

BEST DIET FOR CHILDREN.

Physicians of Large Experience Say the Only Security is in Lactated Food—Little Miss Krapf of Pennsylvania.

Babyhood cannot be trifled with. Thousands die yearly in the months of June, July and August from mistakes in diet, and that means from causes which could be prevented.

When the baby is weaned a substitute must be found for mother's milk, sufficiently nutritious to supply material for baby's rapid growth and development, agreeable to take and of absolute purity. All these conditions are perfectly fulfilled in lactated food. It is the most nourishing, strengthening, readily digested and palatable food that can be given the baby.

Says Mrs. Charles A. Krapf, 351 West Broad street, Hazleton, Penn.: "Our little girl has been using lactated food since last year up to the present time, and we think it is the best food for children. It has built her up in solid flesh, and I could not do without it."

In a recent letter Mrs. Susan Bartram, 2611 Tulip street, Philadelphia, wrote: "I have raised three babies on lactated food. I tried all kinds of foods for the first one and none of them gave satisfaction. The doctor advised me to use lactated food, and in one week's time after commencing its use, I saw an improvement in the baby and after that I never had any trouble and have never used any other kind of food. I commenced using the food with my next baby when he was three days old. He is now 20 months old and has cut 17 teeth without any trouble. I have another baby only three weeks old to-morrow, and I have begun to give her the lactated food, too. I have recommended the food to many friends and they have used it with great satisfaction."

I have two little grandchildren who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bon Aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Geubler Bros.

MUTINY AND CRIME.

The Remarkable Story Told by the Captain of a British Bark.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—The British bark Inve, Captain Wilcox, arrived yesterday sixty-four days from New Castle, N. S. W., with a most remarkable story of mutiny and crime. Just before the vessel left New Castle a man calling himself Dr. Armitage applied for passage for himself and wife to San Francisco. Captain Wilcox gladly took them on board, as his wife needed the services of a physician. About two weeks ago, at sea, Mrs. Wilcox gave birth to a child, and Armitage officiated as surgeon. He used instruments in such a manner that the child died, and the captain, seeing he was unskilled, ordered him away from his wife.

Armitage appealed to the crew, telling them that the captain was killing his wife. The crew, led by the mate, mutinied, and the captain, after being drugged, was locked up. He managed to get out just in time to see his wife die. Several times he was imprisoned by the crew, but he managed to break out. Armitage's real name is Eustace Alexander. He is said to have deserted his wife and baby in Sydney and fled to New Castle with another woman, where he joined the Inve. The bark, crew and passengers are now in the custody of the port warden, and the police made arrests last evening.

Wallitz May Escape the Noose.

THRENTON, June 20.—Governor Werts yesterday afternoon relieved for a month Joseph Wallitz, the convict who was to have been hanged on Friday next for the murder of State Prison Keeper Lippincott. The governor is not satisfied with the verdict of the jury in the case because the bullets which came from the revolver of the dead man and the prisoner were not produced at the trial. This will aid counsel for the prisoner in an effort to have the Pennsylvania authorities exonerate the keeper's body. If this should fail Wallitz's sentence will be commuted to imprisonment for life.

The Sultan's Brother Imprisoned.

TANGER, June 20.—Mula Muhammet, eldest son of the late sultan and a pretender to the throne, has been imprisoned at Marakesh, by order of his brother, Sultan Abdul Aziz, and compelled to sign an act of adhesion to Abdul Aziz. The position of the latter has been secured by his being recognized as sultan by the powerful shereef of Wazan. The towns of Marakesh and Mequinez, and the chief of the independent Zayan tribe have promised Abdul Aziz to give 3,000 armed men along the road between Fez and Mequinez for the purpose of preserving order.

Commonwealers Capture a Train.

MILWAUKEE, June 20.—General "Jumbo" Cantwell's Commonweal army captured a fast stock train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road at La Crosse at midnight and came through to Milwaukee, 200 miles. The army numbered 100, but forty were left at La Crosse. The "wealers" were determined to take, and overcame the train crew by sheer force of numbers. The conductor notified the officers in this city of the situation, and received orders to carry the army to Milwaukee.

Suspected Postoffice Thief Captured.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 20.—A man who refuses to tell his name, but who seems to be about 50 years old, was arrested at New Martinsville and brought here by United States officers on suspicion of being engaged in numerous postoffice robberies. He is thought to be the head of a troublesome gang which has worked Pennsylvania and West Virginia for some time. He was held for identification.

Mrs. Halliday's Defense.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., June 20.—The defense in the Halliday case seem to be doing but little, apparently relying upon the law which protects any and all forms of insanity. Thus far it has been shown that the murdered women were found under the hay, and that blood spots were on the carpet in the house occupied by Mrs. Halliday.

Sanders' Army Jailed.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 19.—Judge Thomas sentenced Sanders' Commonweal army to pay fines varying from $20 to $50 each. The prisoners were divided into five batches, each going to a different county jail. This, it is thought, will effectually break up the army.

THE ALLEN CASE.

The Trial is Moving Slowly Because of Many Legal Trifles.

POTTSVILLE, June 20.—The trial of County Commissioner Charles F. Allen was continued before Judge Weidman yesterday, with William Wilhelm, Esq., appearing as additional counsel for the defense. The trial is moving very slowly, from the fact that the array of legal talent on both sides take advantage of every technicality that presents itself.

The first witness called yesterday was George Heffner, who testified he had met Allen both at Schuykill Haven and Pottsville before and after the conviction. When on his way to Cressona the witness reminded Allen of the fact that he was an applicant for either warden, under warden or janitor at the court house, but did not, he said, attempt to secure a promise of assistance from Allen. He stated that the witness secured one of the three positions. He met Allen subsequently in Pottsville, when the latter requested him to secure solid votes for him. Upon cross-examination, little was elicited from the witness. Mr. Wilhelm asked him if he had seen Allen after the election. To this the commonwealth objected, when Mr. Wilhelm showed the witness a letter dated Schuykill Haven, November 24, 1893, and asked whether the signature was that of the witness, who answered in the affirmative. Mr. Wilhelm at this point made an offer to prove by the witness that he (Heffner) had written to Allen and also visited him at his home and impudently offered to give Allen $500 if he were given a position; also that the witness went to a certain Republican politician and promised him $50 for his influence upon Allen to give him an appointment.

The Commonwealth objected, but the court overruled the objections. The witness testified that he visited Allen at his home on two occasions concerning the desired appointment, although he realized he could not secure the wardenship. He testified having offered Allen $500 for the appointment, but stated that on his second visit Allen told him the three places were gone, the appointment of janitor having been given to his (Allen's) brother. The witness then told Allen that his brother was near he would give his first month's salary to him, the brother to take something else, after leaving Allen he visited Frank Rentz.

J. Harry Hilbert, attorney-at-law, was the next witness, who stated that Heffner solicited his influence in favor of Allen, which was given.

Charles Hauke was next called, and the Commonwealth stated that, under the third count, they proposed to prove by the witness that Allen had solicited his House the appointment of janitor for such service. Mr. Ryan, for the defense, objected because the third count spoke of the general election, while it was proposed to prove a violation of the delicate election laws—that it was an attempt to prove two offenses under one count. This caused a long legal battle, consuming much time quoting authorities. Court adjourned until this morning to look up certain authorities.

Judge Weidman, upon convening of court to-day, decided in favor of the Commonwealth, and allowed the witness to testify. No material evidence was submitted this morning, the attention of the court and lawyers being taken up with the intimidating witnesses. George Heffner testified that he had been approached and warned to be careful in what he said upon the stand. It has been suggested that John Woodward is the man who approached Heffner in this respect. Woodward was not in court to-day, and a subpoena was issued for him. An investigation has been ordered by the court in reference to the intimidation.

Heffner again called this morning, but nothing of importance was gleaned from him outside of what he previously testified to.

Joseph Honsberger, an important witness for the prosecution, is a man whose defense greatly depended upon, was not allowed to testify upon objection being raised by the lawyers for the defense.

The prosecution is about through with the examination of their witnesses and will probably close their side this afternoon.
