nearly a quorum of Democrats as possible on hand to meet this emergency.

Senator Harris said today that when the night sessions were once begun they would be continued until the bill should be finally disposed of. Meantime they will maintain their efforts to get the Republicans to agree to fix a day for the final vote.

The outlook for the week in the house of representatives is so much in doubt that a Democratic caucus may be necessary to agree on a plan of action. The state bank question has been debated until the leaders are anxious for a vote. But debate has shown the state bank man that they are liable to be defeated by inability to agree on any one of the many plans discussed.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 4.—As a direct result of the high water in the Missouri river the once prosperous village of Winthrop, thirty miles south of St. Joseph, will soon be wiped off the face of the earth. The Missouri river this year began cutting the edge of the town and today half of the place has melted into the river.

Killed by a Falling Tree. CARLEISLE, Pa., June 4.—William Keeney, a son of Michael Keeney, of this city, was killed near Hatton, in the South mountain. The young man went into the mountain with a farmer named Miller. They were stopped by a tree which a storm had blown across the road.

A Whole Family Committed Suicide. BERLIN, June 4.—Carl Seeger, a master painter, with his wife and four children, committed suicide by taking cyanide of potassium. A paper, signed by the whole family, showed that they had all consented to die by poison. The cause of this wholesale suicide was the fact that Seeger was without means on account of the failure to collect money due him for work done upon some new buildings.

Fatally Shot at an Election. CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 4.—Gus Higginbotham, at Elk City, shot William Mills on Saturday. There was an election, and Mills challenged Higginbotham's vote. Mills said he would not allow his vote to be challenged by a "murderer," alluding to a current report. The row became general and culminated in Higginbotham fatally shooting Mills. He was arrested and hurried to jail to avoid lynching.

Robbed by Masked Burglars. BRIDGETON, N. J., June 4.—Three masked burglars early in the morning entered the house of the Misses Elizabeth and Katie Fox, at Friendship, three miles from this city, and after securely binding the two maiden ladies with ropes, under threats of death they secured $700 in cash, which was concealed about the place. The men are believed to be residents of the Jewish settlement of Rosenhayn.

Fell Two Hundred Feet. HAZLETON, Pa., June 4.—While William Brennan and Michael Nepolita were lowering some timber in a shaft at the Green Mountain colliery they were dragged into the cavity and precipitated 200 feet to the bottom. The clogged timber broke their fall and prevented instant death, but their men are probably fatally injured.

Socialist Demonstration Suppressed. PARIS, June 4.—The demonstration by the socialists in commemoration of the "bloody week of the Commune," which it was proposed to make yesterday at the cemetery of Pere la Chaise, was abandoned. Attempts were made by the socialists to hold meetings elsewhere, but the police interfered and suppressed them.

FOUGHT AT THE DEATHBED

Disgraceful Quarrel Over the Property Left by a Dying Father.

New York, June 4.—Worth $35,000 John Lane, who had been a private in the Fourth United States artillery during the war, died at 3 o'clock Saturday morning at his home on West Thirty-fifth street.

The solemn rite had scarcely been finished before Daniel began a dispute over the question of inheritance with his brother. The old man was in the last agonies, but made a feeble gesture for Daniel to stop. The younger son continued to talk until Michael tried to lead him from the bedside. Daniel then knocked Michael down. The two struggled and finally Michael subdued his powerful brother. He pinned him to the floor. A neighbor hurried for a policeman and as Daniel was taken from the bed chamber to jail the old man died. In the Jefferson Market police court yesterday Daniel Lane was fined $10.

British Columbia's Terrible Flood.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 4.—Devastation and ruin have been spread through 100 miles of the Fraser river valley by the awful flood, and the sum of the calamity is not yet in sight. Fraser river has reached the highest point reached in 1852, the year of the great flood, and is still rising. Small mountain streams, turned into roaring torrents, bring down thousands of tons of snow to add to the swelling river. The waters are raging furiously, presenting an appalling panorama of ruin. Blasted carcasses of thousands of sheep and swine, upturned boats or gigantic trees with skeletons rooting in the branches twirl in the mad current. Many people are reported drowned.

Boys Crushed Under a Falling Rock.

SHEPHERDSVILLE, Ky., June 4.—Edward Hertz and Thomas Hart were killed near here by the carelessness of Leo Eckert, a companion, with whom they had been playing. The three boys went to Hazard Rock, a high bluff, and rolled large stones into the valley below. After enjoying the fun for a while Hertz and Hart went below to view the damage done by the rolling rocks. While they were in the valley Eckert tried off a ledge of rock hanging on the brink, which went down with a tremendous crash, tearing down trees and shrubbery and crushing the two boys to death.

Lancaster's Water Famine.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 4.—A water famine, which has threatened Lancaster ever since a break occurred in the principal main a week ago, reached the acute stage last night when the reservoir supplying the city became entirely empty. There is not now, and will not be until tonight, a drop of water available for the use of the citizens and manufacturing establishments. All of the latter have been compelled to suspend operations until a new main is put in. The people will have to depend upon wells for drinking water.

Death from Opium Poisoning.

BALTIMORE, June 4.—Walter M. Busbee, a young attorney and a member of one of the most important North Carolina families, died here yesterday in the city hospital from opium poisoning. He had been on an spree and was picked up on the street last night in a comatose condition. He had in his possession letters of recommendation from leading citizens of North Carolina, and also one from Hon. Hoke Smith. He had recently held a position in the interior department.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 4.—Gus Higginbotham, at Elk City, shot William Mills on Saturday. There was an election, and Mills challenged Higginbotham's vote. Saved My Life

65 Worth of Hood's Sarsaparilla

Severe Case of Nicotine Poisoning. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.," "Gentlemen:—I write these lines to certify that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of a most painful disease from which I have suffered the past four years.

Blood Would Start from the eruptions on my legs and body. I had to wear bandages all the time. My eyes were badly swollen, my back in terrible condition. One physician said it was weed poison, another eczema, and the last told me it was Nicotine Poisoning, and that I would have to go to a physician who made a specialty of my disease.

A Perfect Cure. I am free from sores, have a good appetite, no dull feelings, and that continual sick headache is gone. This wonderful cure has only cost me five dollars. The small amount of money has saved my life. I cannot praise it enough." W. A. BOOTH, Indiana, Pennsylvania.
