Prince Mohammed, However, Will Make a Protest Against the Elevation of Abdul Azis, and Trouble Is Feared-Au Absolute Monarchy.

TANGIER, June 12 .- News received here from the interior confirms the report of the death of Sultan Muley Hassan. The sultan's son, Mulai Abdul Aris, has been proclaimed sultan of Morocco. The sulan died suddenly on June 7, at Tada, tween Morocco and Casa Blanca. Measares have been taken to prevent antici-pated disorders. Sensational rumors are in circulation as to the cause of the sul-tan's death, and the populace is becoming excited. The belief prevails that the sul tan was murdered. According to the certificate of the doc tors who attended him, the cause of the sultan's death was dysentery. He was conscious until the end, and expressed the desire that Abdul Aziz should succeed him. There is danger of a revolt being organized by the brother of the deceased, to has been acting as the representative of the sultan at Fitez. The troops at Casa Blanca have accepted the new sovereign, but the allegience elsewhere is doubted. It is reported that Prince Mohammed will make a protest against the proclamation of his elder brother as sultan It is the general opinion that Abdul Aziz is under the protection of the Vizier Sidi Gharnit. who several years ago presented the de ceased sulten with a Circassian beauty La Clarekia, who became sultana and the mother of Abdul Aziz. affairs here, is also regarded as Gharnit's tool, and it is believed that any news in regard to the rebellion among the tribes in the interior will be suppressed at Gharnit's Instigation. Orthodox Mohamme dans are anxiously waiting to hear what attitude the Shereef of Wazan will take in regard to the succession of Abdul Aziz. The steamship Zeus, which has just arrived here from Casa Blanca, reports that there is much anxiety there on account of the disorderly attitude of the people as a result of the sensational rumors in cir culation regarding the death of the sul tan. Caravans arriving from Rabat have already been pillaged, and further dis-order is apprehended. The foreign population of Casa Blanca is making vigorous appeals to the representatives of the for eign powers asking that warships be romptly sent for their protection. The Spanish cruiser Conde Venadito has been ordered to proceed at once to Tan-gier. The transport Legazpi has been dispatched from Mazagan to Tangier to take on board the first installment of the war indemnity paid by Morocco to Spain on account of the Mellila affair. The outlook in Africa is regarded as gloomy, and reinforcements of troops have been ordered to Mellila and other Spanish settle ments in Morocco.

The Spanish government has requested the European powers to act in concert in Morocco to maintain the statu quo and avert a civil war. The powers, including France, have given notice of their acceptance of the suggestion. His Shereeflan majesty, Sidi Muley Has san, sultan of Fez and Morocco, Tafilet and Sus, has survived many annound ments of his death, but the present reports seem to confirm one another, and it is probable that at last this delectable "ruler of the true believers" has met the death he so often had dealt out to others. Muley Hassan was born in 1831, the eldest son of Sultan Sidi Muley Mohammed, and as-cended the throne on the death of his father, on Sept. 25, 1873 Muley Hassau was the fourteenth sovereign of the dy-nasty of the Alides or Fileli, founded by Muley Achmet, and the thirty-fifth lineal descendant of Ali, nucle and son-in-law of the Prophet Mohammed, and of the het's daughter Fatima. Muley Hassan was a personage of some romantic interest, but politically owed his importance to the jealousies of the European powers, which hope to divide his ter ritory between them some of these days, rather than to any especial merit or ability of his own. Personally he was a fine specimen of the Oriental despot, a stalwart and handsome man, wearing "the shadow'd livery of the burnish'd sun' with imposing and regal dignity. His court ceremonials/were filled with barbaric splendor, and his authority was absolute His over all his dominions so far as he was able to enforce it, his actual power the more distant of his tribesmen being

Republicant Maks No Opposition to the Amendments to the Cotton Schedula. Which is Rushed Through in Bail an Hour-Congressman English's Prediction

WASHINGTON, June 12 - The brakes were taken off in the senste yesterday and more progress was made with the tariff bill than during any previous three week of the consideration of the measure. Three schedules, spirits and wines, cotton and flax, jute and hemp manufactures from paragraph 237 to 277 inclusive, comprising nineteen pages of the bili, were disposed of. The entire cotton schedule, ten pages of the bill, was finished in thirty minutes. The Republicans made no opposition to the amendments proposed to this sched ule, maintaining that the rates, though reduced, were so arranged as to make the cotton schedule the most "scientific" ever prepared. Bags made of burlap for grain and cotton bagging were placed on th free list. The collar and cuff paragraph considerable discussion provoked more or less amusement. Today the woolen schedule was taken up. Mr. Quny gave notice just before adjournment that he would, when this schedule was reached resume the speech he was delivering four weeks ago.

There was an air of languid listlessness apparent in the house, and it was evident that the members were not in a working humor The day was claimed by Mr. Heard, chairman of the committee on the District of Columbia, but while several bills were considered no action was reached on any of them on account of the ack of a quorum
