On a "Flyer" 70 Minutes to the Sea.

"It's not the miles we travel, but—the way we ride that counts. Eddie Breckerton Probably Murdered.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 8.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of little Eddie Breckerton, of Asa, is at last solved. Mrs. Breckerton, who went to Danville in response to a summons, has identified the body found in the river as that of her boy. It seems undoubted that the boy was kidnapped and thrown into the river by his abductors to avoid capture.

Sometime ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. Simon Goldbaum, San Luis Rey, Cal. For sale by Grubler Bros.

BILL DALTON DEAD.

The Notorious Outlaw Shot While Trying to Escape.

ARMORE, I. E., June 8.—Bill Dalton, the noted outlaw and leader of the famous band of outlaws, was killed yesterday. One of his pals visited Ardmore yesterday and by incautious talking aroused the suspicions of the deputy marshals, who organized and surrounded the robbers near a little town named Elk, about twenty miles distant.

While the men were taking their position Dalton was seen to come out, look around, and immediately return. The officers on the east side were discovered by him through a window or by some women in the house, and pistol in hand, he jumped through a window on the north and started to run east. Clos Hart, one of the deputies, was less than thirty yards from the house, and called on him to halt. Dalton turned around, tried to take aim while running, and just then the officer shot.

Two jumps in the air were the only motions made. His pistol fell from his hand and he sank to the ground, and Hart ran up and asked him what he was doing there, but he expired without a word. The house was searched and over a hundred and fifty letters and numerous rolls of crisp bank bills found. The addresses proved him to be Bill Dalton and the money proved him to be the leader of the Longview bank robbers.

A DULL DAY IN CONGRESS

Senators Make but Little Progress on the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Yesterday's proceedings in the house were enlivened by Mr. Walker's (Mass.) complaint of the poor ventilation of the house and the incapacity of the architect of the Capitol, and by Mr. Woodcock's (Mich.) reply to the attack of Mr. Linton on the Catholic church. The conference report on the Pennsylvania and New Jersey bridge bill was adopted and a resolution authorizing the Maryland state courts to occupy for five years the old United States court house in Baltimore was agreed to. Mr. Brown (Pa.) protested against the reduction of the appropriation for Indian schools. At 4:50 the house took a recess until 8 p. m., the evening session being devoted to pension bills.

An agreement was reached in the senate to proceed with the agricultural schedule, covering about ten pages of the tariff bill, under the five minute rule, but the progress was almost as slow as before the arrangement was made. Eight paragraphs, comprising about a page and a half of the bill, was disposed of. The debate was rather dull, although there were occasional sharp exchanges, which indicated that the prolonged daily sessions have soured the usually calm temper of the senate. Before the tariff was taken up Mr. Hoar's resolution to inquire into the advisability of releasing the claim of the government against the Leland Stanford estate was laid on the table.

The Flood in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 9.—The Willamette river has fallen two inches in this city since Thursday. The water will subside very slowly, and a recession of not more than a foot is expected within the next ten days. News of a distressing character is being brought in by steamerboat captains. The Union Pacific Railroad and Navigation company will lose in the neighborhood of $5,000,000. On the Lewis river the loss will run into the thousands. Woodland, a town of 800 population, is completely submerged. At Ocean Park a good sized two story house drifted in, but the breakers soon converted it into kindlings.

A Brutal Murderer Hanged.

SPRINGFIELD, Va., June 9.—Lawrence Spiller, a powerful mulatto of 37 years, was hanged here yesterday. On the night of Saturday, April 28, Spiller waylaid Lottie Rowe, a frail 15-year-old white girl, about two miles east of Staunton, Va., and within 50 yards of her home, struck her escort—Charles Bradford—insensible with a billet, seized the girl, and taking her into an adjoining field, assaulted her. According to Spiller's confession Miss Rowe discovered his identity by a vivid flash of lightning, and he then determined to kill her.

Returned to Face His Accusers.

DENVER, June 9.—Will Perry, ex-clerk of the county treasury, has returned to Denver after having been absent nearly a year in Europe. After his departure his accounts were said to be about about $17,000. Mr. Perry's friends claim he can explain that he is not to blame for his shortage, and it is said he has returned to meet all charges that may be made against him.

Dr. Meyer Gets a Life Sentence.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer, who, after two trials, was convicted of murder in the second degree for poisoning Ludwig Brandt, was sentenced to imprisonment for life by Recorder Smythe in general sessions. Dr. Meyer, who was more than usually pallid, took his sentence without flinching.

OLD PEOPLE OF 30.

Streets of Shenandoah Show Many Examples

Ag'd Faces, Nervous Movements of Young Women.

The Driving Pace of Work and Pleasure.

Revival of the Old Ideal of Strength and Health.

Vigor That Comes From the Proper Course.

Young folks must have strength, above everything.

This good old-fashioned belief is taking firm hold.

It is no longer fashionable even for "dames" and "swells" to be pale, thin, sickly, and nervous (timidity at one time thought "interesting" has given place to a desire for ruddy cheeks, strength of body, a firm, transparent skin, and clear, well-opened eyes.

Young men and young women in Shenandoah are taking Paine's celery compound.

Parents recommend it from long experience; physicians prescribe it where purer blood and stronger nerves are urgently needed.

Growing girls, colorless, nervous, thin, find a quick gain in weight, clearness of skin, and strength.

Tired, weak, sickly women, who look like hospital patients, get rid of distressing nervousness, neuralgia, rheumatism, and "fagged out" feelings by taking this marvelous blood and nerve remedy in the early summer.

Dyspeptics should now take courage. The achievements of modern medical science have placed new and wonderful resources in the hands of medicine and replaced the necessity for drugs. Paine's celery compound makes pure, sturdy blood that reaches every tiny muscle and nerve-fiber in the body and builds up strong, healthy tissues and drives out diseases from heart, liver, kidneys, and stomach.

Tired women get strength from Paine's celery compound.

Business men, brain workers, and constant in-door dwellers secure increased appetite and a more complete digestion and assimilation from this great strength-giver and invigorator.

Paine's celery compound means a return to sound health, a filling out of the thin body with firm flesh, bright eyes, red, pure blood, and quiet, healthy nerves to thousands of anxious, sickly men and women, who are plainly losing strength and hope every day.

Paine's celery compound cures diseases of the nerves and blood and the worst disorders of the liver, kidneys, and stomach, where everything else fails. Paine's celery compound is to the sick better than a vacation in June—and both are good.

CENTRALIA.

Max Levitt, of Shenandoah, was in town yesterday.

Our High school team was defeated by Ashland on Thursday by a score of 9 to 1. The boys put up a strong battling and fielding game but were unable to run the bases.

John McBrearty, of Ashland, attended the commencement here last evening.

Kate Burns and John Burns, of Grandville, were in attendance at the commencement last evening.

The High school commencement held here last evening was a complete success in every feature. The hall was crowded to overflowing, which goes to show how much interest is taken in our schools. The program for the evening was an interesting one. It was opened by the orchestra. Next came a greeting song by the school. Mr. G. W. Davis, president of the School Board, gave a neat address of welcome, after which the orchestra filled the air with beautiful strains of music. Then came the essay of the graduates: Salutatory, "Formative Influences," Ella E. Grant; "The Beauties of Nature," Maggie A. Kinney; "Life is what we make it," Emma M. Davis; "The Little World," Katie B. Reilly; "Our Country's Future," John J. Rooney; "Mental Improvement a Progressive Work," Mary M. Colihan; valedictory, "Intelligence of People as national security," Margaret C. Foye.

Mr. David E. Kellar presented the class with their diplomas after making a pretty address, especially commenting on the class motto: "Our Harvest is the Reaped." The choir rendered "Beautiful Days" in excellent style, and a number of girls produced the flag and fan drills. These little girls cannot receive too much praise. Mr. Edward Williams spoke of the progress of the schools, and entreated the parents to take more interest in them. A spelling match between pupils of the primary school was next on the program, after which Bessie Walsh and James Colihan rendered a duet. The choir closed the exercises. The music furnished by the orchestra was excellent, and it should receive the thanks of the people interested in the school. Mr. Edward Reese was chairman and he announced the audience during several stages. Thus closed the sixtieth annual commencement of our beautiful schools. We extend our congratulations to the class of '94, hoping they will one day reap that harvest for which they are so nobly striving.

I have two little grandchildren who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bonanza, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Grubler Bros.

A DELIGHTFUL TRIP.

Philadelphia Ladies Enjoy an Excursion as Guests of Philadela.

A party of prominent Philadelphia and Germantown ladies have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Titman the past week and as such have shared generously in the royal hospitality for which Mr. Titman is noted. The guests are Mrs. E. R. Bradley, wife of the well known Philadelphia paper manufacturer; Mrs. Eugene Evans, of Germantown, wife of one of the largest cracker manufacturers in Philadelphia; Mrs. Dr. Roop, wife of Germantown's eminent physician, and Mrs. W. Klumbach, of Shamokin.

On Monday morning last these ladies, under the escort of Mr. Titman, left Shenandoah for Williamsport and on Tuesday morning they met Mr. G. R. Brown, superintendent of the Fall Brook Railroad, and a party of ladies and proceeded in General Magee's drawing room car, drawn by the engine "John," to Corning, N. Y., where the night was spent. On Wednesday morning the party was swelled to a membership of twenty-five, principally ladies, and they proceeded in the car to Watkins Glen and Puffinbarger, where they met Mr. J. Van. At the latter place Mr. John Drake's famous yacht, the Madge, the fastest on Cayuga lake, was placed at the disposal of the party and several pleasant hours were spent fitting across the beautiful lake from one point to another. From Puffinbarger the party returned to Corning and from the latter place returned to Corning, covering the distance, 72 miles, in 75 minutes. The special car was drawn by engine No. 18 of the Fall Brook Railroad and the time given includes a stop made for orders. On Thursday the entire party went to Canaan, Lycoming county, and enjoyed a thrilling ride over Mr. Titman's railroad and to his lumber camp, where the party was served with one of the finest dinners ever received at the hands of an experienced caterer. The excursionists then proceeded to Eagles Mere and returned to Shenandoah last evening.

The ladies of the original party remained the guests of Mr. Titman's family last night and at 9:30 this morning started for Corning. On Thursday the party returned to Corning, where they were met by Mr. Titman and his family and they boarded the "Transit" at the P. & R. depot on East Centre street, and became the guests of E. E. Bertolotti, general in charge of the Shamokin division, Philadelphia & Reading Railroad. The "Transit" took them over the Catawissa division to West Milton and back to this town via Shamokin. They will remain as the guests of Mr. Titman's family until Monday morning, when a start will be made for Reading and as guests of P. & R. officials at that place will enjoy trips over the Mt. Penn and Neversink Railroads.
