

hear tell of a purchaser wanting to buy an imitation? Why do men who try to sell such articles speak of the act as "working them off?" Simply because peo-ple want the best, and it takes work and likewise deception to sell them the worst. This unpleasant experience may befall the housekceper who determines to the new vegetable shortening. The healthfulness, flavor, and economy of this wonderful cooking product has won for it the widest popularity, which in turn has attracted the attention of business parasites who are "working off' imitations and coun-terfeits. "SUGAR" CAMPAIGN. Mr. Havemeyer Before the Senate Investigating Committee. WHERE THE "SUGAR" WAS PLACED.

The Hend of the Great Trust Admits

That Contributions Were Made to the Campaign Funds of the Two Leading Political Parties.

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- When Mr. H. O. Havomeyer, president of the American Sugar Refining company, otherwise known as the sugar trust, was excused by the senate investigating committee, at 4:15 yesterday afternoon, he had been with the raterialsy afternoon, he had been with the committee about five hours, and was asked to appear again today. The inquiry was begun by asking Mr Havemeyer about the published statement that he had, either on Mr. E. C. Benedict's yacht or at Greenwich, Conn., been in consulta-tion with Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Bene-dict in 1900 after Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Benedict in 1892, after Mr. Cleveland's nomina-tion for the presidency, about the sugar Interests as affected by the Hawaiian treaty. To this Mr. Havemeyer said there was "not one word of truth." He also

Was not not word of truth. He also declared that no such consultation had ever occurred at any time or place With reference to the reported confer-ence at the Arlington hotel in this city he said. "Some time in March I was in Mr. Terrell's room at the Arlington hote when Mr Brice, Mr Smith and Mr Reed were present. There was nothing at that interview said about the obligations of the Democratic party to the sugar trust. there existing no obligation between them, and there was no mention of any. I have no recollection of any reference to any obligation on the part of Smith, Brics or any one present."

He then told how he had been sent for by Mr. Terrell to come to his (Terrell's) room and explain the augar question to Senator Brice. He said that Senator Smith came in after his explanation of the sugar question had been concluded, and was very positive that there was no further conversation on the subject of sugar after Senator Smith came in Nor was there any reference to the indebtedness of the Democratic party to the sugar trust by him to Senator Smith or any other sens-tor. Neither had he told Mr. Smith that the bill should be beaten if sugar did not get fair treatment. He also denied the story of a Sunday meeting at the Capitol with Senator Caffery and others, and said that he had never been at the Capitol on Sunday. He said he had come to Washington early in March, after the tariff bill had passed the house, with the hope of getting a hearing before the finance committee, and had gone to Senator Vest's to ask him If it would not be possible to secure d hearing by the committee. Mr Vest had said no, but had agreed to allow him to explain the sugar question to him (Vest) individually, and he had done so, meeting Vest twice Mr Havemeyer then explained his interview with Senator Jones at Senator Camden's rooms, and with Senator Caffery at Senator Brice's house. He had talked with Jones about three-quarters of an hour about the different systems of levying duty and about the cost of refin ing sugar in this and other countries. He said that he had been invited to Senator Brice's house by the senator to meet Sena-tor Caffery, and when he met him, merely went over the argument for an ad valoren duty. Mr Havemeyer said he had two interviews at the Normandie hotel with Sena-tor Hill. At the first interview he had explained the refining business to him, and had told him what he thought ought to be done. At the second interview he ex-plained to him the discrimination in it, and wanted him to take some active interest to have it remedied Mr. Havemeyer said he had also made two visits to Senator Gorman, who had seemed to take an for forman, who had seemed to take an interest in the question Mr Gorman had been surprised at the apparent discrimi-nation, and had said he thought the classi-fication ought to be free from that. He had also called on Senator Smith at the Normandie and pointed out this discrimi-

ANOTHER DAY OF SPEECHES. Senator Quay Puts in Four More Hours in His Go-as-You-Please Talk.

WASHINGTON, June 18 .- The absolute blockade of the tariff bill in the senate yesterday was in marked contrast with the wonderful progress made on Monday. Not a cog was turned. The entire eight hours were devoted to set speeches, pre-liminary to the consideration of the wool schedule. Mr. Quay, who has been qui-escent for five weeks, resumed the delivery of his speech, which has already occu d four days, and after speaking four hours his manuscript seemed unappreci-ably diminished. Then he yielded from sheer exhaustion, and Messrs. Pettigrew (N. D.), Power (Mont.) and Peffer (Kan.) made set speeches against free wool. Dur-ing a lull in the debate Mr. Mitchell (Ore. moved to lay the tariff bill on the table The motion, however, was without specia significance and was defeated by a strict party vote. Mr. Chapman, the Wall street broker who refused to answer questions. was reported as contumacious to the sen ate by the sugar investigating committee and a resolution was introduced to bring him to the bar of the senate for contempt. Two hours were consumed in the house by a bill reported by Mr. Outhwaits setting aside $100,000 from the fund belong ing to the estates of deceased colored sol diers of the civil war for the purpose of erecting in the District of Columbia a na tional home for aged and infirm colored people. The bill was passed. The Indian appropriation bill was then taken up, but the house adjourned without completing its consideration.

A BURGLAR SHOT DOWN

He and Two Pals Attempted to Hob Farm House.

GREENSBURG, Pa., June 13.-About 9 o'clock p.m. three burglars forced an en-trance to the residence of James Muffler, a farmer living in Bell township, near Perrysville. The noise made by the burg-lars aroused the inmates, who hastily jumped out of bed and rushed down stairs. They were no sooner down than they were confronted in the dark by the thieves, who commenced shooting, one of the shots taking effect in the hand and arm of a hired boy named John Mansfield. Mansfield rushed into an adjoining room and got a shotgun, and upon entering the appartment where the three roffians were opened fire, the load striking one of them and he fell to the floor The others fled and have since not been apprehended. The neighbors were aroused, and it was soon discovered that the burglar was fa-tally wounded, the load of shot having struck him in the right side, making a terrible wound He was shortly afterward identified as the notorious Jim Ward, of Apollo, who on the night of Nov. 13, 1881, murdered the two Means sisters near Sar dis, and who was subsequently arrested, tried and convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for twelve years. Ward, hav-ing served his time has been living with his family at Apollo since his return, and has been a terror to the community even

STILL STEALING TRAINS

Coxcepties Courting the Attentious of Posses of Armed Deputies.

BISMARCE, N D., June 18.-About 100 strong the Coxeyites are here. They st-tempted to capture an east bound freight, to which was attached the private car of Superintendent Wilson, of the Dakota division. The sheriff and other police of ficers of the county were called on for as-sistance, and during an encounter a couple of shots were fired. Finally the train was backed to Mandan Instead of going east, and at that point the army was finally put off the train. They turned up here again, and Deputy Marshai Doggett is coming from Fayo with fifty armsd depu-tina DENVER, June 13 .-- A freight train on the Gulf road was captured at La Salle by 400 of the Coxeyites who left Denver last week for Washington. An engineer from the ranks took charge of the engine and ran to Sterling, where it was side tracked and will remain as long as the army re-mains in the vicinity. The road is in the hands of a receiver, and if the sheriff is unable to protect the property of the com-pany the United States marshal will be called upon. JAMESTOWN, N. D., June 18.-Govern Shortridge received information that the Coxeyites from Helena will arrive at Will-iston via the Missouri river today. It is feared that they may attempt the seizure of Great Northern trains. The governor was requested by the road to ask for as sistance of United States troops at Fort Buford This the governor is not likely to do.

nation, and the senator had promised to ook into the matter and do what he could to remedy the inequality of the schedule as first reported.

Explaining bis visit to Secretary Carlisle Mr Havemeyer said: "I called upon him at his house before the senate finance committee reported the bill to ascertain what his views were about the adminis-tration of an ad valorem duty on sugar. whether he thought it could be efficiently and honestly administered. His reply was that he thought it could. I likewise asked him if he did not agree with me that the ad valorem was the proper one upon which to assess the duty on raw sugar, if there was to be a duty He said he did, provided the duty was to be a moderate

Mr. Havemeyer admitted that the principal object of the organization was that of controlling the price and output of cipal object of the organization was that of controlling the price and output of sugar in this country, and that the com pany had succeeded in doing this. Senstor Allen asked whether the trust had not endeavored to control the legisla-tion of congress with a view of protecting its interests, and with a view of making money out of such legislation as might be enacted here, to which Mr. Havemeyer replied: "Undoubtedly, that is what I have been down here for." Mr. Havemeyer made some rather start-Hung statements toward the close of his

Hing statements toward the close of his testimony He was asked about the com-tributions of the sugar trust to the cam-paign funds of political parties, and said that the records of the trust showed that contributions were made, but that they were made to the state committees not to the national committees He was asked if the contributions of the trust were to both south of the asame state given to both parties in the same state, and replied. "Oh, no."

"How do you arrange it" he was asked. "Well, New York is a Democratic state. We give to the Democrate there, and to Republicans in Massachusetts. We the.

the Republicants in Massachusette. We mever give to the minority " "Did you contribute to the anti-snap-perst" asked Senator Lodge. "Oh no. I am quite sore on that point.
