ITALIANS ON STRIKE!

Operations on Public Water Works Stopped.

MORE WAGES DEMANDED

The Men Working For the McAdam Brothers Tired of a Dollar a Day and Demand an Increase to One Dollar and a Quarter.

There was no work in progress on the Fowler's Run section of the public water works to-day, because all the Italians employed on the branch of the work struck this morning for more wages and refused to touch either pick or shovel without having their demands acceded.

Robert and William McAdam are subcontractors for the Fowler's Run part of the building of the storage reservoir and the laying of pipe from that place across the mountain to the station on the Davis Run side.

The Italians employed on the job have been very restless lately and have repeatedly hinted that they would strike if they were not paid better wages. They live in shanties built at the scene of operations by the sub-contractors.

When the hour for resuming work arrived this morning not an Italian left his shanty. There was no demonstration. Every man seemed to have been a party to a pre-arranged plan to stop work without notice and refuse to go out until the increase of wages would be granted.

Robert McAdam, who has the immediate supervision of the work in hand, went to the shanty line and asked the men why they had failed to report for work and he was told that the men would work no longer for a dollar a day and wanted $1.25. McAdam said if they would not work the shanties would have to be vacated; that he could get plenty of men at a dollar a day and they would need the shanties. The Italians said they would not vacate the places until they received their pay. McAdam said they would have to wait until pay day, which will be on the 20th inst., and there the matter stands.

An Italian said to-day he did not think there would be any desperate methods on the part of the strikers, yet he would not answer for the result if a new gang of men were put on and attempts should be made to empty the shanties before the old hands receive their wages.

The strikers number about eighty men and every one is determined not to work another hour for the McAdams until they are granted $1.25 a day.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS.

The Fight Between Rivals at Tamaqua Has Ended.

The Inter-County Electric Railway Company won its fight for the right of way at a meeting of the Tamaqua Borough Council on Thursday evening. The fight was a bitter one. The result seems to be a victory for the people of the borough. Three hundred people gathered in front of the United States Hotel and were delirious with joy when the result of the Council's action was made known. Fire-works and a drum corps inspired them. The rival company for the right of way was the Tamaqua and Lansford Electric Railway Company, which was the first to secure a charter and enter the field, but did not meet with popular favor.

The company which has been granted the right of way says the fare from Tamaqua to points between this place and Coal Dale will be five cents. The fare to Coal Dale, Lansford and Summit Hill will be ten cents.

A Coxite in Town.

A deserter from Coxey's army floated into town yesterday. He was the first "soldier" that has been seen here and was a good specimen of the genus tramp. He claimed to be a brewer by trade, looking for work his but greasy clothes and red nose proclaimed him a gaudier looking for booze. He presented credentials, of which the following is a copy: "Common seal of Christ. This certifies that William Easy, of Group 4, Commune B, Chicago Community of the Commonwealth of Christ, is entitled to this souvenir of heroic conduct in crossing the Cumberland Mountains in quest of snow and ice and despite persecutions and dissolution breeders. Signed, J. S. Coxey, Good Roads Association of the United States. Colonel Brown, Marshal of the Commonwealth of Christ." The boys set 'em up for the poor fellow and when last seen he was looking up a night's lodging in a lumber pile.

Night Fire.

Hot ashes thrown into a barrel in the yard at the rear of Bradley's market on East Centre street caused a blaze this afternoon and the flames extended with a steady increase. An alarm was sounded but a bucket brigade extinguished the flame before the firemen had a chance to get to their work. The stable was but slightly damaged.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

Arrangements Made for the Gathering Here Next Week.

The next big event here will be the annual state convention of the Catholic Temperance Societies and Cadets, which will convene on Wednesday, next, and last two days. A large number of delegates and several societies will attend and a fine exhibition of drills is promised by some of the bodies. The Shamokin and Lost Creek cadets are especially well prepared for the exhibition.

The ceremonies will be opened at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning by the celebration of mass in the Annunciation church, after which the first business session will be opened in the T. A. M. hall on South Chestnut street. At 2 p. m. the street parade will take place. It is expected that at least one thousand men and boys will be in line.

On the morning of Thursday, 21st, the final business session will be held and in the afternoon the delegates, accompanied by the local societies, will make a pleasure trip to Lakeside.

Not a Fugitive.

A special to the HERALD on the 11th inst. mentioned a fight between John Conners and Joseph Wagner, in which the former got the worst of the affair. The special also stated that Wagner cleared out. It now appears that Wagner who is a cripple, struck at Conners in self defence and did not run away from Gilberton to escape the consequences of an act which he believes he was justified in doing. He is a resident of this town now and can be found at any time.

Ex-Congressman's Suicide.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.
WASHINGTON, June 16—Ex-Congressman Thomas M. Bayne, of Pittsburg, Pa., committed suicide this morning by shooting himself through the heart and expired instantly. The deceased was one of the most brilliant Republican members of the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses and was succeeded in the Twenty-third district by Hon. William A. Stone, of Allegheny City.

SCHUYLKILL POLITICS.

Interesting Letter From Occasional Correspondent.

IMPARTIAL COMMENTS!

What a Close Observer of the Political Movements in the County Has to Say on the Chances of the Several Candidates. The Senatorial Fight.

Special HERALD correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, June 15.—A review of the political situation in Schuylkill county may now be made with some certainty as to the probable outcome; and in reviewing it I do not want to be understood as favoring any candidate for any particular office, no matter who he is and altogether irrespective of the party to which he belongs. I take it the HERALD readers want facts rather than theories and it will be the endeavor of your scribe to dish up only such things as he believes are substantial and have truth as the principal element in their make-up.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE.

Who will carry off the nomination for Congress in the Republican county convention, Shoenor, Brumm or Leach? Mr. Brumm says he will, Mr. Shoenor says he will and Mr. Leach says neither Brumm or Shoenor know what they are talking about. The Schuylkill Haven statesman has some fishing, but before he went he said a visit to several important stamping grounds, like Shenandoah and Mahanoy City, and threw out a few lines to catch delegates. It is rumored also that he took a shy at the 29th district Senatorial fight while there against Coyle and Leach. He is quoted on good authority that Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, will not go into the arena, but that Thomas J. Edwards, of Mahanoy City, and Frank Kautner, of Lofty, will contest with Mr. Leach for the coveted nomination. How ever that may be, we have the indisputable fact staring Republican eyes in the fact that so far as the nomination is concerned, Leach is still in the field, though he may be far from the goal. It is still a neck and neck race between Shoenor and Brumm with the chances in favor of any one you choose to make.

SALLADE OR HIGGINS.

In the fight for Sheriff on the Democratic side it is conceded the fight has narrowed down to Doc Sallade or T. J. Higgins. All others are only in it to make the race a lively one. It is more than probable, from information just at hand, that Frank P. Spiese will ally the track for Senator and yield to the blandishments of some pseudo friends who, unmindful of the adage about swapping horses while crossing a stream, want him to switch off on to the Sheriff track. It is too late, however, for Spiese to assail Dr. Sallade, and Higgins is so far ahead with his people that it is safe to say it will be either Higgins or Sallade in the Democratic convention.

THIRTIETH DISTRICT CONTEST.

Up with you, people, I say the Senatorial contest creates an interest and I will briefly refer to that again. It may be accepted now that the Democratic tussle will be between J. J. Franey, of Shenandoah, and ex-Senator King, of Mahanoy City. Senator Monaghan will not be in the field again; in fact it is pretty sure he will remain out West and not even take a hand in the matter for any one. Mr. Franey's friends build on his many qualifications, among them being his general ability, his property interest in the region, his unquestioned Democracy and his close attachment to the workingmen's interest, having been a miner in early life. They also claim that, as shown in the recent water question in Shenandoah, he can always be depended upon to champion the people's cause and rights and that in all these particulars he is the peer of ex-Senator King. The latter, on the other hand, is not ready yet to make his claims for the place, or if at all, they will only be made known by his lieutenants, such as Squire Litsch, of Mahanoy City, just before the time for the convention and those claims can all be included in one word—experience as a legislator in both houses at Harrisburg. It is hard to say much about the ex-senator's record as a legislator and savior compels me to say it is a good one, and if he should secure the nomination he will make it warm for opposition in the field. Mr. Franey just now, I am informed, is besieged daily with callers who urge him to run and some of them promise the closest kind of fealty. He is certainly in a good position to run for office as he can well people north of the mountain and before the Democrats, should not only throw no obstacle in the way, but they should encourage it by every possible and convincing means.

NOTES.

It is just as important for the people of the county to have good, honest, intelligent and non-office seeking Jury Commissioners as to have the same kind of men in any of the higher offices.

Dave Llewellyn was here last week and his room for Poor Director was taken up passed around and greeted with admiring glances at every corner.

D. C. Henning, Esq., is suggested as a delegate to the Republican convention from the South ward of town to be chairman thereof in honor of the Henry Clay League.

J. Harry Filbert, Esq., will no doubt be a delegate from North Manheim township and he may lift up his voice and place John T. Shoenor in nomination for Congress. Mr. Filbert will be remembered for his effort in last year's convention.

One On the Irish.

A woman who has been canvassing in town the past week walked into a Main street saloon and called for a glass of beer. When the beverage was served she blew the froth into a spittoon and before placing the glass to her lips said to the bartender with a wink, "I leave that for the Irish, they want the cream of everything."

BASE BALL.

Messitt arrived in town last night. Renova will be the next club to play here.

Lock Haven cancelled its date and Renova will fill it.

Manager Ralphy took his team to Jeannette this afternoon.

Muldring and Messitt will probably be the battery for the Renova game.

It is not believed the law suits will result in the dissolution of the home team.

Little Toman is a favorite with the boys. He appears to be their ideal of a ball player.

Musser is becoming quite a favorite with the people. He is a quiet, unassuming young man.

Renova was the club which played a twelve inning game here last summer when our club was stronger than it is now.

Pitcher Shultz has sufficiently recovered from his injury to resume work, but will not play ball again for this summer at least.

If the home management does not arrange for more games during the week it may lose most of its good players. They become restless when idle.

The players on the home team complain of a lack of courtesy on the part of the Pottsville managers, who made them pay an admission fee at yesterday's game.

Some Changes.

T. J. Broughall has moved into his newly remodeled dwelling on West Oak street.

John Schiefly, Sr., will occupy the residence on East Oak street just vacated by Mr. Broughall.

David Phillips, of South White street, expects to remove to Mahanoy City next month and will occupy one of his new houses now under construction.

H. C. Royler of the HERALD, will move into the building that will be vacated by Mr. Phillips.

Council vs. School Board.
Preliminaries are now being arranged for a game of base ball between members of the Borough Council and the School Board. Secretary Gardin, of the former body, is manager and A. H. Lamb, Field Knier at Mahanoy City and will act as captain. The members of Council, when approached on the question of a contest with the School Board, seemed to consider the matter as a huge joke. They felt that their reputation was at stake, but in order to obtain a little practice they consented to enter a contest with the guardians of the schools for a supper, the loser to foot the bill. There is no doubt but the contest will draw a large crowd.

Further Investigation Asked.

EDITOR HERALD:—Your guessing and wondering in this evening's HERALD was quite interesting. Now why not ask Council, while they are in the investigating business, to investigate the residence of Councilman Dougherty. Such an inquiry, I believe, would bring forth some funny things. The man whom Dougherty claims to board with works all by night and he nor his wife are not the kind of people to countenance such deception.

Charles Burdick, who until recently conducted the cafe at the corner of Main and Coal streets, has leased the Hotel Kaiser at Mahanoy City and will take charge on Monday.
