THE WEEK IN CONGRESS TOO MUCH FOR THEM. Again Senators Fredict the Passage of the Experimenting With Hats and the Beadly

MIGe Gas.

Tariff Bill "This Week." WASHINGTON, June 25.—There is little

An interesting experiment was made doubt in any quarter that the present week will see the end of the tariff debate one day last week at the Lehigh Valley Coal Company's office in Lost Creek to the sonate. Estimates as to the time determine how long rats could live in hen the final vote shall be reached range some of the gas which was generated by from Tuesday until Saturday, but a ma-jority of the senators express the opinion that the final vote will be taken on Wedthe fire in the Colorado mine and which was the greatest obstacle the men engaged that the final vote will be taken on Wed-needay or Thursday. Senator Harris, how-ever, still thinks it possible to conclude the work on the bill by tomorrow night. To accomptish this, however, means vory rapid work, comparatively few apeeches and the possible postponement of impor-tant items, such as reciprocity, until the comparatively for a finite second. was the greatest contact the matering of in fighting the fire had to contend with. Rats were taken as the best animals at hand to indicate the time a human being would live in the same gas. The experiments were made under the immediate supervision of Daniel Ogden and John A. Grant, of town, both em ployes and John A. Grant, of town, both em-ployes. The rate were captured in Packer No. 5 colliery and were kept in tin bakes at the Lost Creek office. For several days they were well fed and otherwise cared for so that when the time for the experiment arrived they were in a healthy condition and as lively as they would have been had they never experienced captivity. The gas used for the experiment was taken from the Colorado mine in rubber backs some time aro and was exactly the same kind of gas by which several of the work men engaged in fighting the fire were overcome.

conference report shall be made. Senator Allison expresses the opinion that the senate will not dispose of the bill in the committee of the whole before Tuesday night, and that the four remaining days night, and the four remaining days of the week will be necessary to finish the work on the bill in the senate. The more important questions yet to be disposed of in committee are: The re-mainder of the income tax, the whisky and spirit tax, the tobacco tax, Senator Teller's retallation on diamond amend ment, the spun silk question, which was passed over when the silk schedule was under consideration, and the reciprority, if it be not postponed, and in the sanate sugar and wool as well as others.

If the final vote on the tariff bill is reached before Saturday the appropria-tion bills which have been reported will be immediately taken up, but in what or-der has not yet been determined.

Bailway pooling is expected to be the main subject of discussion before the house this week, with the admission of New Mexico to statehood and the taxa-tion of greenbacks as incidental questions.

Revealed by Death.

"Life is perfected by death," and it is also revealed. A story told in the "Life of Sir Richard Burton" illustrates the clearness with which douth reveals a man to his com rade/

A limitenant in a British regiment wa honest, steady, quiet and full of sterling qualities, but he was dull, reserved and religiously furlined. His brother officers laughed at him and associated but Httle with him. Though well horn, he was poor and had no powerful friends. He therefore remained without promotion or society, by he never complained and did his best.

A battery was to be taken in the Crimes and the light nant's regiment was selected as the storming party. It ussaulted and was driven back. The houtemant railied his own company, and with a longh flung his shake before him and ranked through the breach into the battery, followed by a hand ful of men. They never mine out again. They never mine out again.

That night at the regimental mess there was not a man but regretted that he had not better under-tood the officer whose gal lant death had revealed his superiority. All remembered a thousand good qualities and incidents which ought to have endeared him to them. They were ashamed of the con-tempt with which they had treated him and of the fact that they had never shown him the least kindness - Youth's Companion.
