A Triumph for the Harvey Plate.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Without notice, Captain Sampson, chief of the naval ordnance bureau, slipped quietly down to the Indian Head proving ground and fired two shots from the twelve inch rifle at the seventeen inch Bethlehem armor plate, against the testing of which under standard conditions the company had vainly protested. The result was the complete triumph of the plate and the demonstration of the value and practicability of the Harvey process as applied to plates of this thickness.

An Accused Editor Acquitted.

MAUCH CHUNK, June 13.—James W. Maloy, proprietor of the Lansford Record, was on trial in the Carbon county court yesterday, charged with having violated the election laws at the last election by printing two Democratic tickets in the same column for one of the wards in Lansford borough. After hearing the testimony Judge Albright directed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty, as it was shown that Mr. Maloy had merely acted under instructions.

Depose in Virginia.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 13.—The commencement exercises at the University of Virginia were continued yesterday with the joint celebration of the Jefferson and Washington Literary societies. Hon. Chauncy M. Depew was the orator of the occasion. Walhalla.

THE old German soldiers believed that those who died in battle went to Walhalla, the Heaven of Heroes. Here they feasted on roast wild boar and drank goat's milk and beer. The feasting over, they repaired to the fields and fought with each other. No matter how severely anyone was injured in these struggles his wounds were healed and his health restored in time for the next meal upon taking a draft of Lorelei.

ON the famous Lorelei Rock, which rises from the Rhine near St. Goar, there sits according to the German legend, a beautiful siren combing her long golden hair, holding aloft a foaming beaker of beer and singing a ravishing song. Boatmen are so entranced by the beauty of her voice that they draw near and drink the
